FROM THE RABBI’S STUDY
RABBI DANNY BURKEMAN

Celebrating our Successes
THE COMMUNITY SYNAGOGUE TOP TEN

As I sat down to write this article I realized that this would be the last time that I am writing a piece for this bulletin in my capacity as your Rabbi. With that in mind I am feeling rather reflective on the past six years, which we have spent together. There have been so many highs and so many wonderful experiences that we have shared.

In my childhood I was an avid listener to the music Top Forty back in England, and I have always been a sucker for those TV programs that have Ten Highlights from this or that year. So below is my attempt at my Community Synagogue Top Ten. These are ten achievements over the last six years, many of which I take no credit for, but take pride in having been a part of the community that achieved them.

So here they are in no particular order:
The Suitcase

The date was October 28, 2012 and there were ominous warnings of an oncoming storm called “Sandy.” The entire east coast was being warned to take all precautions because this one was a monster of a storm, one of the biggest ever.

Living in an area that is surrounded by water and listening to the potential disaster that was fast approaching, I immediately began thinking of my options. Every hour that passed contained new warnings from the authorities advising residents in low lying areas to make preparations for what was about tobefall us.

I was torn between staying and protecting my home and its contents or abandoning where I have lived for over 30 years. What will happen to all my possessions?

The decision was made for me. The authorities recommended that those residents living in the area in which I lived, evacuate as soon as possible. So what now? What do I gather together to save? The silverware, the art, the antiques, the clothes, the china? What was most important to me?

I remember sitting in the kitchen, thinking of what would fit into my car. Realizing then that only the most important of things should be saved, and then it came to me. I dashed downstairs and picked up the largest suitcase I had, brought it upstairs and began filling it with the only thing that mattered, the memories of a lifetime! I walked through the house gathering up every photograph and every photo album that I could find, and when I was finished, the suitcase was full.

THAT ONE SUITCASE NOW CONTAINED THE STORY OF MY LIFE.

Was I that little child in the short pants and were those my parents? How young they were! My father holding my newborn daughter, my daughter’s first day of school, Joyce and I in Venice, in Prague.

Every now and then I go through some of those pictures and memories. I know that the world has changed, albums and printed photographs are part of yesterday, but I enjoy wandering through the memories of my life.

The suitcase still remains full. If it were ever lost, it would be as if I had never been.
10. Stronger relationship between the Early Childhood Center and the synagogue community. Over these past years our ECC has become an increasingly central part of the synagogue and the relationships between families have been strengthened and deepened.

9. Growth of FLAME and parent education. Raising our children Jewishly has always been a partnership between the synagogue and the parents. With this in mind, there has been a growth in opportunities for parents to learn together with their children. For me as a Rabbi and teacher, these shared learning experiences have been amongst the most powerful for me in the synagogue.

8. Introduction of our Efshar program. A synagogue should be a home for everyone and our education should be open to all children. Seeing the way that our Efshar program has established itself as a central part of our Religious School brings me so much pride and joy.

7. Growth of POWTY and youth programming in the synagogue. If we want to have Jewish adults, then we need to invest in our Jewish children. The synagogue has made that commitment with the investment in POWTY, and seeing the way it has grown in the last few years makes me confident for our Jewish future.

6. Sisterhood and Brotherhood are getting younger. I did not grow up in a community with a Sisterhood or a Brotherhood and so this was a new concept for me. I have been so impressed by the way both of our affiliates have actively sought to engage the younger members of our community to grow and develop for a stronger future.

5. The continued growth of our Chaverim program. We’ve had successes with the younger members of the synagogue and we have also had tremendous success with our more senior members. Chaverim has provided a wonderful home in the synagogue for these long standing members and an exciting program for their continued engagement.

4. The development of new services. In the time that I’ve been here we’ve experimented with different Tot Shabbat models, the Cantor introduced a Shabbat Rocks experience, and we now have a monthly yoga service on Sunday mornings. This is a community that is willing to try new things and is not afraid to experiment in the area of worship.

3. Removal of barriers to membership. The Gift Membership program is one of the things that I boast about when I talk about The Community Synagogue. The removal of the financial barrier to membership is so important for allowing people an opportunity to join with us, because once they experience our community, more often than not, they choose to stay.

2. A willingness to develop new programs. I am so proud to have been a part of a community that has been willing to take risks on new program ideas. Personally, the success of our Happiness Group fills me with joy, especially for the way in which the ladies who run it were willing to take a leap of faith, and have now modeled this program into one which is a central part of our synagogue calendar.

1. A great professional team. I am honored to be a member of the team here at The Community Synagogue. Every day I get to work with fantastic people, in all areas of the synagogue’s life, who dedicate themselves to making our community the best that it can be. It really is a joy to come to work with them and often a lot of what they do goes under the radar.

