

Jodi Shepard

Jodi and her husband Paul have been Temple Sinai members since 2002. Both of their daughters attended Temple Sinai Religious School and became bat mitzvah at Temple Sinai - the first celebrated with Rabbi Gershon and Cantor Friedman, and the second with Cantor Shemesh in her first year at Temple Sinai. As a family, they have also celebrated confirmation and graduation from what is now the Rabbi Gershon Hebrew High School. Jodi previously served on the Religious School Committee and was a member of the Greeting Committee and the Ritual Committee before joining the Board as VP- Ritual in 2016. Although now Jodi works mostly behind the scenes hosting Zoom Shabbat services, before COVID you would often find Jodi and Paul at the doors of the Temple, greeting our members on Shabbat and High Holidays.
