Good Erev Shabbos,

Here goes nothing...My last plea as president of Congregation Beth Aaron for you to sign up for this year's Shul Dinner. There are only 50 more open seats and only one day left to sign up for what will no doubt be the most incredible, most memorable, most enjoyable, and most talked about Beth Aaron in-person dinner held during my presidency! This Motzei Shabbat, the dinner committee will be working on seating, so we can no longer accommodate additional reservations after Shabbat. NOW IS THE TIME - Sign up tonight or tomorrow. You won't regret it.

I wanted to provide a quick update on the state of repairs to the Shul. We have been making great progress under the stewardship of Abe Leidner to make repairs in the most expedient fashion with minimal impact to Shul operations. Starting with the lower level and working our way up:

- Basement: Work on the youth group rooms has been completed, and the rooms will be available for groups this Shabbos. This will allow the Shabbat Morning Chaburah and the Mommy & Me Room participants to return to their regular locations. The Men's Club storage room has been repaired and all the items previously sitting in the open floor area have been returned to their proper place. The back stairs are still under construction and should not be used, except in the case of an emergency.
- First Floor: Offices have had structural work completed, and wall treatments will begin next week. Penina will be returning to her office as of Monday, and the kitchen returned to full operation. Lobby flooring has been ripped up down to the subfloor, and is now ready to be finished and flooring installed next week as wallpaper is replaced in parallel. The Edgemont Place building entrance may now be used again, and the elevator is once again accessible via the back hallway. The back stairs are still under construction and should not be used, except in the case of an emergency.
- Upper Level: Replacement carpeting in the Main Shul will unfortunately take quite some time to be procured, and the flooring state will as a result remain the same for several weeks. We are working to expedite as best is possible. The Book Room has been returned to service, and has been in use for the past week for regular shiurim, Chaburahs, and the Dirshu Daf Halacha Shiur.

Next Shabbat will be the 4th Annual Shabbat Beth Aaron, and we are looking forward to an inspirational Shabbat leading up to our 50th Anniversary Celebratory Dinner on Sunday evening. More details of next Shabbat's program will be shared early next week, but one thing is for sure - there is going to be an amazing kiddush. And not just any kiddush. We'll be having the Shabbat Beth Aaron 50th Anniversary Celebration Kickoff Kiddush which has been 50 years and 9 weeks in the making. Join us to partake of a unique menu of delicacies while formally kicking off our 50th year. If you are interested in sponsoring the Kiddush, please submit your sponsorships at bethaaron.org/kiddush.

Purim is around the corner, and Pesach is sneaking up behind it. Sign up for the Mishloach Manot Project and for the Pesach Matzah Sale today! Also take a peek at the Beth Aaron Pesach page at <https://www.bethaaron.org/passover> (still somewhat under construction) where you'll find all your Pesach-related information and links, from the annual Pesach guide to links for matzah and wine sales.

Everyone should be aware of the programming scheduled for this coming week and beyond, in addition to the regular shiurim:

- Sunday at 9:00am, Beth Aaron's Shviti program meets. We thank Meylekh & Gitl Viswanath for sponsoring.

Thank you to last week's Parnas Hayom Sponsors:

- Thursday, 23 Adar I, Cathy & Steven Schuss, commemorating the yahrtzeit of Steven's father, Harry Schuss, Naftali Herz ben Yitzchok.

There will be a Board of Directors meeting on Sunday, February 27 at 8:30pm on the Lower Level.

We wish a Mazal Tov to Avi Cooper, and to his parents Michele & Ben Cooper, on his engagement to Numi Katz. We also wish a Mazal Tov to Norman Gildin, former Beth Aaron member, on publishing a book titled "Learn From My Experiences." We also wish a Mazal Tov to Naomi Manas on her engagement to Sendy (Alexander) Gross. We also wish a Mazal Tov to Miriam & Izzy Salomon and to Barbara & Neal Yaros, on the birth of their granddaughter Rivka (Rikki) Shifra. We wish a refuah shleimah and continued prayer for all those within our community and around the world who are still in need of our Tefillot.

Wishing everyone a Shabbat Shalom,

Steven Hoenig
