Good Erev Shabbos,

In anticipation of the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, I wanted to express thanks to all those who continue to dedicate their time, energy, and means to help keep our shul running and thriving. We have come a long way since this time last year, with shul operations running at close to normal levels. We continue to work hard to keep our shul growing, and appreciate the efforts of all those who help us in our efforts to reach that goal. This Sunday will be a Board of Directors meeting at 8:00pm, our first meeting in person in close to 2 years. I am excited to finally have a face to face gathering with this collective group of members who have made a commitment of one to two years of their life in service of our shul. To me personally, this marks a tremendous milestone in our return to shul. Our Board of Directors group represents only one of the many ways our members are actively volunteering to help our shul, and I take this opportunity to encourage each of you to reach out to me personally if you would like to get involved and further help our Shul in any way possible.

This Thursday morning, on Thanksgiving, we will be taking down the patio tent as required by the town ahead of winter. We will need a small army of volunteers to help with this effort which should take no more than 2-3 hours. If you or any other able bodied member of your family is able to assist, please reach out to me via email, text, or WhatsApp. This will be a great opportunity to help our shul, practice some teamwork, and also get in a bit of exercise before the big meal. Refreshments will be served.

Thank you again to Fran Mermelstein and the Mermelstein family for sharing with Beth Aaron a new Sefer Torah, written in memory of Shelly Mermelstein, Yosef Shmuel Shmelke ben Yitzchok ve-Rivka z"l. This past Sunday's Hachnasat Sefer Torah was a memorable experience for all, and we look forward to continued usage of the Sefer Torah for many years to come.

Everyone should be aware of the programming scheduled for this coming week and beyond, in addition to the regular shiurim:

- Friday evening will be the first of several special ruach-filled Mincha/Kabbalat Shabbat to be held in the Beit Midrash.
- Shabbat afternoon, following the 4:10pm Mincha in the Main Shul, Rabbi Moshe Taragin will speak on the subject of "On Chanukah and Galut"

- Tuesday, 19 Kislev, Debbie & Michael Ross, commemorating the yahrtzeit of Debbie's mother, Trudy Rosenthal, Rivkah bat Aaron.

We wish a Mazal Tov to Naomi & Aaron Mandelbaum, on the engagement of their granddaughter. We extend our condolences to Varda Hager, on the passing of her beloved mother, Nina Hager. We wish a refuah shleimah and continued prayer for all those within our community and around the world who are still in need of our Tefillot.
