MR. JULIUS KLUGMAN ז"ל

It is with great sadness that we note the פטירה of Mr. Julius Klugman, הה"ר ר' יואל בן הח' ר' משה, עש"ק פ' כי on תשא, the 17th of Adar/ March 13th. Despite the Levaya's taking place at short notice, and on a Friday afternoon, a sizable number of people attended the Levaya, which took place outside of Shul. Mr. Klugman's entire essence was devoted to the Tzibur: He was a longtime member of the Kehilla's Board of Trustees, and as the Chairman of the Synagogue Committee since the 1960's, Mr. Klugman ensured that the Avoda in our Beis Knesses was performed with no glitches, and with the dignity and excellence that is the hallmark of our Kehilla. From lining up Chazonim, Baalei Tefilla and Baalei Keriah, to overseeing the apportioning of Mitzvos and Aliyos, Mr. Klugman saw to it all. He was always concerned about the feeling of others and everything he did was with a Ponim Yofos. May all the זכויות he accrued through his involvement in his many צרכי ציבור redound to his family, the Kehilla, and Klal Yisroel.

יהי זכרו ברוך

PURIM

With the complement of beautiful, spring-like weather, Purim was celebrated with much enthusiasm in our Kehilla. Our thanks go to Messrs. Michael Gutmann and Dovid Herbsman by night, and Rabbi Kalman Strauss, Meir Hellman, and Dovid Herbsman for their excellent readings of the Megilla in the morning. Chazon Ezra Lasdun led the Tefillos. We also thank those individuals who gave of their time on Purim, a busy day, to read the Megilla for those unable to attend Shul.

On Leil Purim, a Mesibas Purim for men took place in the home of Rav and Rebbetzin Mantel. The Bochorim of Rav Rubanowitz's Beis Medrash celebrated their spirited Chagiga and Seudo in Moller Hall.

We express our gratitude to הקב"ה that the electrical fire which broke out late Purim night in a wall in the apartment K line of 729 West 186th Street, a line occupied entirely by frum residents, caused no injuries. All apartments experienced damage and a shut off of electricity, etc., but, with the help of neighbors and friends, those affected still managed to experience Purim as a day of Simcha.

Once again, our Kehilla provided for the Mitzvah of giving Matonos LoEvyonim (as well as Machatzis HaShekel and Ma'os Chittim) which were then distributed in an anonymous fashion to local families by the Board of Trustees on Purim.

After Mincha Gedola on Purim day, the Choir sang "Ish Yehudi," etc., followed by many of our members (some more recognizable than others) joining in the dancing outside of Shul.

Yeshivas Mordechai HaTzaddik was once again a success, ensuring that boys -and their fathers -partook in Limud Torah, for an hour after Mincha. Rav Mantel addressed the attendees. Thanks are due to Rabbi Menachem Kunofsky for arranging the program, and soliciting sponsorships for the wonderful prizes raffled off.

CHEVRA SEUDOS

Sunday, March 1st / 5 Adar was the Chevra Kadisha's annual Ta'anis, followed by its Seudah after nightfall. The Chevra Kadisha DeNoshim held their annual Seuda earlier in the day. At the Chevra's annual meeting, held before Mincha (at which Vayechal was leined), it was suggested that a marker (or perhaps several, for the various KAJ sections) be erected in the Beis Olam on which the Brocho one makes when visiting would be inscribed. Dedication opportunities would be available.

The delicious Seudo, which was catered by Mr. Yitzzy Dyckman's Lechayim Caterers, was ably chaired by Rabbi Raphael M. Weis, who, citing the Peirush Yeshua Gedola of Rav Yehonoson Eibeschuetz, explained why our Yom Tov is called Purim, in the plural, and not just Pur, as the Megilla calls Haman's lottery. The dais was graced by the presence of Rav Mantel, Rav Posen, and Rav Levi, and Chazon Ezra Lasdun led the members in the singing of Tzomo Nafshi.

Rav Mantel's address included the discussion of when a Chosson who will sit Shiva בר מינן after his Sheva Brochos will begin his Aveilus, particularly in cases where the number of Sheva Brochos and days of Simcha are not equal, as, for example, in the case of a Chasuna of an Alman and Almana.

Rav Levi spoke on the topic of מגילה מקרא לשמוע תורה תלמוד מבטלין and under what circumstances would such a situation arise.

CHEVRA KADISHA DENOSHIM SEUDAH

Mrs. Esther Jacobovits graciously welcomed the ladies to the seudah. Mrs. Bobbie Gerstle created a lovely spring-like atmosphere with her choice of table décor and Mr. Dyckman catered a tasty meal enjoyed by all. Mr. Nulman, the musician, played lilting music to enhance the proceedings.

