If You have use of the Synagogue facilities on a Friday night, or anytime on Saturday or Sunday, for an affair other than a Bris, the Synagogue will authorize only rental of the entire social hall, and not a smaller portion. However, if the social hall has not been reserved six weeks prior to the date You are requesting, You may reserve less than the entire social hall for an affair on Friday night, or a Saturday or Sunday.

The rental of any Facility other than the Sanctuary includes use of the kitchen(s) and the services of one custodian. It specifically excludes the services of a mashgiach, which must be separately arranged in advance, an attendant for the coatroom, valet parking (and the services of any religious officials). Should any additional custodians be required (which shall be determined by the Synagogue in its sole judgment), You shall pay the cost of such additional custodian as an additional charge.

A Facility Use Agreement must be signed in advance. A deposit equal to $500.00 must accompany the signed agreement and the balance of the fee must be paid two (2) weeks before the scheduled event, 48 hours in the case of a Bris, Shalom Zachor or Simchat Bat. The caterer for the event will not be allowed into the facility unless the facility use fee has been paid in full.

³ If less than the entire Social Hall is requested, the portion(s) closest to the meat kitchen will be rented.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, You acknowledge that at the time of the Function, the Caterer must continue to have approval of the Rabbi and Kashrut Committee or access by the Caterer will be denied and You may thereby be forced to find a suitable replacement caterer. All terms and conditions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and the Synagogue shall not be liable for any damages or additional costs You incur.

2. You acknowledge being familiar with the Synagogue's facilities and having read the Synagogue's rules, regulations and guidelines with regard to the reservation and rental of the Facilities and with regard to kashrut, and You agree to strictly abide by them, (including any later amendments, additions or changes) at all times.
3. Prior to the commencement of the Function, the Caterer shall be required to furnish the Synagogue with proof of Workers Compensation Insurance, a New York State Certificate of Health and product, and public and liquor law liability insurance in the amount of at least one million dollars ($ 1,000,000.00), naming the Synagogue as an additional insured, as well as a Bond or minimum deposit against damage in the sum of $1,000.00.

Valet parking shall be provided by a duly licensed and adequately insured company, proof of which shall be supplied to the Synagogue at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the Function.

⁵ If You do not have a caterer at present, You must notify the Synagogue at least three (3) months in advance of your function of the name of the caterer to obtain approval for said caterer.

5. You are responsible for the actions of your guests, the Caterer and any contractors, vendors or agents hired by You including, but not limited to, the time the Facilities used, cleanliness of the Synagogue and any damages to the Facilities.
6. The Synagogue assumes no responsibility or liability for any damage or loss of personal property, including motor vehicles or articles of clothing brought to or left on the Synagogue premises. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Synagogue, including its employees, agents, directors, officers and members from any and all claims, liabilities, losses and demands for any actions whatsoever for personal injury, death or property or other damages to You or any person attending the Function, due to any cause whatsoever, even if arising from negligent acts or omissions and to reimburse the Synagogue, including its employees, agents, directors, officers and members, for any expenses or loss, including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, incurred by reason of any such claim being made against the Synagogue, including its employees, agents, directors, officers and members. You assume the responsibility of so notifying the Caterer, any other contractors or vendors and all guests.
7. The Synagogue is not responsible for acts or damages resulting from alcohol consumption or substance abuse of your guests or invitees.
8. The Synagogue shall have no responsibility for failure to supply the Facilities or for the condition of the Facilities as agreed upon when prevented from doing so by strikes, accidents, inclement weather, power shortages or any other cause beyond the Synagogue's reasonable control, or by order or regulations of any governmental authority, or otherwise.
9. In the event that You cancel or otherwise breach this Agreement, You shall remain liable for the full amount required to be paid under this Agreement without offset or reduction, shall not be entitled to a refund of its deposit, and shall be liable for the Synagogue's costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys fees; provided however, that deposits in excess of $500.00 may be applied by Synagogue members towards their membership dues or pledges. A letter of cancellation is to be sent to the attention of our administrator, Marsha Lustig.
