

Cindy Homer

Cindy, Stuart, Jordan, Wade, and Harrison joined the Temple Sinai community in 2003. They have celebrated many simchas at the temple including B'nai Mitzvahs, confirmation and high school graduations. The entire family enjoys participating in a variety of aspects of temple life. Cindy has served on a number of committees, chaired the Social Action Committee and co-chaired Rabbi Gershon's 20/25 Gala. She has been on the board for four and a half years first as a Trustee, then VP of Operations and currently as First VP. She holds degrees as both a physical therapist and a physician assistant and currently runs a medical office. She appreciates being part of the vibrant Jewish community at Temple Sinai.