Mrs. Jacobovits noted the absence of Rebbetzin Gelley who was sitting shivoh in Israel for her brother, Rabbi Chaim Isser Feldman ז"ל. May the Rebbetzin be comforted and only participate in simchos in the future. The loss of Sonja Wechser and Sophie Taub ה"ע was mentioned.

The ladies were delighted to have the opportunity to wish Esther Jacobovits mazel tov on the engagement of her grandchild. May she and all of Klal Yisroel have many occasions to express good wishes for happy occasions.

Rav Mantel reiterated important points he had delivered at the Agudah Convention. The Rav related incidents where a family requested the Rav speak to the doctor of a seriously ill patient. A shomer Shabbos M.D. recommended not to medically intervene because the patient was old and very sick. The physician felt that the infirm person would not have quality of life. Rav Mantel queried, "What is quality of life – being fit to run a marathon?" The Rav remarked, "If a person is sedentary and sits daily in a chair and davens, she has a good life." Another ill person was very depressed, so the Rav advised that people should attempt to cheer her up. Both patients lived longer than the medical experts predicted and even enjoyed participating in several Simchos. One woman residing in a facility was privileged to give chizuk to a non-frum resident in the nursing home. Rav Mantel advised having a halachically sound health proxy with the contact number of one's Rav.

Rav Mantel explained that there are two ways of keeping a mitzvah: 1. It is mandatory from the Torah, and 2. One's heart moves him to perform the good deed. In Parshas Terumah "Nidvas Lev", people's hearts moved them to donate for the vessels of the Mishkan. The sockets of the boards of the Mishkan were financed by the obligatory Machatzis Hashekel. The sockets were the base, the foundation of the Tabernacle. The elements of mandatory mitzvah and heartfelt deeds were involved in the Mishkan's construction.

The ladies of the Chevra are not commanded to do the Chevra task. The Chevra Kadisha members treat their mission as a direct command, responding quickly to the Chesed Shel Emes task at hand. They approach a Tahara with a sense of responsibility and with heart. The Rav gave brochos to all assembled for good health, nachas and Simchos.

Rebbetzin Mantel began her remarks with a humorous anecdote. In the town of Eisenstock the Rav died. The Rosh Hakohol, the community leader, searched for a new Rav. He approached a young Rabbi and offered him the position. The Rabbi was reluctant to accept the offer and explained that he needs lot of time to prepare a drosha and was concerned that if he needed to say a hesped at a funeral on short notice, he would not be up to the task. The Rosh Hakohol advised him to move to the town, get to know the residents and then he would be able to compose eulogies in advance which would fit the profile of the deceased.

One day the Rosh Hakohol became ill and was bedridden. He requested that the Rabbi visit him whereupon the ill man asked, "What remarks have you prepared for my hesped?" When the Rav finished a wonderful eulogy, the ill man jumped up saying, "If I am that terrific, I intend to live a lot longer!" Life is precious and must always be valued.

The 7th of Adar is the day for Chevra Seudos. Most people with a talent or profession don't want to be idle. The exception are the members of the Chevra who do not want to be occupied with Taharos!

When Moshe Rabbeinu was niftar, the Chevra was idle; Hashem buried him. Moshe had the z'chus of burying Yosef Hatzadik's bones. Yosef was at the bottom of the sea in a casket filled with heavy lead which the Egyptians had placed there. Serach bas Asher showed Moshe Rabbeinu the exact spot where to retrieve Yosef, whereupon he lifted the aron on to his shoulders.

The luncheon ended with Birchas Hamazon led by Mrs. Meta Bechhofer and a sense of chizuk and inspiration for all. We await the day when Chevra Kadisha tasks will be obsolete, upon the arrival of Moshiach.

SIYUM MASSECHES BEROCHOS

Members of the morning and evening Daf Yomi Chaburos got together on Sunday morning, March 8/ 12 Adar for a breakfast Siyum in Moller Hall after Shacharis, celebrating their first Siyum Masechta in the new, current Daf Yomi cycle.

Rabbi Johny Hellmann was mesayeim; Rabbi Elchonon Stern began Masseches Shabbos, and Rav Mantel addressed all those participating. The Chaburos cordially invite new members to join them in their journey through Masseches Shabbos, and beyond.

SPECIAL SHIUR

On the occasion of the twenty-fifth Yahrzeit of our revered Moro D'Asro Rav Shimon Schwab, זצ"ל, the preceding Thursday night's Chumash Shiur, on March 5th/ 10 Adar was given by the Rav's grandson, Rabbi Doniel Schwab of Clifton, New Jersey, as a special Yahrzeit Shiur. Rabbi Schwab cited his grandfather's teachings on the Parashiyos of these weeks, and interwove them with personal memories he has of his grandfather, the Rav.

