“For the dead and the living, we must bear witness. For not only are we responsible for the memories of the dead, we are also responsible for what we are doing with those memories.”
— Elie Wiesel
Our Departed Members & Loved Ones

We fondly recall the members and loved ones of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered in this sanctuary on last Yom Kippur. They have a special place in our hearts.

The Lord is my shepherd I lack nothing.

He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me to water in places of repose;

He renews my life; He guides me in right paths as befits His name.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff — they comfort me.

You spread a table for me in full view of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my drink is abundant.

Only goodness and steadfast love shall pursue me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for many long years.
WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and at its going down, we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and at its end, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share, we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now part of us, as we remember them.

From Mishkan T’Filah
Eternal God, Master of mercy,
give me the gift of remembering.
May my memories of the dead be tender and true, undiminished by time;
let me recall them, and love them, as they were. Shelter me with the gift of tears.
Let me express my sense of loss — my sorrow, my pain, as well as my love, and words unspoken.
Bless me with the gift of prayer.
May I face You with an open heart, with trusting faith, unembarrassed and unashamed.
Strengthen me with the gift of hope.
May I always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness,
Recite Before Kindling the Yizkor Candle

At this moment, in memory of our dear one who has departed this earth, we join hands in love and remembrance. A link has been broken in the chain that has bound us together, yet strong bonds of home and love hold us to one another. We give thanks for the blessing of life, of companionship, and of memory. We are grateful for the strength and faith that sustained us in the hour of our bereavement. Though sorrow lingers, we have learned that love is stronger than death. Though our loved one is beyond our sight, we do not despair, for we sense our beloved in our hearts as a loving presence. Sustained by words of faith, comforted by precious memories, we kindle the yizkor light in remembrance. As this light burns pure and clear, so may the blessed memory of the goodness of our dear loved one illumine our souls.

Ner-l’ragli d’varecha; v’or lintivati.

Your word is a lamp to my feet, a light for my path. (Psalm 119:105)

The light is kindled.
THANK YOU

to all those who contributed to the production of this booklet by memorializing their loved ones in its pages.
