Good Erev Shabbos,

Thank you to all our members for your patience this past week as we worked to get the Shul back into working shape after Sunday Night's flooding issues. Baruch Hashem, we were able to quickly regain access to the Social Hall and Beit Midrash on Monday, and now will be able to (mostly) fully utilize the Shul this Shabbat. We'd like to thank the many individuals who have helped support our disaster response effort this past week, in particular the members of the house committee and those special individuals (you know who you are) who were at the scene from 1:30am Monday morning responding to the emergency. Thank you to all the volunteers this morning who helped clear out the bookcases in the back of the Main Shul. And thank you to Penina, who has been working on a table set up in the Shul kitchen since Tuesday, under less than ideal conditions. Note that she will continue to be working from that location until the offices have been repaired.

In other big news, the Beth Aaron 50th Year Celebratory Dinner is only 7 weeks away! Don't wait until the last minute. Sign up today, and I guarantee you will feel much better next week when I tell you that the Dinner is only 6 weeks away. Imagine how much less pressure you will feel next week knowing that you've already booked your seats for what is sure to be the highlight of your year at Beth Aaron.

And lastly, today is the perfect day to sign up for the 50th Year Celebratory Dinner for Congregation Beth Aaron. Even better, today is the perfect day to also call a friend or two, and ask them if they've signed up yet for the Beth Aaron Dinner. If they haven't, tell them that you've already signed up (you actually have.. see above) and how disappointed you are that they haven't signed up yet because you really want to sit with them at the dinner. Now you'll feel better, your friend (or two) will feel better, and our dinner committee will have a much easier time arranging tables.

In all seriousness, I think you should sign up for the Shul Dinner today. Join me in showing Hakarat HaTov to our wonderful and dedicated honorees, and get ready to have a great time.

Ongoing Open Calls to Action:

- Beth Aaron Youth Department Parsha Art Contest.
- Join the new social media committee.
- Sign Up for "Axe Throwing Night" on Feb 12 (Motzei Shabbos)
