DOWN THE ROAD

Kol Nidre Appeal: Support the shul by giving generously to our annual Kol Nidrei Appeal

PARASHA OUTLINE BY CANTOR VOGEL

1. The birth to Yitzchak and Rivka of twin sons, Yaakov and Eisav.
2. Eisav sells his first-born birthright to Yaakov for lentil soup.
3. Due to a famine Yitzchak and Rivka move to Gerar, and live with Avimelech and the Philistines.
4. Yitzchak, reaching old age decides to bless his sons, and blesses Yaakov, believing he was blessing Eisav.
5. Yitzchak blesses Eisav.
6. Eisav bears hatred towards Yaakov for the subterfuge and threatens to kill him.
7. At Rivka's behest, Yitzchak sends Yaakov to Charan to Lavan's house (Rivka's brother), to find a wife (and to hide from Eisav).
8. Eisav to appease his parents, takes a daughter of Yishmael as one of his wives.

Haftorah Note

The navi Malachi in today's Haftorah speaks about the personality and character contrasts between Yaakov and Eisav, as well as the contrasts in their lifestyles and actions, which are a major theme and focus of this week's Torah portion.

AIPAC Israel Update

Bahrain Trade Delegation Expected in Israel Next Month

Bahrain has stepped forward to forge a new path of peace with Israel. A trade delegation from Bahrain is expected to arrive in Israel in the near future. Bahraini Foreign Minister Ab-dullatif bin Rashid Al Zayani led the first-ever official delegation from his country to Israel on Wednesday. The delegation will include Bahraini business leaders, who plan to meet with their Israeli counterparts and Economy Minister Amir Peretz. In addition, Foreign Minister Gabi Ashkenazi plans to visit Mana-ma on December 4, which would make him the first Israeli minister to pay an official visit to Bahrain. The Abraham Accords are a model for peace and prosperity, ushering in a new era of Israeli-Arab cooperation.
