FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

A Journey of Emotions

On Tuesday (Tue, June 20) we began the Hebrew month of Tammuz, a month that features many significant events throughout our history.

The month begins on a positive note on the 3rd of Tammuz when – in a war that the Jews fought in defense of our allies the ‘Givonim’ – Joshua kept the sun still, in order to halt the daytime so that the Jews would not go into war desecrating Shabbat (Joshua 10:12-14).

The month then takes on a sad trajectory as on the 9th of Tammuz the Jerusalem walls were breached by the Babylonian army of King Nebuchadnezzar and the city was invaded (Rosh Hashana 18b), whereafter King Ziddikiah of Judah was captured and taken to Babylon. Then, on the 17th of Tammuz (Thu, July 6) we have a fast day to mourn FIVE calamities. These include the Jerusalem walls being breached again, an idol being erected in the Temple, and Moses breaking the first Tablets (Luchot).

This is also the start of the ‘Three Weeks of Mourning’ until Tishah B'Av (Thu, July 27), during which we refrain from weddings and undertake a measure of mourning for the destruction of the Temple. This was the period between the fall of Jerusalem and the destruction of the Temple. As Hashem's servants, our job is not only to worship him through action but also with our emotion. Tammuz truly is a month where we take an emotional roller coaster (whilst also being on summer break!).

May we merit that Hashem will see our devotion and bring the final redemption speedily in our days.

Tammuz: When the Stakes are High

Zahava Mimran

The time read 09:00:46 on September 23rd, 1999, and after almost 10 months of blazing through space, the Mars Climate Orbiter finally began its descent into the Martian atmosphere. Just the second probe in NASA's Mars Surveyor Program, it was designed to study Mars from orbit and to serve as a communications relay for the Mars Polar Lander and Deep Space probes. A room full of scientists waited in awe for the spacecraft to reestablish contact after passing behind Mars. But the signal never came.

An investigation into the failure of the robotic space probe found that the spacecraft had missed its intended orbit by around 90 miles and crashed into the Martian atmosphere, where it disintegrated into oblivion. This massive navigational error was due to commands being sent from Earth in English units without being converted into the Metric standard. One small oversight caused a 327 million-dollar mission to fail. Because when you're all the way at the top, minute errors can have devastating consequences.

A few thousand years ago, on the 16th of this month, the Jews stood at the gates to eternal paradise. With immortality at their fingertips and just hours away from receiving the Torah in its entirety, they awaited their leader's descent from Mount Sinai. But instead, just hours before this ultimate crescendo, they fell from their lofty spiritual heights and worshipped the golden calf. And then it all came crashing down.

And this month of Tamuz only continues to deliver bad news. To this day, we fast on the 17th of the month for the hole that was breached in the walls of Jerusalem – a precursor to the destruction of the temple. And these are just two of the many things that went so very wrong in this month of mourning.

To understand a little more about this seemingly doomed month, we can take a look at its zodiac symbol - Cancer. The iconic crab is a creature of sharp contrasts. Soft as can be inside, yet encased in a rock-solid outer shell. Tied to the ocean, yet never far from land. Even its sideways scuttle is the effect of an imbalance caused by these opposing forces.

And this, in a nutshell, is Tammuz. With its potential for tremendous spirituality, it wavers between the forces, always one step away from the greatest heights, yet because of this also just one step away from chaos and destruction. When the stakes are high, actions have an immense effect, for good or for bad.

Throughout the millennia of history, we have yet to take that last final leap at the apex, where we ensure that our actions are as perfect as they need to be at those soaring heights. Instead, time and time again, we have come crashing down. The calf was served, the tablets smashed. The walls were breached and the daily offerings were ceased. A Torah was burnt and an idol placed in the holy Temple.

And here we are today, with our broken tablets, our ruined Temples, and the fractured shards of our hearts. But the famed Reb Menachem Mendel of Kotzk tells us a beautiful concept: 'There is nothing more complete than a broken heart.' Because it is these very broken hearts, mourning the devastation of our spiritual downfall, which will lead us to raise our heads from the shattered pieces of our dreams and rebuild better, stronger, and more perfect than before.

Summary of the Laws of the fast of Tammuz, 3 Weeks, 9 Days, and Tisha B'Av

Rabbi Sholom S. Mimran

The three weeks leading up to Tisha B'Av are a period of national Jewish mourning, beginning on the 17th of Tammuz (Thu, July 6), continuing with the 9 days from Rosh Chodesh Av until we reach Tisha B'Av (Thu, July 27). The ninth of Av itself is the saddest day on our calendar and marks many tragic episodes from our history, especially the loss of both the first and second temples.

Note: This is just a summary of the major laws. Under certain circumstances there may be exceptions. If you have any questions, please contact me at 843-609-2050 or rabbi@dortikvah.org

Linda Lieberman's

Yellow Fried Chicken & Yellow Rice

This month, we're proud to highlight our very own Linda Lieberman and her Indonesian-Jewish fusion for the best of both cultures!

Southerners and Indonesians love fried chicken. While Southern fried chicken has one process, frying once, Indonesian fried chicken is marinated, simmered in coconut milk, and then fried. Whether you are in the American South or in Indonesia, Yellow Fried Chicken or Ayaj Goreng Guning is a favorite. Kuning is the word in Indonesian for yellow and you see it in both recipes.

You can use any chicken pieces, white or dark, a whole chicken cut up, or particular chicken parts. Serve with Yellow Rice.

Rice is a favorite recipe for Jews, Southerners, and Indonesians. South Carolina was known for its rice production and rice is a staple in Indonesia and Southeast Asia. This delicious Yellow Rice recipe, called Nasi Kuning in Indonesian, boils the rice but toasts it first, then simmers it in coconut milk with turmeric and lemongrass. Indonesians use Jasmine rice in this recipe but try your favorite for a delicious taste as well. Serve with Yellow Fried Chicken.
