

The Message

MARCH 2024

BY RABBI SARAH FORT

Even the youngest Jewish child knows that Purim is the holiday of joy! Happiness! Celebration! We eat sweet foods, dress up in crazy costumes, throw parties, and (here at Beth Yeshurun at least) have an amazing, rocking carnival! It's no surprise to anybody that one of the actual commandments of Purim, coming from the Book of Esther itself, is to be joyful. "They were to observe [the holiday of Purim] as days of feasting and merrymaking" (Esther 9:22).

But it's a little odd, no? After all, the holiday of Purim is pretty dark! It's a commemoration of the plan of a genocidal maniac named Haman, to kill all the Jews in Iran because of his own outsized ego. Not exactly sunny stuff! The only ones who stand in his way are a Jewish man named Mordechai and his niece Hadassah, who changes her name and hides her religion to become Queen Esther to that genocidal maniac's boss, King Ahasuerus. He's a nice king, if a little too freehanded when it comes to his favorite advisor.

And this is the holiday where we're commanded to be happy?

Yet it is. In fact, the entire month of Adar, during which Purim falls, is a season of joy and merrymaking. It's one of the few months of the Jewish calendar with its own saying: mishenichnas Adar marbin b'simcha "When the month of Adar arrives, we increase our joy!"

This time of commemorating such a dark period of Jewish history is in fact why we're commanded to be joyful. Joy does not come easy in dark times. Too easily we can become mired in our own despair, unable to see a way out. Even Esther, the heroine of the Purim story, struggles to see beyond her own despondency. When Mordechai urges her to go to King Ahasuerus to appeal Haman's evil decree, she replies, "If any person enters the king's presence without having been summoned, there is but one law for them—death! And I have not been summoned to visit the king for the last thirty days!" (Esther 4:11). Yet she fights her anguish, and saves the Jewish people.

It is an important lesson for us in modern times as well, when being Jewish is perhaps harder than many of us have faced during our lifetimes. Maybe this Adar, this Purim, doesn't feel especially joyful for you. But it is for precisely that reason that we must seek joy. Times to celebrate and make merry with friends and family, to be grateful for all the good that is possible in these troubled times. That is why we are commanded so, during Adar to borrow from a famous Hebrew saying: Simcha, simcha tirdof "Joy, joy shall you pursue." I hope this Adar and this Purim is one of much joy for you and yours, especially now.

May their memories be for a blessing.*

A Notice About Bereavement Communications

Bereavement notices for our synagogue family are distributed with the permission of the deceased's family, and the timing of these notices is dictated by the family's request. Of course, each family grieves in its own way, and we are grateful for our congregation's patience and understanding with different families' preferences about how their loss is publicized.

SOLIDARITY MISSION TO ISRAEL
LED BY RABBI BRIAN STRAUSS &
LISA STRAUSS

Coming to Israel today is a special act of solidarity and of Jewish peoplehood. Israel has never faced more challenging times. We hope that your solidarity mission is about encountering and understanding where the people of Israel stand – in our hurt, in our healing, and in our hope. The mission is about bringing comfort and being comforted. It is an act of empathy and a confirmation of shared memory and destiny. Above all, the solidarity mission is about what each one of us chooses to do to make a difference on the day that we return to our communities from Israel.

In order to allow maximum participation, registration for this incredible trip has been extended to May 5th.

WE STAND WITH ISRAEL

The Jewish Federation of Greater Houston has established a Support for Israel Fund following multi-front attacks on Israel during Shabbat and the Sukkot/Simchat Torah holiday. They are in close contact with overseas partners, and anticipate an unprecedented need to assist victims of terror and their families. Now, more than ever, they need your support. Israel will prevail and the Jewish people will stand together as we always do. Am Yisrael Chai.

100% of the funds will be distributed to support victims of terror for:

- Basic Needs: Food and financial assistance for impacted families
- Housing: Support for communities under fire and for new olim
- Support for Victims of Terror: Immediate cash grants for post-trauma care
- Support for Soldiers: Supplies and medical care
- Emergency Medical Services: Supplies and equipment for first responders and hospitals
- Accurate Media Reporting: Combat prejudice and anti-Israel bias in the media
- Trauma Relief and Psychological Care: Wide-scale support for those struggling to cope

If you would like to support the fund through your donor-advised fund, please contact your fund administrator or learn more through HJCF.ORG. If you have any issues with the Jewish Federation of Greater Houston's website, HOUSTONJEWISH.ORG/SUPPORT-FOR-ISRAEL, please call 713-729-7000.
