Beyond the Bookshelves: The Vibrant Colors and Conversations of Judaism

BY CANTOR RACHEL GOLDMAN

To those who think that Judaism and Hebrew is boring, I invite you to step into my office. No, really, I literally mean you should come to my office if that is your argument. My office will literally argue back with you with art and color, as almost everything in my office has been intentionally put there to spark a conversation about Judaism. Whether it's the neon sign that reads LIVE WELL (a good two-word summary of Torah), the large resin wall sculpture asking WHY? in large cutouts (Jews' favorite question) or a summary of our Amidah using Pop Art, there is always something in my office that is bound to catch your attention and turn the discussion to something fun, interesting and most definitely Jewish.

While I had no final plan as to how the office would turn out, it was always my intention to have my office be a space that you could not enter without leaving in a different mood. My office serves as the gateway for all our B'nai Mitzvah students, as it is the first stop for them with their parents before they start their formal preparation process. I am always mindful of this whenever I take on any creative project to add to my space, and with that kavanah I finished my favorite part of my office: the L'dor Vador Rainbow.

When I arrived at Beth Yeshurun last year, I came with 25 boxes for my office, most of which were books. Six years of Cantorial and Rabbinic school will leave you with quite a need for bookshelf real estate, which I needed much of. When I realized I had more books than I had shelf space, I was then told about our Clergy library and, of course, my use of it as clergy. I started by putting my overflow books in there, but it turned into so much more of an adventure when I pulled a book off the shelves. It had a dust cover that was disintegrating, and underneath the dust cover was a beautifully teal book on Jewish Law with Rabbi Jack Segal's (z"I) notes on many of the pages. As I was pulling the dust covers off of my own books and sorting them by color (this is how my brain likes to sort things), I knew this beautiful shade of sefer bursting with RJS wisdom would feel right at home in my new space.

When we lost Rabbi Jack Segal, I knew it was a great loss even though I was still so new here. Even before moving to Houston, I knew of the Great Jack Segal (in fact, the parents of the final Bat Mitzvah I officiated in LA were actually married in the Barg Sanctuary by Rabbi Segal). For some reason, I wanted more of the energy that he left at Beth Yeshurun to be present in the Gateway of B'nai Mitzvah, so I started to trade some of my books for other books in the Clergy library. Every book I found of Rabbi Segal's, I lovingly switched out the paper bookmarks with post-it tabs, scanned some of the notes, and removed the (largely crumbling) dust covers to reveal beautiful colors with foil-embossed letters. Pink books on Women in the Bible next to the hot pink bible I purchased in Israel. Purple books on Jewish Humor next to my purple Koren siddur. Blue books on the beauty of Israel next to my blue sacred music books. Red books on Hebrew grammar next to my red concordances. Each book I sorted by color onto my shelves, until the most amazing spectrum appeared. Little by little, my bookshelf became a display of art in of itself, and one that had a deep history. For every new book I switched into my office, the rainbow became both brighter and wiser. When it was all said and done, my bookshelf had been transformed into a rainbow of Jewish Learning at Beth Yeshurun. Now, this rainbow gets to greet every single new B'nai Mitzvah student, and it makes quite an introduction. I am thrilled that that first impression now will always include a bit of Rabbi Segal. He, too, is in my office reminding us all that Judaism is definitely not boring.

CEMETERY LOT PRICE INCREASE

The Beth Yeshurun Cemetery Association maintains two cemeteries - the Allen Parkway Cemetery location and the Post Oak Cemetery location. While both cemeteries are steeped in the historic tradition of our Congregation the Post Oak location has recently been enlarged and we have added our beautiful Sophia and Jack Bender Memorial Chapel. The Allen Parkway location currently has a very limited selection of available gravesites while our Post Oak Cemetery offers a wide selection of gravesites.

Buying a cemetery plot is never an easy decision and taking that step does inspire procrastination in many of us. There is, however, a certain piece of mind in making that decision now and not leaving the stress and anguish to other family members in time of need. We suggest you plan ahead and make this decision when your loved ones are not in crisis.

