

Oneg Host Responsibilities

Arrive 30 minutes before the service in order to set up for the Oneg. Be prepared to clean up after the Oneg. This includes washing, drying and putting away the dishes used. Should you wish not to set up and clean up, feel free to hire someone to do this. You may also call Patricia (pronounced Patriseeah) Minchalo at 524-7381 who has done this for quite some time.

Be prepared to participate in the service, and dress appropriately to be on the Bimah (no exposed shoulders, no jeans, no short skirts, men are encouraged to wear a shirt and tie).

Bring enough food for approximately 50 people to nosh on. Please note, that if your Oneg falls on the first Friday of the month it will be a family service and you can expect at least 20 children along with their families. PLEASE BE SURE TO LABEL ALL PRODUCTS CONTAINING NUTS.

Required Items:

- Challah for Motzi
- Juice (or other family friendly beverage)
- Milk and lemon for coffee and tea

Suggested items include but are not limited:

- Cookies
- Fruit
- Veggies and Dip
- Cheese and Crackers
- Cakes and/or pastries
- Candies and/or chips

The Temple will provide:

- Coffee
- Tea
- Sugar and sweeteners (in cabinet over sink)
- Paper plates
- Hot and cold cups
- Napkins (in the top cabinet to the right of the sink)
- Cutting board, cloth cover and knife for Challah (upper cabinets opposited side of the sink)
- Coffee Urns (small cabinet below drain board)
- Serving platters and bowls (lower cabinets opposite of sink)
- Plastic utensils (lower cabinet, left hand side of the refridgerator)
- Rolls of plastic table cloth to be cut down to size (in the coat closet)

Remember, this is your Oneg, if you have a talent for baking and wish to share your own creations, that is fantastic! If you believe in nutritious snacking, here is your chance to share some ideas with the Temple Community. If you have a talent for having something catered, that is great too!

If you have any questions, please contact Joan Poulin (jsspoulin@gmail.com) or Karen Stachowicz (golfskibum22@verizon.net)

Should a question arise during the evening of your Oneg and one of us is not available, there should be a Board Member present who can assist you.

Thank you for your support of our Temple Community!

Joan Poulin & Karen Stachowicz