HAKARAT HATOV

Rachel and Daniel Krich for donating magna-tiles to youth groups.

Kiddush is sponsored by Carol and Jeff Cohen in honor of Sienna Chana's Bat Mitzvah.

AN INVITATION FOR THE COMMUNITY

The community is invited this Shabbat to celebrate the Bat Mitzvah of our dear daughter, Sienna Chana Cohen, and siyum in honor of her completing Sefer Shoftim with her brother Gabe. Challah and grape juice will be available for those who would like to turn kiddush into Shabbat lunch. A small supply of pre-packaged take-home kiddushes will also be offered upon request or for those who choose it. Also, all middle school girls are invited to our home (21 Chittenden Road) for Seudah Shlishit to continue the celebration. Looking forward to seeing everyone as Sienna Chana reaches this wonderful milestone. Carol and Jeff Cohen

KEY STRATEGIES FOR MAXIMIZING THE IMPACT OF YOUR CHARITABLE GIFTS

Help the shul in ways you didn't even know you could! As we approach the year end, join Jason Lederman via zoom on November 30 at 8:15pm and hear about key strategies for maximizing the impact of your charitable gifts. The program will cover several actionable strategies to help structure charitable giving as efficiently as possible, taking income tax into account. For more information and for the zoom link, click here.

CHANUKAH CHAGIGAH AND TISCH

All are invited to the home of Sara and Rabbi Andrew Markowitz on Thursday, December 2 at 8:00pm for some delicious Chanukah treats and ruach. Open to adults and children!
