

Brain Bash Trivia Virtual Trivia Nights How to Play

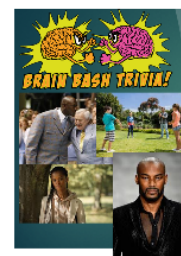

Everybody will join the zoom call
 The host will share their screen and go over the rules and format and then start the trivia. Each round will typically consist of 5 questions. For most questions there will also be a picture clue to help you get to the answer.

•Cal Trask, Jim Stark, and Jeff Rink are the ONLY three major film roles that were portrayed by what ICON of the silver screen?

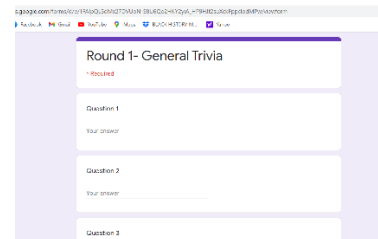

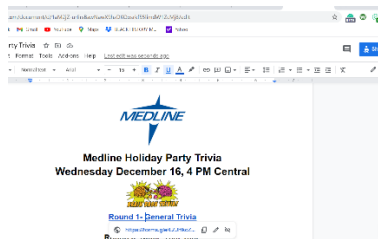

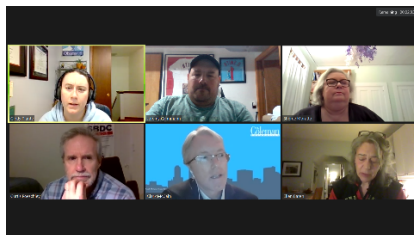

In this question we are looking for a Hollywood ICON who ONLY made 3 movies, maybe you know who that is, but if not notice the picture is of Michael Jordan and his former coach Dean Smith both former UNC Tarheels, so something in that picture is a clue to the answer. In this case it is DEAN Smith because the answer is James DEAN.

At the end of each round the host will show a recap slide of ALL the questions in the round. After the recap teams will be sent into individual breakout rooms to discuss and answer questions using google forms. Only one person on each team needs to submit answers.
