Shabbat Shalom from Beth Yeshurun!

Beth Yeshurun is a community institution with a vital mission: to educate children and adults, to offer spiritual experiences that inspire and uplift all ages, and to provide a setting in which Judaism can be joyously lived and experienced.

Mazel tov to our Bar Mitzvah, Asher Liam Glaich, son of Adrienne & Asaf Glaich; brother of Ethan and Ella; grandson of Sara & Abraham Glaich and Melanie & Barry Shoss. Asher is a seventh-grader at The Emery/Weiner School where he plays basketball and baseball. For his Mitzvah project, Asher decorated Shabbat boxes for Jewish patients at Methodist Hospital for the chaplaincy program operated by Jewish Family Service. He will also donate a portion of his monetary gifts to Hadassah Ein Kerem Hospital in Jerusalem. Asher is thrilled to share this special occasion with his cousin and B'nai Mitzvah partner, Jack Lane.

Mazel tov to our Bar Mitzvah, Jack Eli Lane, son of Donna and Robert Lane; brother of Hailey and Natalie; grandson of Sara and Abraham Glaich and Helaine and David Lane. Jack is an 8th grader at The Emery/Weiner School where he plays baseball and basketball. For his Mitzvah project, Jack decorated Shabbat boxes for Jewish patients at Methodist Hospital for the chaplaincy program operated by Jewish Family Service. He will also donate a portion of his monetary gifts to the Edward Wayne Hunger Fund. Jack is excited to celebrate this special milestone with his cousin and B'nai Mitzvah partner, Asher Glaich.

We are delighted to provide transliterated Friday evening Shabbat Service booklets to our members and guests. No matter what level of proficiency you possess in Hebrew reading, it is our hope that using this booklet will enable you to be more fully engaged, and will encourage you to actively participate in our service. They can be found as you enter the Freedman-Levit Sanctuary.

Cell Phone Usage on Shabbat and Holidays On Shabbat & Jewish holidays, please silence your cell phones & hand-held devices and please do not use them in any public spaces on Beth Yeshurun property. Kindly advise children and guests of this request, as well. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Our kitchens are kosher - Beth Yeshurun is proud to be a member of the Houston Kashruth Association, and our kitchens are under the strict Orthodox supervision of Rabbi Mark Urkowitz. All food preparation and reheating on Shabbat is in accordance with HKA standards.

Donations

To make a donation please visit our website at www.bethyeshurun.org/donations. You may also mail your donation to the synagogue office. A minimum donation of $18 per listing is required to have your donation published in the weekly bulletin and a notification letter sent to the honoree or a deceased person's Family member. One such notification letter will be sent per donation. The deadline for donations to be published in the weekly bulletin is the previous Friday at noon. Donations are published upon submission and will not be "held" for future publication. Please be sure to provide all of the necessary information, if it's incomplete, we are unable to process your donation efficiently. Donations with no specific fund indicated will be credited to the Synagogue General Fund. Thank you for your continued generous support of the synagogue.

A Notice About Bereavement Communications Bereavement notices for our synagogue Family are distributed with the permission of the deceased's Family, and the timing of these notices is dictated by the Family's request. Of course, each Family grieves in its own way, and we are grateful for our congregation's patience and understanding with different families' preferences about how their loss is publicized.

With this multi-faceted program of engagement in Jewish tradition we hope to inspire you to seek out the wisdom of our amazing history, faith, and culture. JLP is especially designed to meet your needs and interests. Come as often as you wish and are able to do so. Choose from monthly, weekly, single-event, or short-term topics. Mix and match your own program so you can enrich your Jewish life.

LIMITED SERIES

Midrash: The Book of Genesis with Rabbi Barry Gelman | Sundays 10a: Our tradition teaches us that the Torah has Seventy Faces (Shivim Panim L'Torah). The Rabbis relished turning the text over and over to find new insights that can teach us about living a good life.

Family Dynamics in Bereshit with Gabi Gelman | Mondays 7p: What can learn from the relationships of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebecca, Jacob, Leah and Rachel, and Joseph and his brothers?

YEAR-LONG COURSES

Invitation to Judaism with Rabbi Steven Morgen | Sundays 9a: This class is open to anyone, but is especially designed for newcomers to Judaism to learn the basics of our way of life, way of thinking about God, and way of looking at the world.

Prayerbook Hebrew with Cantor Diane Dorf | Sundays 9a: Learn how to lead the Hebrew prayers for the Saturday morning service, and chant a few verses from the Torah.

Introduction to Hebrew with Cantor Diane Dorf | Sundays 10a: Learn to read Hebrew and recognize essential prayer vocabulary. This course is open to everyone, but is required for the Invitation to Judaism students.

Jewish Values and the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict with Rabbi Danny Horwitz | Sundays 10a: Through the study of Jewish narratives about Israel and the unpacking of the complex meanings of peace in Jewish tradition, participants are invited to explore the ideas and values that animate different attitudes toward the conflict and how these values shape their own political understandings.

Abraham Heschel's The Prophets with Rabbi Danny Horwitz | Sundays 11a: Who were the prophets of Israel; what was their message and what does it bring us today? Abraham Joshua Heschel, perhaps the greatest Jewish thinker of the 20th century, gave us important and previously neglected insights about their teachings.

Jewish Literacy with Rabbi Danny Horwitz | Tuesdays 7:30p: Over the course of the year we will explore: General Jewish history, Critical stories and themes in the Hebrew Bible (Tanakh), Fundamental Jewish life behaviors, what they mean and what they teach, Jewish theology - What do we think about God, the afterlife and other big ideas.
