MEDITATION ON FORGIVENESS

At this moment I pray that I may be forgiven for any unkind word or deed, for any moment of pain or anguish I ever caused you; for any thoughtless or selfish act, for any sin of commission or omission toward you. “For there is no one so righteous upon earth who does good only and sins not.” Before God I declare that I bear no ill for any wrong which you may have unwittingly committed against me.

May the recollections of all that was good and noble in your life inspire me to walk ever more firmly in the path of righteousness, to serve ever more nobly all I encounter.

At this hour of יזכור Yizkor, consecrated to memory and hope, we recall our loved ones. Though the years be many or few, this sacred time helps us recall them more vividly. Let us remember all that was good and noble in them, finding comfort in knowing that the righteousness they performed has made this world better. May we also find solace in knowing that their souls rest in God's protective embrace. In faith, we proclaim that the Eternal God is their keeper, for our departed have returned to the Source of All Being, in whom every good life finds its completion, and under whose sheltering wings we all find an eternal home.

In love do we remember them for blessing and whisper their names as an enduring benediction. May this time of reflection help us dedicate our own lives to fulfill what these loved ones sought to achieve in their most noble moments. זכרוןם לברכה Zichronam livracha ... may the memory of our dear ones ever be a blessing.

Irwin A. Zepowitz
Rabbi

Jade Sank Ross
Rabbi

For over a millennium it has been a Jewish custom to honor the memory of loved ones with a memorial light five times during the year, on:

- The יהרצית yahrzeit (anniversary of the death)
- The three festivals (פסח Pesach, שבעות Shavuot and עצרת-שמחת תורה שמיני Shmini Atzeret/Simchat Torah)
- יום כיפור Yom Kippur

Seeing the light we are reminded of the words of Proverbs (20:27) ner Adonai nishmat adam – נר יי נשמת אדם –
“The soul of a person is the lamp of God.”

In addition to lighting a lamp or candle at home, you can memorialize your loved ones on The Community Synagogue Memorial Board. The board automatically lights up on all five occasions for remembering loved ones during the year. If you wish to perpetuate the memory of your departed, you can do so through the purchase of a memorial plaque. The names of those on our Memorial Board are read during services on the Shabbat closest to the yahrzeit.

For more information on how to purchase a memorial plaque, please contact the synagogue office.

WE HONOR THE MEMORY OF JEWS IN THE ARMED FORCES WHO DIED IN DEFENSE OF OUR NATION.

THEIR SACRIFICE
AND THE SERVICE OF ALL WHO DEFEND OUR COUNTRY –
IS A BLESSING THAT ENSURES OUR LIBERTY.

For the ties of love that death cannot sever; for the friendship we shared along life's path; for those gifts of heart and mind which have now become a precious heritage – for this and more, we are grateful. O compassionate God, let us dwell not on sorrow and pain. Help us, instead, to find within our hearts the courage to engage in the tasks of life, and its joys. Let the memory of loved ones be a blessing. And as we recall them, may we, too, be written and inscribed in the Book of Life. And let us say: Amen

The Hebrew Free Burial Association remembers the 456 Jews whom we buried last year.

אֲשָׂא עֵינַי אֶל־הַהָרִים מֵאֵין יבֵּא עֲזָרִי. עֲזָרִי מֵעַם יְהוָה עֲשֵׂה שָׁמַיִם וָאָרֶץ.

I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
Where will I find my help?
My help comes from the Eternal, who made heaven and earth.
God will not let your foot me moved;
The One who keeps you will not sleep.
Behold, the One that keeps Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps.
The Eternal is your keeper;
The Eternal is your shade at your right hand,
So that the sun not smite you by day,
Nor the moon by night.
God shall keep you from all evil and keep your soul.
God shall guard your going and your coming from this time and forever.

Psalm 121

PSALM 23

God. You are my Shepherd, I shall not want.
You make me lie down in green pastures,
You lead me beside the still waters,
You restore my soul;
You guide me in straight paths for Your Name's sake,
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me ...
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Eternal forever.