Beth Yeshurun Cemetery gravesite prices have remained constant since March 1, 2016. Due to increasing costs the Cemetery Association has voted to increase prices effective January 1, 2024. Current buyers will have the existing price protected if the sale is complete by December 31, 2023. The new schedule of prices follows:

Members	Current Price	New Price
Pre-Need	$3500	$4200
At Need	$4000	$4800

For more information or to schedule an appointment to select your location at one of our cemeteries, please contact:

Larry Caulfield at (713) 255-8076 or (281) 728-3293

Marilyn Ozaroff at (713) 255-8075 or (713)502-8228

We invite you to share with us your simchas - births, engagement, weddings, or award and recognitions. Fill out our Mazel Tov form with your information a picture and share your great news with the rest of the congregation. BETHYESHURUN.ORG/MAZELTOV

The congregation extends its sincerest condolences to the families of:

Jack Nathaniel Alpert, Michael Bloome, Walter Dubov, Paulette Freudenberger, Kenneth Goret, Jerry Lee Harris, Shirley Gergel Ness, Brian Phillip Schultz, Jerry Selzer, Joseph Shoss, and Betty Lee Wagner

May their memories be for a blessing.

A Notice About Bereavement Communications

Bereavement notices for our synagogue family are distributed with the permission of the deceased's family, and the timing of these notices is dictated by the family's request. Of course, each family grieves in its own way, and we are grateful for our congregation's patience and understanding with different families' preferences about how their loss is publicized.

We are so grateful to our High Holy Day Appeal supporters! Your compassion has significantly impacted our ability to ensure the strength of our synagogue.

We could not do this without you!

Let's make Connections!

Save the date for these new opportunities to connect with old friends and hopefully make a few new ones! We look forward to welcoming you for these social events beginning this fall!

Open Game Play: Join us most Tuesday mornings at 9:00_{AM} for open play with coffee and a light breakfast. We will provide a number of games to choose from, or you can bring your own. Begins in November.

Book & Movie Club: We kick off this new discussion group with the ERJCC Book & Arts Festival book club author. After we'll alternate a book and movie: December 14; February 8; March 7; April 11; May 9

4th Friday Happy Hour: Stop in to the Skylight Lobby before our Friday Shabbat Renewal every 4th Friday for some lite bites, a glass of wine, and a little schmooze. All ages welcome! October 27; November 24; December 22; January 26; February 23; March 22; April 26; May 24

Opportunities for Enlightenment

Jewish Learning Project: Sunday mornings offer a variety of learning opportunities, including Invitation to Judaism and Prayerbook Hebrew with Rabbi Morgen and Cantor Dorf; 2 year-long classes with Rabbi Horwitz: Judaism 2.0 and Lessons from Chasidic Inheritors; plus limited-series with clergy and local guest speakers.

Scholars in Residence: Our theme for the year is Israel at 75. Author-comedian Joel Chasnoff joins us December 7-9 to share his comedy and unique take on Israel, including his new book Israel 201. In 2024 we welcome retired Ambassador Yoram Ettinger, February 16 and 17, author of the weekly The Ettinger Report covering US-Israel and Middle East affairs.

Interfaith Programming: Throughout the year we'll collaborate with community faith leaders. Look for a fall program about Diwali and Hanukkah and a winter program examining the 10 Commandments from the Jewish and Muslim perspectives, plus other educational and social action opportunities during the year.

4525 Live!: This series, moderated by Rabbi Brian Strauss and Steven Sheldon, shines a light on how and where innovators in our community find inspiration. We hope their stories inspire others to accomplish their goals. October 26; January 25; March 28; May 23

Mind the Museum

The celebration at the end of Shabbat, Havdalah, involves a kiddush cup used for blessing the wine. This cute little yellow cup, and I say little because it's about 2 ½ inches high, is a carnival glass Havdalah cup with gold overlay. It was created in the early 20th century. Look for it in the display case of the Kaplan Museum with the many other cups and spice (besamim) boxes used for Havdalah.

Come visit the Kaplan Museum of Judaica, housed at Congregation Beth Yeshurun. Contact Lisa Unsell at 713-255-8017 or LUNSELL@BETHYESHURUN.ORG to arrange a visit. Group tours available upon request.

Family member or friend in the hospital or nursing care?

The CBY Clergy and/or Hospital Visiting Group members are happy to reach out to them with spiritual comfort.

Please contact Lisa Unsell at LUNSELL@BETHYESHURUN.ORG or 713.255.8017 to request a phone call (or visit in person, if possible) for your loved one.
