Good Erev Shabbos,

Our return to Shul continues! We are pleased to announce the return of daily in-person Daf Yomi shiurim at Congregation Beth Aaron. The shiur will be given each weekday by Rabbi Asher Becker, Monday through Thursday, at 9:15 pm in the Book Room, and will be followed by Ma'ariv at 9:50 p.m. in the Beit Midrash. The shiur will also be presented via Zoom, details of which are in the announcements, for those who cannot attend in person. Rabbi Becker attended Yeshivat Shaalvim and received semicha from Yeshiva University. We are extremely excited to have this important part of Torah learning return to shul, and encourage all those learning Daf Yomi already to join in this shiur. We also encourage those of you who have been waiting for the right time, to join in this new opportunity.

After a long run of 19 months, we will no longer be offering an 8AM weekday minyan on the shul patio. Baruch Hashem many of our 8am patio minyan goers have been able to return to davening inside, and of those remaining several plan to do so as the cold weather arrives. We thank the many attendees who have sustained the minyan to this point, as well as those critical members who have helped manage that minyan and support it. For those looking to remain outside for shacharit, the 6:20am / 6:30am minyan will continue on weekdays, and other shuls south of Cedar continue to offer outdoor options at the 8am timeframe. The 8am minyanim on Shabbos and Sunday will continue to be held as usual for the foreseeable future.

Tonight we welcome the JLE and the Shabbat Project. Thank you to Joy Sperber and to all those who helped organize what is surely going to be a meaningful and amazing Shabbat experience for all those who participate.

Also tonight, all teens are invited to the NCSY Oneg beginning at 8:30pm on the lower level. NCSY in partnership with Beth Aaron will be having regular Shabbat Onegs throughout the year, and we look forward to providing meaningful Shabbat programming for our teens. More details on future Onegs will follow.

Next Shabbat, October 30th will be the next installment of the Men's Club Multisponsored Hot Kiddush, recognizing the Chattanim from Simchat Torah. Whether you are honoring a Chattan, served as a Chattan, or just love having hot kiddushim, join us in honoring our Chattanim and enjoy the opportunity to eat, speak, and celebrate! Sign up today to sponsor.

Everyone should be aware of additional programming scheduled for this coming week and beyond, in addition to the regular shiurim:

- The 4th-6th grade boys and girls Mishna Groups with Jason David will be held on the Shul Patio 40 minutes before Mincha on Shabbat afternoon, at 5:00pm.
