TASHLICH

We're here today,
we've come to pray.
We thank you, God,
on Rosh Hashana day.

It's time to think,
what can we do?
How should we act?
So, we pray to You.

We will do good deeds,
we'll try really hard,
that's why we are here,
In God's backyard.

We come to think,
we come to pray,
to change our ways
on these holy days.

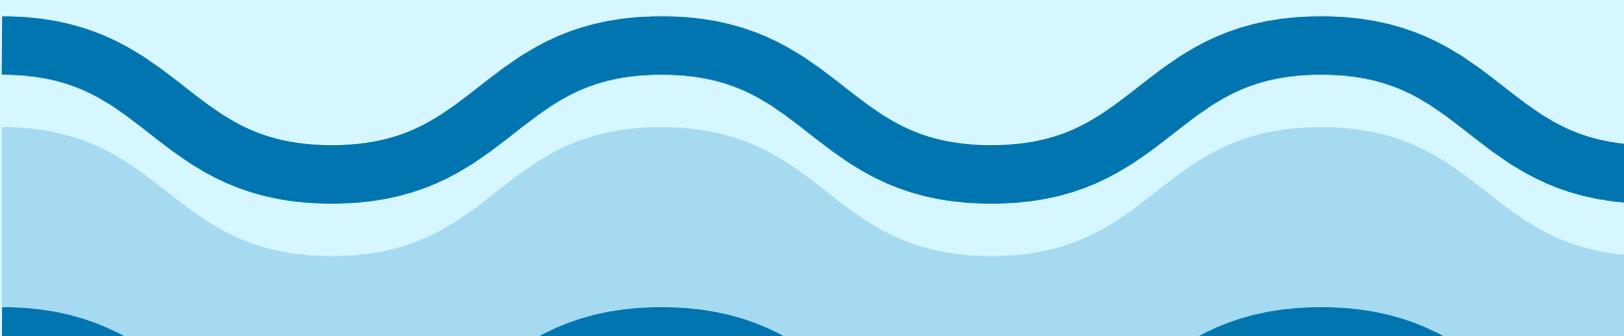

Tashlich is something that we do on Rosh Hashana: we wash away our sins and pray that we can make real change in the year to come.

We are called upon to do teshuvah, to return to God.

Today, we have come to this body of water to perform the Tashlich ceremony; seeking symbolically to "cast away" our sins and transgressions, to send away our unworthy thoughts, to purify our hearts and our souls as the New Year begins.

Here I am again, ready to let go of my mistakes. As I cast this bread upon the waters, lift my troubles off my shoulders. Help me to know that last year is over, washed away like crumbs in the current. Open my heart to blessing and gratitude. Renew my soul as water renews. for this year, and the years to come.

I CAST MY SINS INTO THE SEA

I cast my sins into the sea, hurrah, hurrah.

I cast my sins into the sea, hurrah, hurrah.

I cast my sins into the sea, a helpful person I will be.
And we'll all go marching down to the sea on this Rosh Hashana.

I throw the crumbs in one by one, hurrah, hurrah.

I throw the crumbs in one by one, hurrah, hurrah.

I throw the crumbs in one by one, toss out the wrongs that I have done.
And we'll all go marching down to the sea on this Rosh Hashana.

The crumbs begin to float away, hurrah, hurrah.

The crumbs begin to float away, hurrah, hurrah.

The crumbs begin to float away, I'm glad I took the time to pray.
And we'll all go marching down to the sea on the Rosh Hashana.

L'shana tova we say it every year.

We gather our breadcrumbs and then we say,

if I hurt you, it was a mistake.

We call our breadcrumbs "I'm sorries" for tashlich,

throw them in the bay.