Volunteers of the Month

In what capacity do you volunteer?

Jessica Wigdor
Jessica, who has been a member of The Community Synagogue for over 17 years, spent many years as Chair of the Social Action Committee. She has recently resigned from that position, but continues to organize the quarterly Community Dinners for Residents of Port Washington.

Marcie Zack
Seven years ago on Mitzvah Day, Marcie helped start the Organic Mitzvah Garden at the synagogue. It was a pouring rainy day and she didn't think the project would be able to take place, but when she arrived at the synagogue, Rabbi Z met her in a rain slicker, with a shovel in hand. Along with many volunteers (a lot of them young children), we dug out the two beds and assembled the raised perimeter. Fresh organic soil was added and the first year's crops were planted. Each year, the garden produces 60 to 90 pounds of organic fresh produce that is delivered through the Plant-A-Row Program to our community's food pantry at Our Lady Of Fatima.

LOSS OF A FRIEND

Gunther Lawrence passed away on January 24, 2017 at the age of 89. He was husband to Leah, father to David and Lucie and grandfather to Laney, Ellie, Zoe, Abby and Cooper. Gunther was born in Berlin in 1927 and as a young boy, experienced the early years of the Nazi terror.

Early in his career in 1963, Gunther met with Martin Luther King during the First Civil Rights March in Washington, DC which had a lasting effect on him and shaped his later career. He was an active member and president of the Brotherhood of The Community Synagogue.

Gunther lived a full life giving much of himself to worthwhile causes. To those whose lives he touched, he will be long remembered as a mentor and a friend.

PRINCIPALLY SPEAKING

EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

The hibernation lesson provided a hands-on learning opportunity for our students. They constructed a bear’s den, made a porcupine out of play-dough and sticks, made bear biscuits, and learned how blubber helps keep animals warm and nourished.

The two-year old classes learned about feelings and how to identify them through words and colors. Kindness, friendship and practicing good manners was the focus of the three-year old classes. They also spent time each week learning how to identify uppercase letters, numbers and practicing counting.

The four-year old classes were busy having fun rhyming, learning the sounds of the alphabet and practicing their writing skills. Each week they learned to demonstrate respect and concern for their peers and adults, and worked on developing a positive self-image by expressing their creative choices.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The religious school students became rock stars when they made their first Chanukah Music Video. From the youngest kindergarteners to the 5th graders, students got the chance to rock out to the fabulous Maccabeats song Candlelight. The finished video was shared with the entire congregation, in hopes of adding joy to everyone’s Chanukah!

We gratefully acknowledge the financial support for our Religious School received from the

BOOK DISCUSSION
Tuesday, March 7, time to be determined. The Ice Cream Queen of Orchard Street by Susan Jane Gilman.

In 1913, little Malka Treynovsky flees Russia with her family. Bedazzled by tales of gold and movie stardom, she tricks them into buying tickets for America. Yet no sooner do they land on the squalid Lower East Side of Manhattan, Malka is crippled and abandoned in the street.

“THE 1936 BERLIN OLYMPICS” PRESENTATION BY GLORIA GLANTZ
Wednesday, April 19, 7:30 PM. Join us as Gloria Glantz, award winning holocaust educator, congregant and former “hidden child,” discusses the issues as well as the plight of Jewish and American athletes, and their treatment before and during the Olympics. Learn about the role of women and girls in the preparation for the Olympics. Find out which countries, athletes and leaders led protests about Germany hosting these games. Hear about some of the myths that pertain to the Olympics in general.

When we think of the Olympics, we are often moved by the opening and closing ceremonies. We see athletes of all colors, religions, persuasions, locations, continents, abilities and personalities. Many of us are glued to our TV’s, moved by the different flags, the joyful demeanor and the amicable spirit the athletes display toward each other. We rejoice in their pride at excelling at sports, and basking in the glow of their teammates winning even when they lose. And we even catch the emotions when the national anthems are played, when they are tearful, and cause us to be the same when the Star Spangled banner is played.

The aura of the August 1936 Olympics in Berlin was unlike the typical feelings of national pride found in previous Olympics games. This Olympic event was orchestrated by Germany to fool the world. As a token gesture to mollify the West, Germany allowed one half-Jewish fencer to represent Germany. No other Jewish athlete competed for Germany.

Hitler took definite propaganda steps to show Germany was being fair and not discriminating against any group of athletes. He ordered publicity for certain events in a prescribed way, in essence censoring the press. The Reich Press Chamber issued numerous directives including: “The racial point of view should not be used in any way in reporting sports results; above all, Negroes should not be insensitively reported... .Negroes are American citizens and must be treated with respect as Americans.” — August 3, 1936. This is quite surprising in light of his treatment of minorities in Germany at that time.

Light refreshments will be served. For more information contact Evie Schonbrun at 516-767-0599.