SHELOSHIM OF MRS. SOPHIE TAUB ע"ה

On Leil Taanis Esther, Sunday evening March 8th friends and members gathered in Dombrow Beis Medrash to hear Divrei Hisorrerus from Rav Mantel on the occasion of the Sheloshim of Mrs. Sophie Taub, מרת צפורה בת הח' ר' קלונימוס הכהן ז"ל.

Rav Mantel spoke, and noted that both Mrs. Sophie Taub as well as her late husband, Mr. Shmuel Dovid Taub, were exemplars of VeHatzneia Leches Im Elokecho: Imcho, Elokecho. Someone who lives with Tznius in his or her own life, will much more readily connect with הקב"ה Whose entire personification and Hanhogo is Tznius. Such was this couple's way of life, in all the myriad Mitzvos and Maasim Tovim which they performed, a way of life almost unknown in today's attention-seeking society.

FROM OUR YESHIVA

Purim

Purim and the Adar spirit were enjoyed in all of our Yeshiva's departments, beginning with Funny Hat Day for the younger divisions on Rosh Chodesh Adar, and culminating with various Chagigos and masquerades.

8th Grade Boys

In conjunction with a research report and project on the boys' namesakes and families which Rabbi Avrohom Hoffman's eighth grade Jewish History class recently completed, the boys enjoyed a special trip to visit the archives of Agudath Israel of America, in Midtown Manhattan, for a behind-the-scenes look at just one facet of Agudah's work. The boys met with Rabbis Avi Shafran and Moshe Kolodny.

SISTERHOOD EVENT

"Mishenichnas Adar Marbin b'Simcha" was the theme of a joyful Talent Night orchestrated by the KAJ Sisterhood on Rosh Chodesh Adar, Tuesday, February 25th. This unique event (a brainchild of Mrs. Breinie Gutman), a first for our Sisterhood, showcased an array of talents within our community. As a result of a flier requesting volunteers, several people offered their services, while other talented women were approached and asked to perform. The goal was for women to spend quality time together in camaraderie, relaxation and amusement without judgment or competition. Everyone who took center stage was an amateur but truly performed like a professional!

Mrs. Judy Fulda served as emcee, setting the tone for a night of fun. The evening started appropriately with a Dvar Torah by Miss Shayna Weinberg-Gordon who tied her words to the upcoming holiday of Purim and cleverly incorporated the sum of money that Haman offered to put into the king's treasury (10,00 silver talents) into her speech. Misses Esther Biel and Hannah Sitzmann, two gifted musicians, played a piano duet as well as a piano and violin duet. Miss Shani Kaish expertly played a Bach sonata on her flute. The "Bennett Barbershop Quartet," comprised of Misses Leiba Winter, Rivka Halpert, Sara Chana Weinberger and Esther Biel, debuted, singing a musical medley they called "Thank You, Friends" as a way to thank the Washington Heights community for the friendship they have experienced since moving in. Miss Shayna Kahn gave a heartfelt performance with her beautiful voice and Mrs. Judy Rieser kept the audience in stitches talking about hilarious aspects of being a wife, a daughter, a mom and ...Judy Rieser! Mrs. Ruthy Feigenbaum did a step-by-step demonstration of making almond bark, from showing how to melt the chocolate to mixing in assorted ingredients and then adding toppings. By the time Talent Night was over, the Almond Bark (2 flavors!) had hardened and was available to everyone for sampling. Truly a yummy way to end an evening of unity, friendship and true talent!

Thanks go to Mrs. Raizel (nee Gutman) Hutman for designing the original flier, to Mrs. Rivka Lewin for designing the postcard and to Mrs. Gitty Levi for designing the Program. Much appreciation to Mrs. Frumet Tova Sussman for taking care of the delicious refreshments and to Mrs. Ray Adler who organized with Rabbi Moller the loan of the microphones. But most especially, thanks to the seriously skilled performers who volunteered their time and energies to put themselves out there for the Klal and put smiles on the faces of everyone who was in attendance!

ONLY WITH JOY

On Sunday evening, February 23rd/ 29 Shevat, the Senior Social Clubs sponsored the showing of the documentary film, Only with Joy, the life story of Rav Meir Shapiro, ל"צ. Not blessed with children of his own, Rav Shapiro called the Daf Yomi movement he started, and his Yeshivas Chachmei Lublin, his son and his daughter. Rav Shapiro, in his tragically short lifetime, changed Klal Yisroel to this day, through the establishment of Daf Yomi, and through the idea, and reality, of a well-appointed Yeshiva that would take care of its Talmidim's both physical and spiritual sustenance, which Rav Shapiro nourished, very literally, through his life-blood. The film was introduced by Mr. David Hoff, a long-time Daf Yomi participant himself.
