This book is dedicated in memory of
Guta Neiman Wolke z”l and Joseph Zev Wolke z”l
Dedicated in loving memory of our parents
Guta Neiman Wolke and
Joseph Zev Wolke

Born in Poland, they met in Auschwitz, and against all odds survived the war, found each other, married and had 2 daughters, 6 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. We miss them everyday.

Dear Friends,

We recite the Yizkor service four times each year: Yom Kippur, Shmini Atzeret, Pesach, and Shavuot. And while the prayer itself does not change with the different holidays, each time it is recited, people find different meaning in it. And in many ways, this year yizkor feels unique — as we struggle with the challenges COVID-19 brings to our lives.

Even in the midst of a pandemic, we remember sitting with parents and grandparents in shul during the High Holiday davening. We remember spending time with friends in the sukkah, family Passover seders and community events on Shavuot. Hopefully each time this book is used through the year, those memories will return. We have the opportunity to dedicate a few minutes four times a year to those memories, and to recall the very special people who made us who we are today. Their values, love, and support permeate everything we do.

Whether you are joining Yizkor in person or virtually over Zoom, one meaningful aspect of Yizkor is that we can feel the collective memories of everyone in our Kehilah. It is our hope that we may elevate ourselves through the lessons of previous generations. In their merit, may Hashem bless all of us with continued health, happiness and blessing.

FOR ONE'S FATHER

יהֶר May God remember* the soul of my father, my teacher, (name of the deceased) who has gone on to his world, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on his behalf. As reward for this, may his soul be bound in the Bond of Life,* together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden.* Now let us respond: Amen.

FOR ONE'S MOTHER

יהֶר May God remember* the soul of my Mother, my teacher, (name of the deceased) who has gone on to her world, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on her behalf. As reward for this, may her soul be bound in the Bond of Life,* together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden.* Now let us respond: Amen.

FOR A MALE RELATIVE

יהֶר May God remember* the soul of my grandfather/uncle/brother/son/husband (name of the deceased) who has gone on to his world, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on his behalf. As reward for this, may his soul be bound in the Bond of Life,* together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden.* Now let us respond: Amen.

FOR A FEMALE RELATIVE

יהֶר May God remember* the soul of my grandmother/aunt/sister/daughter/wife (name of the deceased) who has gone on to her world, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on her behalf. As reward for this, may her soul be bound in the Bond of Life,* together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden.* Now let us respond: Amen.

FOR ONE’S EXTENDED FAMILY

May God remember* the souls of my grandfathers and grandmothers, uncles and aunts, brothers and sisters both on my father’s side and on my mother’s side, who went on to their world, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on their behalf. As reward for this, may their souls be bound in the Bond of Life,* together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden.* Now let us respond: Amen.

FOR MARTYRS

May God remember* the souls of (all my relatives, both on my father’s side and on my mother’s side), the holy and pure one who were killed, murdered, slaughtered, burned, drowned and strangled for the sanctification of the Name, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on their behalf. As reward for this, may their souls be bound in the Bond of Life,* together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden.* Now let us respond: Amen.

FOR MARTYRS

O God, full of mercy, Who dwells on high, grant proper rest* on the wings of the Divine Presence* — in the lofty levels of the holy and the pure ones,* who shine like the glow of the firmament — for the souls of (all my relatives, both on my father’s side and on my mother’s side), the holy and pure ones who were killed, murdered, slaughtered, burned, drowned and strangled for the sanctification of the Name, (through the hands of the German oppressors, may their name and memory be obliterated) because, without making a vow, I will contribute to charity in remembrance of their souls. May their resting place be in the Garden of Eden — therefore may the Master of mercy shelter them in the shelter of His wings for eternity; and may He bind their souls in the Bond of Life. HASHEM is their heritage, and may they repose in peace on their resting places. Now let us respond: Amen.

A psalm of Moses, the man of God. O Lord, you have been our dwelling-place in every generation.

Before the mountains came into being, before you brought forth the earth and the world, from eternity to eternity you are God.

You return men to consternation; you despise. Return to us, O Lord!

"For in your sight a thousand years are like yesterday that has passed, like a watch of the night."

"You sweep them away; they are like a smoke that passes away." At daybreak they flourish like grass; by dusk it withers and dies.

So we are consumed by your anger, terror-struck by your fury.

You have set our iniquities before you, our hidden sins in the light of your face.

All our days pass away in your wrath; we spend our years like a sigh.

The span of our life is seventy years, or eighty, if we are strong; still it is but a breath.

Who can understand our sighing? Our days are a drop of water.

Teach us to count our days rightly, that we may gain a wise heart.

Return, O Lord! How long?

Show mercy to your servants.

Satisfy us at daybreak with your steadfast love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

Give us joy for as many days as you have afflicted us, for the years we have suffered misfortune.

Let your generous love be seen by your servants. Your glory by your people.

May the favor of the Lord our God be upon us! Let the work of our hands prosper, O prosper the work of our hands!
Beth Sholom Congregation:
Our Community Remembers

Beth Sholom remembers our members who have passed away this year.

Our community mourns their loss, as the passing of each has left a unique void in our congregation.

As a community, we also stand by our friends who have lost members of their family this year.
Husbands, wives, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, sons, and daughters have passed away leaving voids in the lives of many.

May all of the mourners in our community be comforted by the memories of their loved ones, and continue to receive the support that each person needs through the Beth Sholom family.

May the neshamot of all of those who passed away this year be elevated and their memories be for blessings.
Beth Sholom Congregation:
Our Community Thanks

The Lamplighters for 5780 were able to light the bulbs on our Memorial Boards from Rosh Hashanah 5780 until the Pandemic regulations closed the shul right before Pesach (the end of March). Thank you to our dedicated Lamplighters who volunteered to light the bulbs on the Memorial Boards each month in memory of those whose Yahrzeits were observed during that month and kindle all the lights on the Memorial Boards when Yizkor is recited. Yasher Koach to each and every one of you for participating in this very special project.

Yizkor, the memorial prayer which is said four times a year (Yom Kippur, Shmini Atzeret, 8th day Pesach, Shavuot), literally means “remember”.

While the memories of our loved ones — our immediate family, our relatives, our friends and those who touched our lives — may be with us every day, we come together as a community to formally recite a prayer for individuals and the community at large so they will be remembered.

This year, Yizkor will be recited on:
Yom Kippur – September 28, 2020
Shmini Atzeret – October 10, 2020
8th day of Pesach – April 4, 2021
Shavuot – May 18, 2021

We hope that you will use this book through the year, each time we recite Yizkor as a community.

A special Thank You to our sponsors of this year’s Yizkor Book, Cyna & Paul Cohen and Anita Wolke & Ken Brooks and the sponsors of the Yizkor section, Toni Waldman & Charles Gross.

Much appreciation to our illustrations and graphics team of Debra Band & Ken Falk.

Beth Sholom offers many ways for you to memorialize your loved ones. Members are encouraged to update their on-line account with all yahrzeit information; we will send you a letter and/or an email in advance so you have a reminder to add to your calendar.

If you would like to inquire about placing a memorial plaque for the sanctuary, please contact the office.
