A Yizkor Prayer for Those Who Have Died of COVID-19

Merciful God, God Most High,
May You remember all those
Who died of COVID-19,
Of old age and known preconditions,
And those who died
 Entirely surprised
 By the terrible fragility
 Of our human bodies.
 With love we repeat the words
 Of an old Yizkor book:
 “I had a dream. I returned to the town of my childhood.
 Everyone there was still alive!”
 Dreamers we are,
 Of a world in which
 You are still alive,
 Living among us, going about the life
 We once knew as normal.
 May your memory be a blessing
 And a reminder,
 To shelter those who are fragile,
 Even in times of fear.
Memorial Service for Atonement Day Silent Devotion

In Memory of a Father

Your memory, my dear father, fills my soul at this solemn hour. It revives in me thoughts of the love and friendliness which you bestowed upon me. The thought of you inspires me to a life of virtue; and when my pilgrimage on earth is ended and I shall arrive at the throne of mercy, may I be worthy in the sight of God and man. May our merciful Sovereign reward you for the faithfulness and kindness you have shown me; may God grant you eternal peace. Amen.

In Memory of a Mother

I remember you in this solemn hour, my dear mother. I remember the days when you dwelled on earth, and your tender love watched over me like a guardian angel. You have gone from me, but the bond, which unites our souls, can never be severed; your image lives within my heart. May the merciful Sovereign reward you for the faithfulness and kindness you have ever shown me; may God lift up the light of the divine countenance upon you, and grant you eternal peace. Amen.

In Memory of a Sibling, or a Friend

I remember you in this solemn hour, my beloved brother (sister, friend). I remember the days when we lived together in happy companionship, and your loving friendship was my delight and support. Though you have gone from me, your image abides with me. I think of you with gratitude and bless your memory for all the devotion you showed me. May God bless you with everlasting joy, may God keep you and grant you eternal bliss. Amen.

In Memory of a Spouse or Partner

Your memory, dear companion of my life, now fills my soul. It revives in me the thought of the love, fidelity, and self-denial which sweetened the days of my life. I treasure it in my heart and strive to become worthy of you. Though death has summoned you from my side, your image still lives within me and continues to be an inspiration to me. May God keep you and give you eternal bliss. Amen.

In Memory of a Child

I remember you in this solemn hour, my beloved child. I remember the days when I watched your bodily and mental unfolding, and fostered beautiful hopes for your future. God has taken you from me, yet in my heart the fond remembrance of you can never die. The Eternal has called you. God's love is my solace, staff, and support. As a parent pities his children, so may God look with compassion upon you and grant you eternal bliss. Amen.

There is life. There is death.
There is also remembering.

At this sacred hour we recall loved ones and friends who no longer join us in prayer, but whose presence remains with us always. For those we knew and loved, O Lord, we thank You. For family and friends who touched our lives and made us better people, we express our gratitude to You. For the countless numbers of people who have no one to remember them, we take them to our hearts and make them our own. Help us, O Lord, to appreciate life, to live it to the fullest extent, and to be worthy of Your blessing of being now and forever.
As we gather together for Yizkor we remember our dearly departed. In the pages of this book, our Rockdale Temple family remembers fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers, sons, daughters and other beloved members of our family and our circle of friends. For all of us who have loved and lost, our remembrance is bittersweet. We turn to God in thankfulness for those lives that impacted our own in so many different ways. We remember those loved ones and we wish that they could be with us to share this New Year and every occasion of sorrow or joy, disappointment or achievement. We realize that those whom we remember do remain with us, moving us to “live as, in their higher moments, they themselves wished to live.” We pledge at this moment of remembrance to live to our highest potential and honor those who are named in this book and in our hearts.
