

Andrea J. Stein

Andrea and her husband, David live in Summit with their two boys, Ravi, 15, and Kieran, 12. They have been members of Temple Sinai since 2013. Ravi became a Bar Mitzvah at Temple Sinai in March 2018 and Kieran in December 2020. She served on the rabbi search committee during 2018 and 2019.

She is Director of Publicity at Jane Wesman Public Relations and have worked in book publicity for nearly twenty-five years, helping authors to garner media attention for their books and related businesses. She served on the PTO board at Washington Elementary School for two years, including a year as co-President, and currently serves on the PTO board at Lawton C. Johnson Summit Middle School. She chaired the auction at Washington for four years – the school’s largest fundraiser. In addition, she serves as Chair of the Summit Municipal Democratic Committee, have co-chaired three winning Council campaigns, and co-founded three grassroots political organizations. She holds a BA from Bard College and an MA from Cornell University.