Happy are they who dwell in Your house; Forever shall they praise You.

Happy is the people so favored; Happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

A Psalm of David.

I will extol You, my God and Sovereign,

I will praise You for ever and ever.

Every day will I praise You,

I will glorify You for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord and much acclaimed;

God's greatness cannot be fathomed.

One generation shall laud Your works to another,

And shall declare Your mighty acts.

On the majestic glory of Your splendor

And on Your wondrous deeds will I meditate.

The might of Your tremendous acts shall be proclaimed,

And I will recount Your greatness.

Your great goodness shall be made known;

Your righteousness shall be celebrated.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion,

Exceedingly patient, abounding in love.

The Lord is good to all;

The Lord's tender mercies embrace all Creation.

All Your works shall thank You, O Lord,

And Your faithful ones shall praise You.

They shall declare the glory of Your dominion,

And shall talk of Your might,

To make known to the world Your mighty acts,

And the glorious majesty of Your sovereignty.

Your sovereignty is everlasting;
Your dominion endures throughout all generations.

The Lord upholds all who stumble, And raises up all who are bowed down.

The eyes of all look hopefully to You; You give them their food when it is due.

You open Your hand,

And satisfy the needs of all the living.

O Lord, how beneficent are all Your ways, And how gracious are all Your deeds.

The Lord is near to all who call—
To all who call upon the Lord in truth.

The Lord will fulfill the desire of those who are reverent, And hearing their cry, will save them.

The Lord preserves all those who are faithful, But all the wicked the Lord will bring low.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; Let all beings praise God's holy name forever.

We will praise the Lord, At this time and for evermore; Hallelujah.

Psalms 84:5, 144:15, 145, 115:18

The popular name of this selection, Ashrey, is derived from the word which begins each of the two introductory verses which were prefixed to Psalm 145 (liturgically) in Talmudic times. Psalm 145, in which all are called upon to acclaim God's majesty.

reflects the universalist dimension of the Hebrew Scriptures. God's providence, beneficence, and concern extend to all. (A.N.S.)

HAPPY ARE THEY WHO REVERE THE LORD

(An Alternate Ashrey)

Happy are they who dwell in Your house; Forever shall they praise You.

Happy is the people so favored; Happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

Happy are they whose ways are blameless, Who follow the teaching of the Lord,

Happy are they whom the Lord finds blameless, In whose hearts there is no deceit.

Happy are they who revere the Lord, Who are greatly devoted to God's commandments.

Happy are they who act justly, Who do right at all times.

Happy are they who are thoughtful of the needy; In time of trouble may the Lord keep them from harm.

Happy are they whose help is the Lord, Whose hope is in the God of Jacob.

Let us, therefore, praise the Lord, At this time and for evermore; Hallelujah.

KEDUSHAH: A mystical vision of God's holiness

We sanctify Your name on earth As it is sanctified in the heavenly heights. We chant the words which angels sang, In the mystic vision of Your prophet:

"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; The whole world is filled with God's glory."

Reader:

Then the heavenly voices respond in blessing, saying:

"Praised be the glory of the Lord Throughout the universe."

Reader:

Thus the Psalmist sang:

"The Lord shall reign forever;
Your God, O Zion, through all generations; Hallelujah!"

Reader:

Throughout all generations we will declare Your greatness, and to all eternity we will proclaim Your holiness. We will never cease praising You; for You, our Sovereign, are a great and holy God. Praised are You, O Lord, *the holy God.

Do not look to our wrongdoing; and do not hide Yourself from us and from our supplication. Be near as we cry out; and may Your loving grace console us. Even before we call upon You, answer us. Praised are You, O Lord, who answers us in times of distress.

Restore our judges as in days of old, and our counsellors as in former times. Remove from us grief and sighing. May You alone reign over us, O Lord, in love and mercy, and vindicate us in judgment. Praised are You, O Lord, *our Sovereign, who loves righteousness and justice.

*(Ten Days of Repentance: Sovereign of Judgment.)

May slanderers find no hope, and may all wickedness perish swiftly. May all Your enemies be speedily cut down; may the arrogant be uprooted and crushed. May You overthrow and humble them soon, in our own day. Praised are You, O Lord, who crushes the enemies and subdues the arrogant.

Lord our God, may Your compassion be stirred for the righteous, for the pious, for the leaders of Your people Israel, for our devoted scholars, for the true proselytes, and for us. Reward bountifully all who truly trust in You, and cast our lot among them. May we never be put to shame, for we trust in You. Praised are You, O Lord, the support and trust of the righteous.

