Michigan Jewish Food Festival

Sunday, August 26 beginning at 11:00am

Presented by Hazon and located in Eastern Market, this festival celebrates the city of Detroit and the sustainable food movement. Sample local cuisine while enjoying music, workshops, speakers, and children's activities.

For more information visit hazon.org/Detroit

Co-sponsored by Congregation Beth Ahm.

There are several ways to volunteer and share your expertise at Beth Ahm. Volunteers provide an invaluable service to the congregation and receive personal reward and satisfaction from the mitzvah of sharing their time.

Below is a sampling of volunteer opportunities. For more information or to volunteer, contact the identified coordinator. To contribute to the Amy Harvey Volunteer Appreciation Fund or inquire about other ways to participate in congregational life, call the synagogue office at 248-851-6880.

Thanks in advance for your good work!

In Our Beth Ahm Community

Shabbat and Holiday Greeters

Beth Ahm's culture is highlighted by the reception people receive when entering the building. Greeters welcome both members and guests on Shabbat morning and on holidays. Located by the sanctuary doors, they welcome, answer basic questions, and help people find their way in the building. The time commitment is two hours and greeters can volunteer on a regular basis or be a substitute. This mitzvah is one that will put a smile on your face and those entering Beth Ahm. For more information, contact Manny Kalef at mannykalef@comcast.net or 248-757-2559.

Shabbat Lunch

The Shabbat experience does not end when services end. Each week volunteers provide lunch so that we can talk, laugh, and build relationships with each other after morning services. Volunteers are needed for one hour on Friday morning to cut fruit and make salads. Help is also needed on Shabbat for one hour to serve and clean-up. You can volunteer on the frequency and days that are best for you. For more information, contact Beth Nadis at bnadis@cbahm.org or 248-798-7208.

Hesed (Caring) Team

It is nice to know that someone cares. Hesed volunteers help care for our community by visiting those who are ill, delivering a meal, providing transportation, and most importantly, being a friend. Serving as a Hesed volunteer is a mitzvah that rewards you and the person you are helping. The time commitment is up to you. For more information, contact Nancy Kaplan at nancyellen879@att.net or 248-737-1931.

Yad Ezra Deliveries

Throughout the year, Beth Ahm volunteers assist Yad Ezra by delivering food packages. Deliveries are on Sunday morning. Two person teams travel throughout the area delivering food packages to those who are housebound. The time commitment is approximately two hours and this is a great mitzvah opportunity for children with their parents and/or grandparents. For more information, contact Sharona Shapiro at shapriolerner@gmail.com

Shul Rides A Growing Need

All across the country, synagogues, churches and mosques are seeing that growing numbers of long-time dedicated members of their congregations are no longer able to drive and are therefore in need of rides from friends in order to continue to attend services and events as they used to. Beth Ahm has been working on this for several years through our Hesed Team, and we continue to explore ways to address this growing need. If you would appreciate a ride to or from shul, if you might be available to help provide rides, or if you have comments or suggestions to offer, please let us know. Nancy Kaplan is coordinating shul rides. For more information contact 248-737-1931, text 248-390-4294 or nancyellen879@att.net

Sisterhood & Men's Club

Sisterhood has wrapped up another great programming year. Some highlights include bowling with clients from the Alternative for Girls program, family bingo, and herb gardening. We want to thank committee members for helping to make these programs possible.

As was mentioned at Sisterhood Shabbat, we bid a fond farewell to the rummage sale. We appreciate all of the efforts of Karen Davidson and the other volunteers who helped to make this event a successful fundraiser over the years.

At the end of the summer, you will receive a letter to renew your dues to Sisterhood. Please consider renewing or becoming a member as your support helps to enrich our programming and our shul.

Also, please consider a $10 or more donation towards the maintenance of The Ruth Mermelstein Kitchen Fund. This fund helps with ongoing expenses such as deep cleaning of the kitchen and appliance maintenance, such as the recent repair of the kitchen's dishwasher. These funds are needed to maintain this kitchen that is used every day for preparing minyan breakfast and Shabbat lunches. Call Beverly Fradis at 248-661-8395 if you would like to make a contribution.

