SAY "HELLO" AND SMILE

BY RABBI STEVEN MORGEN

Diane and I started taking walks in our neighborhood when COVID started. I'm not saying we have been doing it frequently or consistently. But it has been nice to walk around and see our neighbors strolling, cycling, or otherwise relaxing outdoors.

And, I know it may sound strange, but we like to say "hello" to our neighbors as we pass them by. No, we don't really know them. But they are our neighbors. And God did instruct us to "love our neighbors as ourselves".

So, why not say "hello"? Most often they respond with "hello" to us.

I imagine some people might say that this is a peculiar thing to do. Many parents instruct their children not to talk to strangers. And, it's probably not a good idea for children to talk to strangers. They are more vulnerable to unscrupulous characters. But as adults we can more easily recognize potential dangers, and after all, the likelihood of someone we meet on the street doing something unpleasant is pretty negligible.

I also say hello to people in the supermarket. And, of course, I try to say hello to as many people as I can who come to Beth Yeshurun – for Shabbat services, or during the week.

While I am at it, I also try to smile. You know, many adults (including me) try to get infants to smile. How do we do that? By smiling at them. And when they finally smile back, it's like a special gift. Right? Well, that is a natural human thing. We get pleasure from seeing people smile. So, I try to remember to smile with adults, too.

The Chassidic Rabbi Nahman of Bratislav famously said: "It is a great mitzvah to be happy always." It is perhaps surprising to know, then, that he suffered from bouts of depression. Yet, I imagine that he must have smiled at the people he met, and no doubt his own disposition would have been lifted when someone smiled back at him.

You know how the song goes, "When you're smiling, the whole world smiles with you."

All of this may sound Pollyannish. And maybe it is. But I think we could all use a little more cheerfulness, friendliness, and optimism these days. And the best part is: it doesn't cost us anything.

A Notice About Bereavement Communications

Bereavement notices for our synagogue family are distributed with the permission of the deceased's family, and the timing of these notices is dictated by the family's request. Of course, each family grieves in its own way, and we are grateful for our congregation's patience and understanding with different families' preferences about how their loss is publicized.

HONEY SALES HAVE BEGUN!

Don't wait! Each year we have several folks who miss the ordering deadline and have to pay an additional $7/jar for a late fee. Remember, the vendor sets the price and the deadline date.

A jar of Kosher honey makes an excellent High Holy Days greeting. Consider sending honey to family, friends, teachers, customers and colleagues. Each package includes an 8 ounce jar of honey along with the appropriate prayers and a gift card from you. Honey will be delivered prior to Erev Rosh Hashanah.

All proceeds from this sale benefit the students of our Shul and School.

Just go to BETHYESHURUN.ORG/HONEY. Fill in the name and address and the greeting for each jar. All orders must be placed on the order-entry system. No paper orders will be accepted.

Cost $14/jar includes shipping anywhere in the USA. There is an additional fee for international orders. Order by August 1st to avoid a late fee.

Mind the Museum

Of course, you've seen this cute little engine every time you walk through the Museum! But look closely! It's a silver Havdalah spice box and candle holder. The body is open filigree, with 2 stacks, one at each end with one flared and open to hold a candle; the other top is rounded. The spokes of the wheels are made by 5-pointed stars. This locomotive shape commemorates the arrival of the railroad to Russia in the late 19th century.

The Museum is open 10:00AM-2:00PM Monday through Thursday; guided tours by appointment. The collection is open to congregants whenever the building is open. For non-members an appointment is required. Various groups, both Jewish and non-Jewish, take advantage of the opportunity to visit the collection each year, and docents can be arranged for groups that wish to use them.

2023 | 5783 ANNUAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

I am honored and privileged to present the President's Annual Report for 2023.

What an incredible year it has been for Congregation Beth Yeshurun. I need to start by thanking Neal Taibel, who filled in admirably for us as an interim Cantor after Meir Finkelstein left for Florida. Neal, you have a very bright future ahead of you, and we know you will be successful in your career. In July, our new Senior Cantor, Rachel Goldman, took over, and she hit the ground running. We had Bar and Bat Mitzvahs starting in August, and preparations began immediately for High Holidays. We did not know how many congregants would be on our campus for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Still, I am pleased to inform you that at our peak, we had about 2,500 people here between the Main Sanctuary Service, Chapel Service, Museum Minyan, and several family programs. Along with Cantor Goldman, we were lucky to have brought in Julie Sacks as our new accompanist. These two not only provided Beth Yeshurun with beautiful High Holiday Services but also re-energized our Shabbat services. Seeing many of you returning to the synagogue for Shabbat has been so wonderful.

Thanks again in large part to our incredible Program Director Jennifer Rosenzweig, we had another great year of events at Beth Yeshurun. First, we had an amazing installation concert for Cantor Goldman, featuring 10 of the best Cantors in the country, including Netanel Hershtik, Gideon Zelermyer, Roz Barak, Daniel Mendelson, and of course her fellow Shul Sisters Laurie Akers and Rachel Brook. This was followed up by another fantastic Hanukkah Light Up the Night celebration with great food, an interactive kids' dark room, and the fireworks show.