With mercy, return Your Presence to Jerusalem, Your city; and abide within it, in accordance with Your ancient promise. Rebuild it, speedily, in our own day, and may it endure for all time.

Some say: Renew within it the glory of David.

Praised are You, O Lord, who rebuilds Jerusalem.

In Your mercy, cause the progeny of the House of Israel to flourish; and may Your people then be exalted and strengthened, as we recall Your promise of deliverance. For we await Your redemption at all times.

Praised are You, O Lord, Source of our redemption.

O Lord our God, hear our plea. Have pity upon us; and in Your great mercy, accept our prayer with loving favor. Compassionate God, Who hearkens to prayer, do not send us away without considering our supplications. For You, our merciful Sovereign, hear the prayers of Your People, the House of Israel.

Praised are You, O Lord, who hearkens to prayer.

ACCEPT OUR PRAYER AND BLESS ZION

Be gracious to Your people Israel, O Lord our God, and lovingly accept their prayers. May our worship ever be acceptable to You.

On Rosh Hodesh and Intermediate Days of Festivals add:

Our God and God of our ancestors, we recall and invoke the remembrance of our ancestors, the piety of their prayers for Messianic deliverance, the glory of Jerusalem, Your holy city, and the destiny of the entire Household of Israel. As we seek Your love and mercy, we pray for deliverence and for life, for happiness and for peace, on this day of Rosh Hodesh. Pesah. Sukkot.

Remember us, O Lord; bless us with all that is good. Recall Your promise of merciful redemption; spare us, have compassion upon us, and graciously save us. To You we lift our eyes in hope; for You, our Sovereign, are a gracious and merciful God.

May our eyes behold Your merciful return to Zion. Praise to You, O Lord, who restores the Divine Presence to Zion.

THANKSGIVING FOR DAILY MIRACLES

We thankfully acknowledge You, our God and God of our ancestors, Lord of eternity. You are the source of our strength, even as You have been Israel's protecting shield in every generation.

We thank You and proclaim Your praise for our lives which are in Your hand, for our souls which are in Your care, for Your miracles which are daily with us, and for Your wondrous kindness at all times—morning, noon, and night. Source of all goodness, Your mercies never fail. Source of compassion, Your kindnesses never cease. You are our abiding hope.

The following may be said in an undertone:

We thankfully acknowledge You, our God and God of our ancestors, God of all beings, our Creator, Lord of all creation.

We utter blessings and thanksgiving to Your greatness and holiness, for You have given us life and sustained us.

May You continue to bless us with life and sustenance, and gather our dispersed, so that we may fulfill Your commandments, do Your will, and serve You wholeheartedly.

Praised be God to whom all thanks are due.

V'teḥe-zena eyney-nu b'shuv-ḥa l'tzion b'raḥamim, Baruḥ ata Adonai, ha-maḥa-zir sh'ḥinato l'tzion. We thank You, O God, for the miraculous liberation, the mighty deliverance, and the heroic victories which You helped our ancestors to achieve, in ancient days at this season.

In the days of the High Priest Mattathias, son of Yohanan of the Hasmonean family, a cruel power rose up against Your people Israel, to make them forsake Your Torah and to transgress Your statutes.

In Your abundant mercy, You stood by Your people in their time of distress. You championed their cause, vindicated their rights, and avenged their suffering. You delivered the strong into the hands of the weak, the many into the hands of the few, the impure into the hands of the pure, the wicked into the hands of the just, and the arrogant into the hands of those devoted to Your Torah.

Thus You revealed Your glory and holiness to the world, while bringing a mighty deliverance to Your people Israel. Then Your children came into Your Temple, purified Your Sanctuary, kindled lights in Your sacred courts, and established these eight days of Hanukkah in gratitude and praise.

On Purim add:

We thank You, O God, for the miraculous liberation, the mighty deliverance, and the heroic victories which You helped our ancestors to achieve, in ancient days at this season.

In Shushan, capital of Persia, in the days of Mordecai and Esther, the wicked Haman sought to annihilate all Jews, from the youngest to the oldest, all in one day—on the thirteenth of the month of Adar, and to permit the plunder of their possessions. But You, in Your great mercy, frustrated his scheme and disrupted his plan. You brought upon his own head the evil he planned for others. On the very gallows he had made for Mordecai, Haman and his sons met their end.

