

Shaarei Orah

The Sephardic Congregation of Teaneck is pleased to present an evening of Israeli short films (English subtitles) directed by graduates of The Ma'aleh School of Television, Film & the Arts in Jerusalem.

When Saturday, March 22nd, 8:45 PM

Where Shaarei Orah, 1425 Essex Road, Teaneck

Admission Free

■ ■ The Films ■ ■

Ades (documentary) עדס

Leaders of an old Syrian Synagogue in Jerusalem cannot agree on how it should be renovated for upcoming centennial celebrations. Many memories, egos, and sensitivities are at stake.

71 Square Meters (drama/comedy) 71 מטר מרובע

Sometimes you have to leave in order to come back, to forget in order to remember. Chezi goes to his deceased parents' house the day before it is to be razed to the ground. It is the last 24 hours: 24 hours to remember his parents and to recollect his past

Union St. (documentary) רחוב ההסתדרות

A young activist and filmmaker organizes a personal campaign for the presidency of Union St. in Central Jerusalem. Insight into the daily life and priorities of the local population is gained.

Refreshments will be available for purchase with the proceeds going to benefit Ma'aleh School raising money for an elevator needed for one of its students (go to <http://www.jewcer.com/liftingmaaleh>)

To learn more about the Ma'aleh School or to view clips go to www.maale.co.il
Please reserve by email to rschulz1777@gmail.com or call 201-833-0800
Seating is limited so it is important to reserve in advance.