Watch for emails and bulletin notices about upcoming Sisterhood programming, including a paid up membership event. Our next meeting is Sunday August 5 at 10:30 a.m. All are invited to attend and participate!

Thank you again for your support of Sisterhood and our shul! We wish you a safe and happy summer!

Sincerely,
Marni Foster and Nancy Goldberg

High Holidays

PREPARING FOR THE HIGH HOLIDAYS

Our congregational bylaws require members to be in good standing to receive holiday tickets. If you have an open financial obligation, please contact David Goodman at 248-851-6880 to make payment arrangements or to make an alternative arrangement. Tickets and other related holiday information will be mailed to those members who are in good standing in late August. Information about the Yiskor book will be mailed in late July.

Attention Teens : Your Help is Needed!

We would love teens to assist with services (as part of a group of people who will accompany Ronn Nadis during the Torah service) and/or read Torah during Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur. We are happy to help you prepare for this wonderful opportunity to be involved. If you are interested, please contact Rabbi Rubenstein at ravsteven@cbahm.org

High Holiday Honors

Over the course of several years, our Ritual Committee reached out to our congregation on a rotating basis to offer them honors during High Holy Day services. Still, if you haven't received an honor recently or would simply like an opportunity to participate this year, please contact Rabbi Rubenstein directly at 248-851-6880 or ravsteven@cbahm.org. We will do our best to find an opportunity for you to participate during the holidays this year.

High Holiday Youth Volunteers Needed

Want to do a mitzvah during the High Holidays? Youth, age 11 to 17, are needed to help with child-care activities on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. However, only pre-registered youth will be able to assist. If you want to volunteer, please contact Elissa Berg at 248-851-6880 or eberg@cbahm.org for more information. You will be doing a mitzvah and earning Kalt scholarship credit for future travel to Israel.

Attention Families with College Students!

Beth Ahm wants to know where your college students are studying for the 2018-2019 school year. The Charlotte and Warren Tessler College Fund is happy to send Chanukah, Purim and Pesach packages that will add extra joy to their holiday.

Contact Alison Blau at 248-851-6880 or ablau@cbahm.org to register your child.

Sidney & Bee Kalt Israel Scholarship

The Kalt Scholarship is a wonderful expression of the value that Beth Ahm places on both our youth and The State of Israel. The scholarship actively engages your child(ren) during their teen years and rewards them with funding for future travel to Israel. Each time your child dedicates her/his time towards a worthy project at Beth Ahm, they will earn credits towards this scholarship. There are a number of ways for your child(ren) to earn travel credit including:

- Volunteering to help during the High Holidays
- Serving as a madrich/madricha in the religious school
- Participating in Mitzvah Kids (social action) activities
- Helping with Shabbat kiddush, the Purim carnival, Hanukkah party, and more.

Travel credit can be redeemed for travel to Israel in 2019 and 2020. For more information about earning or redeeming credit, please contact Elissa Berg at 248-851-6880 or eberg@cbahm.org

Minyan Matters

Dear Friends,

Thirteen times a week, Shabbat morning being the only exception, a dedicated group of Beth Ahm members, and some who are not members, gather in Tauber Chapel for morning and evening services. Each service includes Kaddish for mourners while Monday and Thursday morning services also include Torah readings.

While our minyan program remains strong, we are always looking for the additional involvement of others. Consider joining us one day a week or one day a month, or consider joining us when you have yahrzeit for a loved one. Total involvement for most minyanim is thirty minutes. In addition to knowing that you will have helped insure that a mourner has the opportunity to say Kaddish, you will feel a sense of community, know that you are helping to continue an important tradition and have the opportunity to meet new people. As an added bonus, there is the camaraderie associated with a minyan breakfast if you are able to be a morning participant.

If you are not able to actively participate yourself, there is a way that you can help our minyan remain strong. Many of us know people in the community (e.g. friends, extended family, neighbors, work colleagues) who may have suffered a loss or might be searching for a "spiritual comfort zone" for whatever reason. You should tell them about our minyan and invite them to come.

