We join Beth Sholom in congratulating this year's honorees for their committed community service and leadership.

The Garden of Remembrance is proud to recognize Beth Sholom Congregation's Pillars of Community honorees, David Fuller, Jonathan Helfgott, and Toni Waldman for their many contributions. Their leadership skills are without measure and have deeply enriched Beth Sholom's community.

The Garden of Remembrance Memorial Park has become an integral part of the fabric – and a true landmark – for the entire metropolitan Washington Jewish community, the area's only community-based, non-profit Jewish cemetery. Twenty-four area Jewish congregations have reserved their sections in our Garden. We welcome all of the Jewish faith, whether affiliated or unaffiliated with a congregation.

Pillar of Community Honorees

David Fuller David and his family moved to Potomac over nine years ago, and shortly after initiated the Shabbat afternoon Scotch-and-Learning program in the community. He has served on the Board of Directors for several years, and worked side-by-side with Jonathan Engler to steer our youth program in a new direction. Among the first of Beth Sholom's CSS volunteers, David continues to be an active member of our security group.

The visionary behind the Interfaith Greenway, David was instrumental in transforming the walkway between Beth Sholom and St. James' Church into usable space and was instrumental in identifying funding. David is active in commercial real estate and is in the midst of opening a specialty fitness center downtown. David is a devoted husband to Marissa and father to Casey, Renee and Tobias.

Jonathan Helfgott Jonathan and his wife, Michal, moved to Potomac 7 years ago. He has volunteered as a teacher for Kehilah and is currently running junior congregation. He also is a CSS volunteer. Jonathan davens in the sephardic minyan and has had children in the ECC for the past 5 years. Professionally, Jonathan is the Director of Global Regulatory & Clinical Affairs at Stage 2 Innovations and Faculty/Coordinator for the Regulatory Science & Food Safety Graduate Programs at Johns Hopkins University. Jonathan, Michal, and their children Ari, Eli, and Rebecca are thrilled to be a part of the Beth Sholom community.

Pillar of Community Honorees

Toni Waldman Toni joined the Board of Directors in 2012 and then was elected to the Executive Board the following year. She served four terms as Secretary. In addition to her active participation as part of BSCTT's lay leadership, Toni has co-chaired numerous community celebrations including Rabbi Antine's becoming Senior Rabbi in 2013. She and her family, husband, Charles Gross and children Sam and Deborah have belonged to Beth Sholom for almost 20 years. Toni has also done volunteer work for JSSA, CESJDS and the JCC Preschool.

Teen Honoree

Zev Roberts Zev is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy and serves on its student council. He has been attending Beth Sholom since the age of four. He is a weekly layner and also serves as shaliach tzibur in the teen minyan where he also has been the gabbai since the tenth grade. He plans to study in Israel next year before attending university. Zev was honored in teen minyan followed by lunch on January 6th.

Dear Friends,

In this week's Parsha, Yitro arrives to see Moshe, his son-in-law, and finds that he is leading alone. After declaring that "what you are doing is not good" (Ex. 18: 17), Yitro teaches us the important lesson that none of us can lead on our own. As the Clergy Team of Beth Sholom, we know that our community is held up by the work, spirit, and initiative of our amazing volunteers. These leaders make Beth Sholom the special place that it is.

This Shabbat is dedicated to honoring four individuals who have stepped up throughout the years to make our community the strong, loving, and vibrant place that we all love. It is also about the rest of us recognizing and honoring them for their leadership. Here are some ways that we, from the clergy perspective, are particularly grateful to our honorees, in addition to all of the other things that they do for Beth Sholom and the broader community.

David — Throughout the years, you have been actively involved in so many aspects of our shul including Youth, CSS, Torah Learning, leining and Davening. In the past year or two you have really dedicated yourself to making our Interfaith Greenway a reality. It is so special for us to have a beautiful green space that we share with our neighbors next door. We are so grateful for your vision and leadership!

Jonathan — You are so passionate about youth education. In the last year you have volunteered to run our Junior Congregation and the children (and their parents!) absolutely love it! There is nothing more important than Jewish Education for the next generation and you live this value. Thank you also for teaching so many of us the importance of daily minyan. Thank You!

Toni — In the past number of years, you have been served on our Board, Executive Committee, and as secretary (for four terms!). You have also chaired the Annual Event multiple times and the 2013 Rabbinic Installation. You have helped us honor others so many times so we are now grateful to be able to honor you. So much of your important volunteerism is done behind the scenes. It is so vital to our success as a shul. Mazal Tov on all your accomplishments!

Zev — Sometimes it is hard to accept that you are still in High School! You lein and lead davening and bring spirit to our tefillah services. You tutor in our B'nai Mitzvah tutoring program and are instrumental in the running of the teen minyan. So many other teens have joined teen minyan and are now leining or leading davening because of you! Mazal Tov!

We also have so much gratitude for those who have worked so hard to ensure the success of our 71st Annual Honoree Celebration. Thank you to our Co-Chairs Heather Greenblum, Arnie Hiller, Tovah Koplow and Ev Marcus-Wheeler. We know that it is a “labor of love” and we are so grateful for all your hard work on behalf of the shul.

