As in previous years, the bochurim of our Beis Medrash will be joining us on Shabbos Shuva for the Rav's sermon and Mussaf. Because the Shul's supply of Talleisim for guests is not sufficient to provide one for each of the 90 or so bochurim who don't have their own, we are again asking our members who have extra Talleisim to bring them to Shul for Shabbos Shuva and make them available to Leslie Lewin to lend to the bochurim. In order to assure that the lender receives back his extra Tallis, please provide it with a Tallis bag that has your name or which you can otherwise identify.

IMPORTANT

More than 20 years ago, Sergey Shtilman, a former resident in 131 Bennett Avenue, was convicted for a murder that occurred in 131 Bennett Avenue. Some tenants (including our members) testified in court and helped the prosecution gain a conviction. Sergey Shtilman is scheduled for parole consideration in December 2019. Members of the community are asked to express their opposition to his release before the Parole Board meets in December. You may do this through <http://www.doccs.ny.gov/DOCCSWebLettersToBoardofParoleForm.aspx>, or writing to:
