August 2023

Dear Friends,

As we approach the High Holy Days, we are again afforded an opportunity to reflect on the past year. Together, our congregational family has navigated 5783, emerging from Covid-19 restrictions and refocusing on KKBE's tradition of meaningful worship, programming, and social opportunities. I know that with our 275th anniversary celebrations beginning in January, 5784 will bring fresh and exciting opportunities for us to make new memories with one another.

This year our High Holy Day worship will be particularly meaningful as we balance the use of KKBE's historic sanctuary with our need for a larger space to pray as a unified community. On Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur mornings our congregation will worship at the Charleston Gaillard Center. All other High Holy Day worship will be held at KKBE on Hasell Street, including our two Kol Nidre services.

L'Shanah Tovah,

Naomi Gorstein

High Holy Day Ticketing Policy

To serve our congregation during the High Holy Days, we have adopted the following policies and costs. Please read the following information carefully.

KKBE Member Ticket Policy:

- Your High Holy Day tickets are a privilege of membership. If you are not using your tickets, please return them to the KKBE office. Tickets are non-transferrable!
- For Members in Good Standing your tickets will be mailed to you in late-August.
  - Family Memberships will receive two (2) tickets per holiday
  - Single Memberships will receive one (1) ticket per holiday
- Your ticket is required for each service unless otherwise noted.
- No tickets are necessary for members' children 18 years or under.
- Tickets are also not required for military personnel with ID or college students with ID, however, reservations are requested and can be made by emailing shalom@kkbe.org.

For additional tickets:

- Family of Members – Members in Good Standing may purchase tickets for family residing more than 75 miles from KKBE for $125 per person per holiday or $200 for both holidays.
- Non-Members are required to purchase their tickets in advance of the holidays. Tickets are $250 per person per holiday or $400 for both holidays. The cost of tickets will be credited to reduce a person's first year membership dues if he/she joins KKBE as a member within 30 days after the High Holy Days.

Tickets are available at no cost for individuals who furnish the office in advance a letter from their out of state synagogue certifying that the individual/family is currently a member in good standing of that synagogue.

Will Call:

All purchased tickets will be held at will call and available for pick up at each High Holy Day service.

If you have any questions, please contact the Temple Office at 843-723-1090 or shalom@kkbe.org.

We are committed to serving the needs of our members, and look forward to observing the Days of Awe with you.

5784 High Holy Day Patrons

As the High Holy Days draw near, we ask for your support to help our clergy and staff provide beautiful music, prayers and meaningful messages from the bimah. This year, we will gather both in KKBE's Historic sanctuary and, for our morning services, at the Charleston Gaillard Center whose space can accommodate our growing congregation. As in past years, our High Holy Day services will also be Livestreamed.

Offering largescale worship opportunities offsite, blended with the Livestream technology we have come to appreciate and rely on comes at an expense. We depend on your support to make the High Holy Days special, safe, and accessible for all. We are deeply grateful for your generosity.

Please respond by Friday, September 2nd so your name can be included in our High Holy Days Patron booklet.

Blessed is the Memory

5784 KKBE Yom Kippur Memory Book

During the High Holy Days, we honor loved ones as part of the Yizkor Service on Yom Kippur. KKBE's tradition is to publish a Memorial Book each year in which we include the names of those who are no longer living, but still precious to us. We distribute the Yizkor Memorial Book on Yom Kippur, when, according to tradition, the Book of Life and Death is open. As we remember and inscribe the names of those who have gone from our circle of family and friends, we acknowledge the connection that continues.

Please note that as in 2022, we will not be listing our Sanctuary yahrzeit plaques in the Memorial Book this year.

The final date for submitting names in the Memorial Book is Friday, September 2nd.

Accessibility for Services

KKBE wants every individual and family in our community to have the ability to participate fully in all aspects of synagogue life. Our members, clergy, and staff strive to welcome people of all abilities. To that end, and understanding that disability inclusion is a journey, we are currently focused on ensuring our synagogue's worship experiences, including the High Holy Days, are accessible to everyone.

To accomplish this, we are asking you to alert us to anything that is currently a disability-related barrier for you and/or your family member, and what reasonable accommodations you would need to effectively remove the barrier. We can ensure you that this information will remain confidential. To discuss an accommodation, please contact Mark Swick at director@kkbe.org or call 843-723-1090 x4.

Do you need Lulav and Etrog for Sukkot?
KKBE can help you out!

High Holy Day Food Drive

Once again, KKBE's annual High Holy Day Food Drive will be a Grocery Store Gift Card Drive. Bring a gift card in any amount from the grocery store of your choice to KKBE anytime between now and October 6 to participate.

Babysitting

KKBE will provide babysitting for children 18 months to 8 years for our Rosh Hashanah Morning and Yom Kippur Morning Services at the Gaillard Center. Space is limited.

Contact the office at shalom@kkbe.org by Wednesday, August 30 for Rosh Hashanah and Wednesday, September 6 for Yom Kippur with your child's name, age, allergies, and the service(s) they will be attending.

No walk-ins accepted. Please provide all personal care items for your child.