To volunteer or for more information, please call or email me.

Remember: It's not how often one comes to minyan, but that one makes the commitment.

Adult Education

Rise of the Rabbis from Hebrew College Blended Online and In-Person Learning at Beth Ahm

Starts in August

Join us on a journey through one of the most transformational periods in Judaism. Examine the discourse of the classical rabbis and uncover how Talmudic argument and biblical interpretation shapes contemporary Jewish thought and practice.

Immerse yourself in the core texts that form the basis of Jewish beliefs, practice, and community today. Through engaging video lectures and probing discussion questions, you will tour through the diverse world of Jewish sects and varying religious practices that flourished in ancient Israel and Babylonia from the aftermath of the Bible to first century Judaism.

For more info. about the course and the four instructors, go to <http://www.hebrewcollege.edu/rise-of-the-rabbis>

How will this course work?

- This course contains 10 modules and we will work through the course one module per month from August-May.
 - You can watch the videos at your convenience on your computer or other device.
 - Rabbi Rubenstein will lead an online session on the 2nd Thursday of each month to review the first part of each module.
 - Rabbi Rubenstein will meet with students after Shabbat services once per month to build upon on the material from that month's learning.

This project is being underwritten by Beth Ahm's Thumin Fund for Jewish Education.

Tuition for Beth Ahm members is $36. Non-member tuition is $50.

To register for Rise of the Rabbis go to: <https://register.hebrewcollege.edu/bethahm-registration/>
For additional information, contact Rabbi Rubenstein at 248-851-6880 or ravsteven@cbahm.org

Mussar returns to Beth Ahm Inner Ladder* begins October 8, 2018

What is Mussar?

Mussar is a Jewish spiritual practice focused on cultivating our personal qualities such as humility, responsibility, generosity and others. Our tradition has provided us with practical, day-to-day methods of developing ourselves to reveal the mensch within each of us.

Questions? Contact Rabbi Rubenstein at 248-851-6880 or ravsteven@cbahm.org

Message from the President

SHALOM! Your newly elected Officers and Board are off to a busy start!

Committees are at work implementing the strategic plan developed by the board under the skilled direction of board member Dennis Blender. The plan focuses on three main areas: Board development, community involvement and young adult engagement.

Here are some highlights of our progress to date:

- David Stryk and his committee have revamped our Board orientation program and are planning ongoing leadership education to assure that our Board is state of the art.
- The Tikkun Olam Committee is thriving with the creative energy of chairperson Sharona Shapiro. Planning for a multifaceted, community-wide event coming this fall, is under way. Stay tuned for details, especially if you are a baseball fan.
- A classic returns!! We are on pace to have two new Chavurot this year. Our young families Chavurah had its first event at the home of Illana and Noah Stern. Many of us remember the days of Chavurot at our shul with utmost fondness. We hope you guys enjoy it as much as we did!! And, good news, a Chavurah for Boomers is also in the works!

As always, we continue learning about Judaism in settings throughout our building and outside its walls. Our Tikkun Leil Shavuot kept everyone engaged to the very end. And, our kids had their own version of a Tikkun which included a sleepover! Thanks to Amy Brode and Omer Chudnow who heroically stayed overnight to chaperone. We are attending classes, leading davening, reading Torah and Haftarah and studying together during Beit Midrash Shabbat and the Parshat Hashavuah class on Shabbat morning.

L'HITRAOT: "You can go but be back soon!"

Several board members have completed their "tours of duty":

Margo Woll served as President of the congregation from 2010-2012 and has now completed her 6 years on the Board as Past President. She has been a steady voice of experience on the Board having led the synagogue to a stable financial position during her tenure. We are pretty sure that, given Margo's demonstrated commitment to the shul, that we'll continue to benefit from her presence at Executive Committee meetings. As always, Margo, Todah Rabah!

