Dear Friends:

Temple Sinai owes a debt of gratitude to the foresight and generosity of those valued members who have included Temple in their estate plans. We have long been included in our members' wills and trusts. This is a testimony to how these individuals, couples, and families feel about Temple Sinai. Thank you to all of our member-donors, past, present and future who have invested or will invest in the Temple through planned giving.

Temple Sinai's vision is to be a place where Jews live and grow as Jews by creating and sustaining a welcoming, relationship based community rooted in our deepest Jewish values.

Our mission is to enhance and transform each other through spiritual connection, learning, and acts of love and kindness for each other and our community.

Vehicles for planned giving to Temple Sinai include bequests, life insurance policies, and charitable gift annuities.

We encourage you to consider Temple Sinai in your own estate plans, if at all possible and feasible. For more information on our planned giving program and how you can make an even more lasting and meaningful commitment to our future, contact Barry Rudel at 412-421-9715 ext. 133 or brudel@templesinaipgh.org. All matters will be held in the strictest of confidence, and know that you will be helping to further strengthen the foundation for Temple Sinai's sound financial future.

Sincerely,

James A. Gibson