Finally, thank you to our extraordinary office staff led by our Executive Director, Jessica Pelt. Jessica works so many hours each and every day for our community. She leads her amazing staff of Stevie Friedman, Aviva Kelsey, Wendy Katz, Pearl Bassan, and Rachel Zutshi. Without our dedicated and committed staff, none of our events would be successful.

Finally, thank you to all of you for your very generous donations. We are personally grateful for your support.

In so much gratitude;

Rabbi Antine and Maharat Fruchter

Dear Friends,

For the last 71 years Beth Sholom Congregation and Talmud Torah has celebrated its distinguished members. This year we have the good fortune to honor David Fuller, Toni Waldman and Jonathan Helfgott and our teen honoree Zev Roberts. Each honoree is a pillar of our Beth Sholom Community. Each honoree has contributed time, effort, energy, and resources to make Beth Sholom the special place it is. Each honoree does good for Beth Sholom and does good for the greater Jewish Community.

Over the years, the way we honor our Pillars of the Community has changed. Years ago we had large banquets. Now we have a celebration that brings the entire community together, for the sake of our honorees and for the sake of Beth Sholom. While the style in which we celebrate may change over time, one thing does not. Our honorees represent the best of what Beth Sholom is. Our honorees represent the dedication and commitment to Judaism that defines Beth Sholom.

When we recognize our honorees, in a way, we recognize what makes the Beth Sholom Community special. We recognize that, as a community, we have created a place of worship, spirituality and personal growth dedicated to Jewish values. Our honorees help us showcase what we have built together.

This event could not have come together without the tireless efforts of so many people. Our event chairs have planned out every detail. They worried about menus, numbers, awards and logistics. We owe them a great debt of gratitude. Our staff, especially, Jessica Pelt, Stevie Friedman, Aviva Kelsey, Wendy Katz, and Rachel Zutchi have been wonderful making sure that all the plans and logistics come together. The host committee and all who contributed to either sponsor, participate in the Tribute Journal, or participate in any way, have helped to make this event a success.

Mazel Tov to all our honorees. Thank you for everything you have done for our community and thank you for everything you will do. Thank you for helping us build a better Beth Sholom, and for standing as Pillars of our Community.

David Felsen
President

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Beth Sholom's 71st Annual Honoree Celebration.

This year's honorees, David Fuller, Jonathan Helfgott, Toni Waldman, and Zev Roberts, all exemplify the soul of Beth Sholom Congregation and Talmud Torah. Each person has not only committed of themselves and their time, but has shown leadership by contributing in areas which are most meaningful to each person.

There is a common thread between David, Jonathan, Toni, and Zev. Each person identified things that were important to them, and made a conscious decision to contribute to Beth Sholom based on their interests and their skills. They've all made a substantive difference to the shul community. Whether the contribution was an Interfaith Greenway, dedication to youth education, commitment to lay leadership and governance, or being a peer mentor, all of this year's honorees show how each person's volunteer efforts are key to the success of Beth Sholom as the whole.

Our Annual Honoree Celebration comes together because of the hard work of many people. A very special Thank You goes to this year's co-chairs, Heather Greenblum, Arnie Hiller, Tovah Koplow, and Evelyn Marcus-Wheeler. There have been countless emails, several nighttime conference calls and hours of work to get us to today's celebration. Without the months of hard work and planning of our administrative staff (Stevie Friedman, Aviva Kelsey, Rachel Zutshi, Wendy Katz, and Pearl Bassan), our clergy (Rabbi Antine and Maharat Fruchter) and our maintenance staff (Junior Ortiz, Julio Feliu, Marco Ponce, Richardo Laos, and Silvia Cea), the details of this event, from the on-line registration to the room set up to the dvar announcements to the accounting, would not have come together so smoothly. A very special Thank You to Ken Falk, our intrepid graphic designer who has brought his talents to the event's invitations, posters, and perhaps most prominently, to our expanded Tribute Journal. He makes these things seem so easy.

Please join me in extending a Yasher Kochachem to our honorees, and a very special Thank You to everyone who came together to make our Celebration such a wonderful event.

Jessica Pelt
Executive Director

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to the 71st Annual Honoree Celebration. We are pleased to pay tribute to four amazing people and community members: David Fuller, Jonathan Helfgott and Toni Waldman, and our teen honoree Zev Roberts. All four have provided so much to our Shul and to our community. Their time, energy and devotion often goes unnoticed, but it is never unappreciated. It is our pleasure to say thank you for all you do for us and our community.

Thank you to each of our honorees and their families, who continue to support the hard work, the commitment of time and the honorees dedication to making Beth Sholom a wonderful community and home.

An event like this does not happen without individuals generously contributing their time and talent, and we are especially grateful to the many folks who helped us as we planned and organized the event.

