Rabbi Dovid Bashevkin

February 11, 7pm

THE LESSONS OF 1840: HOW JUDAISM SHOULD CONFRONT MODERNITY IN 2021

Rabbi Dovid Bashevkin is the director of education for NCSY, the youth movement of the Orthodox Union, and an instructor at Yeshiva University, where he teaches courses on public policy, religious crisis, and rabbinic thought, as well as the founder of 18forty, a multimedia site that addresses how to find Jewish meaning in the modern world.

Charlene Aminoff

February 24, 7pm

DO YOU BELIEVE IN MIRACLES?

Charlene Aminoff is a dynamic speaker who travels the world captivating audiences with the story of the miraculous survival of her daughter Gali's drowning, which led to her becoming Frum. She is a proud Hatzolah Wife, Mommy of 5 miracles, Founder of Gali's Couture Wigs, modest-fashion clothing designer, and teen mentor. Her Nishmat Movement has recruited over 16,000 women globally into her "Nishmat Army" who recite Nishmat Kol Chai daily, which has inspired the new Nishmas book by Artscroll. Charlene uses her large, powerful and influential social media platform to spread Emunah, spread light and help bring others closer to HaShem.

Rabbi YY Jacobson

SELF CARE: LEARNING HOW PRIORITIZING YOURSELF IS THE MOST SELFLESS THING YOU CAN DO?

Rachel Tuchman is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) with over ten years of experience. She has worked with many diverse populations including incarcerated women at Riker's Island Correctional Facility, kids and adults with developmental delays, kids with behavioral struggles, overwhelmed parents looking for skills and support, teens struggling with the pressures of adolescence and life in general, adults going through difficult life circumstances (divorce, infidelity, phase of life challenges) and women experiencing infertility.

Rachel is HAES (Health At Every Size) aligned clinician and dedicates a lot of her time out of office to educating parents and kids on the importance of body respect and the behaviors that truly honor our health.

Currently, she offers services in her Cedarhurst, NY office for kids and teens ages 5-18, adults, and women experiencing infertility, pregnancy loss and post hysterectomy.

Rachel also does speaking engagements for schools, synagogues and various community organizations.