Manny Kalef has been a most exemplary Board member, not only contributing significantly at Board meetings but also leading a broad array of committees. Manny's voice of reason on the Board will be missed but we know he won't be far. Manny chairs the Greeters Committee making sure our synagogue "welcomes all who enter" and is also a valued member of the finance and Tikkun Olam committees.

Jeff Blackman's voice on the Board was most appreciated. He brought valuable experience from his "day-job" and was most helpful getting the Board to the finish line when we updated the sanctuary. Todah Rabah, Jeff.

As a congregation, we rely on the input of energy, experience and expertise from all our members to support our excellent clergy and staff. We welcome all who have ideas, time, talents, $$$$ they wish to share. We are an email, phone call, or Shabbat conversation away!

Looking forward to a productive year!!

Respectfully yours,

Beth Nadis

President

My Legacy at Beth Ahm

Jewish tradition teaches, "As my parents planted for me before I was born, so do I plant for those who will come after me."

A legacy gift will preserve and perpetuate the spiritual lives of our children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

A legacy gift empowers you to give tzedakkah to your synagogue in a way that has a minimal impact on your current living expenses.

Creating a legacy gift at Beth Ahm is easy. The giving opportunities below can help you achieve your philanthropic goals.

Contact David Goodman at 248-851-6880 or dgoodman@cbahm.org to learn more.

Bequests & Wills

The simplest way to create a legacy at Beth Ahm is through a bequest. In your will or estate plan, you can designate a specific amount of money or percentage of your estate. Upon your passing, Beth Ahm receives the benefit of your bequest and your estate receives a tax deduction in the amount of the bequest. There is no minimum or maximum amount that you can bequeath and you retain control over your assets during your lifetime.

Retirement Accounts

You can name Congregation Beth Ahm as a beneficiary of your IRA, 401k or other qualified retirement plan. All you have to do is file a change of beneficiary form defining the amount or percentage of the retirement account that you want to gift to Beth Ahm. Like a bequest, Beth Ahm receives the benefit upon your passing and your estate receives a tax deduction. Unlike a bequest, a gift from your retirement account can avoid costly taxes, especially if your retirement account has substantial gains.

Life Insurance

The gift of a new or existing policy is an inexpensive way to create your legacy and receive an immediate tax benefit. You can gift an existing policy, or a portion of it, by completing a form identifying Beth Ahm as the policy owner or beneficiary. New policies, with Beth Ahm listed as the owner or beneficiary, are a cost effective method of providing a long lasting benefit.

Message from the Rabbi

Food Stamp Challenge

One night in May I took part in a version of the Food Stamp Challenge that was sponsored by Yad Ezra, our hometown kosher food pantry that works to alleviate hunger in our area. The Food Stamp Challenge is an exercise that attempts to give people who are not supported by food stamps (or SNAP—Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) an experience of shopping for food when your funds are very limited. In many ways, it is an exercise in empathy---what does it feel like to shop for food when you can only spend $4.20 for a day's worth of food? That figure is not random. SNAP recipients receive approximately $126/month for assistance which is $4.20/day.

Here's what I noticed from my attempt to shop for two days' worth of food for $8.40:

- It took me a long time to shop for my food, longer than it usually takes me. I spent a good deal of time trying to figure out what I could purchase within the limits of my budget.
- I left knowing that I didn't really have enough food. $4.20/day doesn't buy very much and I had almost no fresh fruits or vegetables.

• There are types of food that I just wasn't going to be able to afford. We all know that kosher meat is more expensive than non-kosher meat. Both because I keep kosher myself and because Yad Ezra was the sponsor of this Food Stamp Challenge, we were instructed to purchase only kosher food. With that as a ground rule, I wasn't able to purchase any meat, chicken, or fish.

• As I finished my shopping, I realized that I felt a bit tense. Even knowing that this was an exercise, an opportunity to learn a bit, the exercise created stress. To take the exercise seriously, I really needed to see if I could take home enough food. Here's what ended up in my shopping cart--pasta, beans, rice, breakfast cereal, milk, bananas, a small can of tomato sauce, a small can of corn, and a loaf of wheat bread. That's all folks. Would I survive? Yes. But to be this limited for an indefinite future was nothing to which I would look forward. And honestly, there are issues of nutrition here which I don't have time to address here.