- o Jessica, Stevie, Aviva, Rachel, Wendy, and Pearl, our office staff who faithfully assisted with all of the details ensuring that no item was forgotten.
- o Junior Ortiz and the rest of the maintenance staff (Julio, Ricardo, Marco, and Sylvia) who worked tirelessly to prepare for this event. We appreciate their efforts today and every day, but specifically on set up, clean up, and logistics.
- o Michael Medina and Medina Cuisine and staff whose thoughtful presentation and delicious menu helped make this event a success.
- o Ken Falk whose design skills and creative eye helped shape the journal, invitations and posters.
- o Debra Panitch whose inspired and creative decorating design has made this event beautiful.
- o The Committee members who helped throughout the entire planning process and worked tirelessly to support and recognize the honorees.
- o Those who we accidentally forgot to list. There are too many to name and we know how hard you worked and how much time you put into this celebratory event.

Finally, to each of you who supported this event and Beth Sholom today and throughout the year. We are grateful for your contributions, your time and your dedication to our community.

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 71st Annual Pillars of the Community Honoree Celebration at Beth Sholom.

Beth Sholom Congregation has achieved the great milestone of serving the greater Washington, D.C. and Montgomery County area for 110 years. This dynamic, modern, orthodox congregation welcomes a wide variety of members from all ages and backgrounds and provides a strong sense of place for worship and study.

Today's celebration highlights the unwavering commitment to the shul by three members of the Beth Sholom community – David Fuller, Jonathan Helfgott and Toni Waldman. All three honorees have demonstrated their selfless service in the form of volunteerism. Whether it is providing support for youth programs, teaching for Kehillah or Board service, the Pillars of the Community honorees are to be commended for embodying our shared Jewish values of ruach (spirit) and kehilla (community).

I am proud to join Beth Sholom in extending my appreciation and congratulations to the recipients of today's special awards.

With warm regards,

Dear Beth Sholom Congregation,

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate your Congregation's Pillars of Community honorees, David Fuller, Jonathan Helfgott, and Toni Waldman.

Mr. Fuller's impressive contributions include the Shabbat afternoon Scotch and Learning Program, his service on Beth Sholom's Board of Directors and with CSS volunteers, and his instrumental leadership and vision in making the Interfaith Greenway a reality. He has demonstrated a laudatory commitment to young people, security, and enhancing and preserving environmental beauty.

Mr. Helfgott has demonstrated a deep commitment to youth and safety: educating young people by teaching Kehillah and leading junior congregation; and enhancing congregation security through his participation in CSS. He has also served through liturgical ministry, davening in the sephardic minyan. His devoted service has earned him his congregation's well-deserved recognition.

Ms. Waldman's leadership on the Board of Directors and Executive Board has earned her Pillars of Community recognition, along with her participating in lay leadership and organizing community celebrations. She, too, has contributed to educating Beth Sholom's youth through her volunteering for JSSA, CESJDS, and JCC Preschool. Ms. Waldman's committed service is indeed praise worthy.

David Fuller, Jonathan Helfgott, and Toni Waldman exemplify leadership and service directed toward the betterment of their community. I extend my sincere congratulations to them as Beth Sholom Congregation's worthy Pillars of Community honorees.

Warmest regards,

Dear Beth Sholom Congregation and Talmud Torah:

Congratulations on the occasion of the Congregation's 71st annual Pillars of Community celebration.

I want to congratulate my constituent and friend, David Fuller and his fellow honorees, Jonathan Helfgott and Toni Waldman, who are receiving this award in recognition of their many years of service to Beth Sholom and our greater Potomac community. I had the pleasure of working with David on the Interfaith Watershed Restoration Project a collaboration with St. James Episcopal Church to promote a healthy and sustainable environment for the community. This restoration project came to fruition because of his valuable leadership and expertise.

Best wishes as you celebrate the Pillars of Community honorees.

Sincere best wishes,

Congratulations to Beth Sholom Congregation and Talmud Torah on your 71st annual honoree celebration, and congratulations to congregants David Fuller, Jonathan Helfgott, and Toni Waldman on being this year's Pillars of Community honorees.

We commend David for his contributions which include his work with the congregation's youth and his vision to create a community space. Jonathan, for his integral roles as a teacher and mentor. And Toni, who had dedicated much of her own time to improving the community and acting as a leader for the congregation. You three are truly pillars of the community.

We are lucky to live in a community with active members like David, Jonathan, and Toni and it is always worth stopping for a moment to recognize them for their worthy endeavors. Enjoy the evening!

To our dearest beloved Jonathan,
who cares for everything and everyone

תודה רבה

for giving so much of your heart
to everybody around you.

You are an inspiration and aspiration to us all.

You leave each day better than you found it.

Your positivity, optimism, hard work and love of Judaism is contagious!

May you continue to serve your family and community with so much love and devotion.

With all our love,
Mom and Michal

ODE TO DAVID FULLER

An ode to David Fuller
From his Cacapon/Adas clan
Eternal gabbai, softball captain
Many Spartan races ran

To have David as a friend
This old crowd feels blessed
Even though you left D.C. behind
And moved to the Wild Wild West

In days past, on Porter Street
He was our Sukkah Man
In his "new" home at Beth Sholom
He makes improvement plans

So kol hakavod to David
Our friend since early days
We're thrilled to raise a glass
And sing your well-deserved praise
