1. A review and summary of the basic Torah concepts including the Ten Comandments.
2. The laws of new fruit trees and their first fruits.
3. The punishment for idol worship and imitation of idolators practices.
4. The punishment for violation of the laws of taharat hamishpacha-forbidden relationships.
5. A closing to the laws of holiness-to separate between the nation of Israel and thenations of the world.

Haftorah Note

Our Haftorah tells of a day when God will inflict punishment on those of the Jewish nation who sin. However, there is also a promise that the entire Jewish will never be destroyed. Those who don't follow the ways of the Torah will be punished, and this punishment will be followed by a rebirth of the Jewish nation.

Grief to Jubilation: Israel Transitions from Memorial to Independence Day

Israel abruptly crossed over from grief to jubilation at nightfall Wednesday, as Memorial Day for the country's fallen soldiers and terror victims came to a close and its 71st Independence Day began, The Times of Israel reported. Mournful and somber speeches gave way to fireworks, concerts and parties across the country, with flags promptly raised back from half-staff. The juxtaposition of Memorial Day and Independence Day is a key element of Israelis' experience of their country's anniversary, ensuring that no commemoration completely excludes the sacrifice of the fallen and their families, and that the elation of independence is never far removed from an awareness of its cost. The sudden switch is seen as a difficult transition for many bereaved families. The main event kicking off Independence day was the annual state ceremony, which was taking place at the military cemetery on Mount Herzl in Jerusalem, featuring a speech from Knesset Speaker Yuli Edelstein, the lighting of 12 torches — which symbolize the 12 tribes of Israel in the Bible — by people who are seen to have made an outstanding contribution to society, and much singing and dancing.
