Yossele Rosenblatt

by

Mr. Charlie Bernhaut

Mr. Bernhaut will take us on a journey from the Ukraine, through Europe, to the US and to his untimely death in Palestine in 1933.

As part of the program, original 100+ year old Rosenblatt recordings are played on a 1905 phonograph. Film clips are utilized, including the first "talkie" – The Jazz Singer - and clips of Yossele in Palestine. The impact of the invention of recorded sound in 1900 is explored, pertaining to Yossele's early rise in popularity

Sunday August 19, 2018 at 7:30 PM
90 Bennett Avenue

Through his hobby, Charlie Bernhaut has been broadcasting Jewish music on a weekly basis since 1977 via radio and the internet.

Drawing from his private collection of over 13,000 Jewish albums his hobby has provided him with a unique appreciation and knowledge of the world of Jewish music.
