UPCOMING EVENTS

Please join us for the Kol Sasson Sukkah Hop on Shabbat afternoon, Sept. 29. This year we will be hopping along Lincolnwood Drive. We will begin at Charles and Jen Cohen's sukkah for motzi, appetizers, and salad. Then on to Judith and Sam Glassenberg's sukkah for our main dishes. And finally, off to the Sugar's sukkah for dessert, fruit, and to enjoy hanging out for the rest of the afternoon. We hope you can all join us. Please see <http://kolsasson.org> to RSVP.

Kol Sasson is excited to once again host this year's Simchat Torah luncheon in honor of our outgoing and incoming leadership and volunteers. The deli luncheon will take place at Kol Sasson following hakafot and davening on Tuesday, Oct. 2nd. RSVP and prepayment are required. The cost is $6 per person for members and $15 per person for non-members. We are also looking for additional sponsorship at any level and volunteers for shopping, set up, and cleanup. Please see <http://kolsasson.org> to RSVP.

UPCOMING SCHOLARS-IN-RESIDENCE

Oct. 26th and 27th - Shabbat Lech-Lecha. Rabbi Ethan Tucker, cofounder and Executive Director of Mechon Hadar. "Halacha and Morality"

Feb. 22nd - 23rd - Shabbat Ki Tisa. Rabbi Steve Greenberg - founder and director of Eshel. "A Welcoming Shul: LGBTQ Inclusion in the Observant Jewish Community"

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Groups begin at 9:30a in four separate classrooms, with early babysitting available at 9:15a.

Alef: This group is designed for infants through three year olds. Parents are welcome to stay in this room or to drop off their child; there will be babysitters in this room to supervise the children who have been dropped off. There will be snacks and a Shabbat program; we ask that parents who opt to remain in this room with their child be respectful of the programming and the hard work of the babysitters.

Bet: This group is designed for kids in the two pre-school years prior to Kindergarten through Kindergarten. There will be games, snacks & davening.

Gimmel: This group is designed for kids in first, second and third grades. There will be davening, Parsha, games and snacks.

Dalet: This group is designed for kids in fourth grade through pre-bnei mitzvah. There will be davening, Parsha, games, and snacks.

THANKS TO THOSE WHO MADE TODAY POSSIBLE

John Flemming, Debri Klein, Rebecca Minkus-Lieberman, Arthur Rosenson, Michael Stern, Lawrence Szenes-Strauss, Daniel Weinberg and Sarah Weinberg for organizing services; Chava Alpert Bloom and Mira Hart for arranging Kiddush.

SHULCLOUD

Kol Sasson is excited to announce the launch of our website, email newsletters, event registration, and billing all from a single platform called ShulCloud. Not only will this allow us to manage all of these functions more easily, ShulCloud will provide a better and more personalized experience for Kol Sasson members.

Accounts for existing members have already been created. To get started, go to <http://kolsasson.org> and click the Login link in the upper right-hand corner. Click the Forgot Password link and enter your email address. ShulCloud will send you a new password.

Once logged in, go to My Account > My Profile and update your Hebrew name, birthday, phone numbers, etc. To add family members, go to My Account > Manage Members. To add yahrzeits, go to My Account > Manage Yahrzeits.

To manage your email newsletter subscriptions, go to My Account > My Subscriptions. The Schedule list will be used to send the weekly lineup and candle lighting times. The Announcements list will be used to send other announcements. You can unsubscribe from this same page or click the unsubscribe link at the bottom of every email.