For all Your blessings we shall praise and exalt You, O our Sovereign, forever.

During the Ten Days of Repentance add:

Inscribe all the children of Your Covenant for a good life.

May all living creatures ever thank You and praise You in truth. O God, You are our deliverance and our help. Praised are You, beneficent Lord, to whom all praise is due.

BLESS US WITH PEACE

Grant abundant and lasting peace to Your people Israel and to all who dwell on earth; for You are the supreme Sovereign of all peace. May it please You to bless Your people Israel, in every season and at every hour, with Your peace. Praised are You, O Lord, Bestower of peace upon Your people Israel.

For the sake of Your holiness and Law.

Let us now praise the Lord of all; Let us acclaim the Author of Creation,

Who made us unlike the pagans who surrounded us, Unlike the heathens of the ancient world.

Who made our heritage different from theirs, And assigned to us a unique destiny.

We bend the knee and reverently bow Before the supreme Sovereign, The Holy One, who is to be praised,

Who spread forth the heavens and established the earth, And whose glorious presence can be found everywhere.

The Lord is our God; there is no other. Truly, our sovereign Lord is incomparable.

As it is written in the Torah: "This day accept, with mind and heart,

That God is the Lord of heaven and earth; There is no other."

WE HOPE FOR THE DAY

I We therefore hope in You, O Lord our God, that we may soon behold the glory of Your might, when You will remove the abominations from the earth and when all idolatry will be abolished. We hope for the day when the world will be perfected under the sovereignty of the Almighty, and all humanity will call upon Your name; when You will turn unto Yourself all the wicked of the earth. May all the inhabitants of the world perceive and know that unto You every knee must bend, every tongue vow loyalty. Before You, O Lord our God, may they bow in worship. giving honor unto Your glorious name. May they all accept the yoke of Your rule; and may You rule over them speedily and forevermore. For sovereignty is Yours and to all eternity You will reign in glory. As it is written in Your Torah: The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. And it has been foretold: The Lord shall be Sovereign over all the earth; on that day the Lord shall be One and shall be acclaimed as One. (M.S.--a.)

BECAUSE WE BELIEVE IN YOU

II Because we believe in You, O God, We hope for the day when Your majesty will prevail,

When all false gods will be removed, And all idolatry will be abolished;

When the world will reflect the sovereignty of God, When all humanity will invoke Your name, And the wicked will be turned to You.

May all the living fervently acknowledge That to You every knee must bend, Every tongue vow loyalty.

Before You may all bow in reverence, Proclaiming Your glory, accepting Your rule.

May Your reign come soon and last forever; For sovereignty is Yours alone, now and evermore.

So is it written in Your Torah:

"The Lord shall reign for ever and ever."

The prophet too, proclaimed this promise:

"The Lord shall reign over all the earth;

On that day the Lord shall be One and shall be acclaimed as One."

A PROPHETIC VISION OF THE FUTURE (Isaiah 2:2-4)

It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the House of the Lord shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; and all the nations shall flow to it.

And many peoples shall come and say:
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the House of the God of Jacob,
so that we may be taught God's ways,
and walk in God's paths."

For out of Zion shall go forth Torah, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

The Lord shall judge between the nations, and shall decide for many peoples.

And they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

V'ne-emar, v'ha-ya Adonai l'meleh al kol ha-aretz, Ba-yom ha-hu yi-h'yeh Adonai ehad u-sh'mo ehad. As we recall those who have completed their sojourn in our midst, we reaffirm our faith, and strive to preserve the precious memories which they have bequeathed to us. With reverence and love, those who mourn now rise to sanctify Your holy name.

MOURNER'S KADDISH

Magnified and sanctified be the great name of God, in the world created according to the Divine will. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in our lifetime and that of the entire House of Israel. And let us say: Amen.

Congregation and mourners:

May God's great name be praised to all eternity.

Mourners:

Hallowed and honored, extolled and exalted, adored and acclaimed be the name of the blessed Holy One, whose glory is above all the praises, hymns, and songs of adoration which human beings can utter. And let us say: Amen.

May God grant abundant peace and life to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May God, who ordains harmony in the universe, grant peace to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

In tribute to our departed, whose memories we now honor, may our lives be consecrated to Your service. In solemn testimony to the unbroken faith which links the generations one to another, those who mourn now rise to sanctify Your holy name.
