

ROSH HASHANAH GRATITUDE BOOKLET 5781/2020

As we continue to live in these uncertain and difficult times, and our moments of togetherness are limited, we must remember to express thanks and gratitude to others. For this year's High Holy Holidays, the Ritual Committee introduces the CBE Rosh Hashanah Book of Gratitude.

A thankful heart and the act of expressing ones gratitude is at the core of our Jewish values. Please take this opportunity to write a special message of thanksgiving or gratitude to your spouse, family, your friends and/or your community. Donations are appreciated.

Mail this completed form to the synagogue office no later than September 8.
