

Dan Muhlfelder

Dan has been a member of a Reform congregation all of his life. He graduated from Temple Emanu-El Religious School (as did both of his children) and as an adult became a member in 1978. When Temple Emanu-El merged with Temple Sinai he was asked to serve on the Board of Trustees. His interests include running, sports and vacationing at a ranch each summer in Wyoming.