Also during Hanukkah, we were pleased to welcome Houston Astros 3rd baseman Alex Bregman and Channel 2 Sports Reporter Ari Alexander to Beth Yeshurun for a fun Q & A program. This gained national publicity and we had about 900 people in attendance. This was all made possible by Lori Herzog and her persistence, which paid off in a big way for us. Thank you very much, Lori! Once the calendar turned to 2023, we had more successful events in the works. Cantor Goldman planned our very first Rock Shabbat and we had over 750 people here. What a fun night singing our Shabbat prayers to some of our favorite classic rock songs. That weekend, we also celebrated Purim with the Purim Fest, including the carnival and various other activities for all ages. Soon after, we had a beautiful and powerful tribute night for Rabbi Jack Segal and his wife, Toby. This included an original hibachi-style dinner created by our talented Catering Director Marco Alvarado, and a concert featuring Cantor Goldman and the Shul Sisters. To wrap up this programming year, Rabbi Morgen and Rabbi Fort hosted a second night Passover Seder with over 125 people attending. Thank you to all who made these events and many more so successful.

Our Director of Development, Jennifer Sutton, was also busy again this year. Not only did she continue to raise money for our endowment, but she also had several successful fundraising projects. She collaborated with Sarah Braham, Andrea Stein, and Arlene Staller to design brand-new Torah covers, which have all been dedicated. She also raised funds to replace the curtains in the Pulaski-Rauch Auditorium and the partition wall between the Barg Sanctuary and Pulaski-Rauch. In the meantime, she has had several more Museum Cases dedicated, and there are still more left if anyone here is interested.

Our commitment to excellence in education was also displayed this past year. I want to thank our head of the Religious School Sheryl Eskowitz, Education Committee Chair Bill Schwartz, and Beth Yeshurun Day School Head of School Jennifer LeVine, for maintaining the strong bond between the synagogue and educating our youth. Cantor Goldman and Julie Sacks lead our Day School kids in Shabbat Services every Friday morning, and Sheryl also planned excellent educational events for our religious school kids. For example, several weeks ago, she and her staff planned a unique ISRAEL-A-PALOOZA event celebrating Israel's 75th birthday.

I can't say enough about the beautiful job that our Inclusion Committee does. This past year was highlighted by their incredible Rosh Hashanah service, Hanukkah program, and a Sensory-Sensitive Mini-Carnival included with the Purim Fest. Thanks as always to Rabbi Sarah Fort, Jennifer Rosenzweig, Richard Kammerman, Judy Blake, and Amma Grodin for all your help in making these events possible.

The Beth Yeshurun Sisterhood also had fantastic events, including their Torah Fund Luncheon, which honored Linda Atzil, Sharon Segal, and Judy Yambra. In addition, I want to thank Vicky Richker and Barbara Koslov for their many years of dedicated leadership to the Sisterhood. I would also like to congratulate Julie Kaplan and Jordana Roteman for being our new co-presidents. I know that the two of you will be successful.

2023 | 5783 ANNUAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

I would also like to thank the leaders of our 100 Jewish Men program and the speakers they brought in this past year.

Rabbi Strauss and Steven Sheldon created a new program called 4525Live!, and so far, we have featured guests Ziggy Gruber and Dr. Garth Davis. Their next event is June 1st, featuring Nataly Marks, who will share her incredible success story.

Another exciting milestone was achieved by your synagogue this past year when we officially received our Historic Landmark Plaque. This has been several years in the making, and I would like to thank Glen Rosenbaum, Gary Swartz, and Jerrad Bloome for making this all possible.

One topic that has been on many people's minds this year is security. Beth Yeshurun takes our security very seriously. We have partnered with the Day School to ensure that we now have two security guards on our campus protecting our building, our congregants, and, most importantly, our children. We have also repaired some of our fencing around the school, upgraded our video surveillance and access control, and added pipe bollards in front of our building and school. I would like to personally thank Detective Sergeant Gil Macedo of the Bellaire Police Department and Jay Smith, who chairs our Security Committee.

And last but certainly not least, our new HVAC system has finally been completed. Once again, a big thank you to the chair of the Building Committee, Paul Metter, for overseeing this project.

This synagogue is blessed to have outstanding Clergy led by Senior Rabbi Brian Strauss, Associate Rabbis Steve Morgen and Sarah Fort, and Senior Cantor Rachel Goldman. However, I also want to recognize all our staff, starting at the top with our extraordinarily talented and dedicated Executive Director Andy Burger. He works tirelessly to ensure your synagogue is at its best daily. I know I have mentioned some of these names before. Still, I want to recognize all of the incredible staff here at Beth Yeshurun: Programming Director Jennifer Rosenzweig, Development Director Jennifer Sutton, Membership Director Mindy Stern, Communications and Marketing Director Ashley Mills, Education Director Sheryl Eskowitz and her staff Shari Kammerman and Joanie Dillingham, Catering & Facilities Director Marco Alvarado and the Catering team, Building Operations Superintendent Bruce Jackson and Facilities team, Clergy Assistants Abby Rotenberg, Lisa Unsell, and Sara Kaiser, our accounting team Ellen Petras and Diane Gordon, and finally the first person you see when you walk into the offices, Gayle Schnurr.

It has indeed been an honor serving as the 40th President of Congregation Beth Yeshurun. I thank everyone for all you do for Congregation Beth Yeshurun, the most prominent Conservative Synagogue in the United States.

Respectfully Submitted,
David Stein, President