There are limitations to the concept of a Food Stamp Challenge. Danielle Kurtzleben writes, "the true challenge isn't just stretching a small food budget; it's deciding which other dollars will go toward food versus keeping the electricity on or to staying up to date on rent. Food is just one of myriad problems." I agree, addressing hunger means addressing poverty overall. Still, I believe that the Challenge is a helpful exercise.

Fortunately for me, The Food Stamp Challenge was only an exercise, not my reality. But here is the reality-42.2 million Americans struggle with hunger and among that number are 13.1 million children (check out mazon.org for more info.) It is a mitzvah to feed the hungry. Jewish tradition has gone from imagining that mitzvah as something that an individual was able to do directly to one for which a community is responsible. But what about a nation of hundreds of millions of people? How can we feed the hungry today? Yad Ezra, Mazon, and many other wonderful organizations work to feed the hungry, but the issue of hunger on this scale should be a priority for us on a national scale at the level of national policy.

Summer is almost here so Beth Ahm is preparing for...the High Holy Days!?

While the holidays are still several months away, the congregation will begin to get ready for them soon.

Do you have an idea for Beth Ahm?

Something you'd like the rabbi to teach about?

A suggestion that will help people enjoy the holidays at Beth Ahm? We'd love to hear.

Contact Rabbi Rubenstein at 248-851-6880 or ravsteven@cbahm.org

May their memories endure for a blessing

Honor the memory of your loved ones by purchasing a memorial plaque in the Kahan Memorial Room. The purchase of a plaque will ensure that your loved one's name will be read during the week of their yahrzeit. It is a lasting tribute of your love that links the generations of your family. Plaques are currently $500 each.

We hope that you will take advantage of this opportunity to assure your loved ones will be forever remembered at Congregation Beth Ahm. If interested in purchasing a plaque, please contact David Goodman at 248-851-6880.

Plaques will be dedicated on Shemini Atzeret, October 1. Please know they take 12 weeks to arrive following your order.

What We Carry A Group Show by the Jewish Artist Collective: Chicago Until July 12

This group exhibition centers on personal, spiritual and societal explorations of the Jewish ancestral collective unconscious. Equally, the artists apply their Judaic studies to a modern world with a contemporary idiom. The range of interpretations and approaches by the artists is uniquely engaging.

On the Upper Level:

Prudence Bernstein: A Retrospective

An accomplished artist, she had dozens of juried and one-person exhibitions and was the recipient of numerous awards for her creations. A curated collection of her colorful abstract works will be on display and put on a silent auction.

Dina Routin is in the Side Gallery presenting a mixed media installation composed of artist trading cards.

The Janice Charach Gallery is open from 12 p.m. - 4 p.m. on Sundays. For information, call the gallery at 248-432-5448, go to www.jccdet.org or visit the Janice Charach Gallery on Facebook.

May their memories endure for a blessing

Honor the memory of your loved ones by purchasing a memorial plaque in the Kahan Memorial Room. The purchase of a plaque will ensure that your loved one's name will be read during the week of their yahrzeit. It is a lasting tribute of your love that links the generations of your family. Plaques are currently $500 each. We hope that you will take advantage of this opportunity to assure your loved ones will be forever remembered at Congregation Beth Ahm. Contact David Goodman at 248-851-6880.

Core Purpose

Congregation Beth Ahm provides opportunities to explore and practice Judaism in a warm and approachable community.

Core Values

Conservative: We believe in the value of weaving Jewish traditions and ritual with flexibility and modernism.

Egalitarian: We believe in the value of equal opportunity and participation in congregational life.

Learning: We believe in the value of nurturing religious and spiritual growth through the exploration of Torah and Jewish thought.

Family: We believe in the value of community within our multi-generational and child friendly congregation.

Warmth: We believe in the value of promoting an inviting, caring and welcoming environment where we demonstrate compassion toward others through Derech Eretz, Tzedaka and Tikkun Olam.
