BETH AARON'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY

As we celebrate Beth Aaron's 50th Anniversary, the Israel Committee has arranged for programming which reflects our shul's strong ties to Eretz Yisrael. Please take a look at the highlights below to see what we have in store for the coming year. We look forward to your participation in these exciting events!

Where Are They Now / Let's Reconnect – Since our shul's establishment, over 100 families/single members from our shul have made aliyah. We have been reaching out to some of our olim and will be interviewing them to catch up on their experiences in Israel from the time they arrived until today. The video recordings will be shared on Beth Aaron's YouTube channel and our shul website (bethaaron.org/50) throughout the year. We currently feature recorded interviews with the Shrons, Leichmans and Judi Resnick.

Wall of Fame – Look for the artistic installation in the shul lobby honoring our Beth Aaron families that have made aliyah, highlighting our strong attachment to Eretz Yisrael.

Sponsorships are available for funding the cost of the display, and the names of sponsors will be published at this year's shul dinner. If you are interested in sponsoring the plaque, please contact David Fisher at davidfisher100@gmail.com.

3. Anyone who would like to suggest seforim or books to add to the shul's collection, please send an email to Library@bethaaron.org. If you are willing to contribute toward their purchase, please let us know.
4. With the YU Seforim Sale taking place this year, February 6-24, please consider setting aside funds for the purchase of new seforim and Jewish-related books. We will post titles and prices as they become available.

The extent of tutoring services provided is dependent on the number of families requesting these services, as well as the availability of resources. Good Erev Shabbos,

As our 50th Year Anniversary Celebration launches, we celebrate our Shul's vision to be a congregation that supports the needs of the greater Jewish community and is deeply committed to Eretz Yisrael. We are excited to announce two programs being run by our Israel subcommittee, "Where Are They Now / Let's Reconnect" and "Wall of Fame," both of which are detailed in the shul announcements. Thank you to the Israel subcommittee for their efforts to put this together, and we hope everyone can enjoy and participate.

This past week, we were pleased to announce a new Shidduch initiative, and to introduce Noah and Ayelet Isaacs as dedicated Beth Aaron shadchanim. This program will be available to any full member of the Beth Aaron community, and will be a multifaceted offering which is sure to provide tremendous benefit to our community. Details on how to participate are in the shul announcements.

The Beth Aaron Youth Department is now running "A Parsha Art Contest," where our youth can create a piece of art based on any parsha and bring it to Rabbi Stanley Fisch zt"l Parent-Child Learning. The winner will be announced on February 19. We encourage all of our youth to participate.

Yasher Koach and Mazal Tov to the Chevra Daf who will finish Masechet Megillah on Thursday, January 13. You can join them on Friday, January 14, when they start Masechet Moed Kattan. Be sure to take advantage of the Daf Yomi offerings at Congregation Beth Aaron, with the daily in-person Daf Yomi Shiur given by Rabbi Asher Becker each weeknight at 9:15pm, as well as our Shabbat afternoon Daf Yomi shiur given by magidei shiur from our member rotation. For those looking for other Gemara learning options, take advantage of our Daf HaShavua program which meets three times a week, as well as Rabbi Rothwachs' weekly Sanhedrin Shiur.

Next Shabbos, we are excited to welcome Scholar in Residence Rebbetzin Shira Schiowitz (Nach Yomi educator) who will give a shiur on "Shoftim in Relationship to Yehoshua" in honor of the Torat Imecha Nach Yomi program culminating two years of learning (742 Perakim) and beginning their new cycle of Nach Yomi. If you are interested in sponsoring, please see details in the shul announcements. We thank Adeena & Yair Mayerfeld for sponsoring in honor of Arlene Eis, Fran Mermelstein, Susan Presby and Sharon Rosen, who will be completing Nach Yomi.

The Library Committee will be conducting its annual inventory of seforim and books over the weekend of January 14. Please return all borrowed seforim/books to the shul before January 9 so that proper inventory may be taken. Please reach out to Library@bethaaron.org if you are able to volunteer to assist, have suggestions for seforim needed by the shul, or if you are interested in sponsoring seforim purchases at the upcoming YU Seforim Sale in February.
