The great Jewish historian Gershom Scholem noted that ideas and beliefs that appeared, at first, radical and heretical to Judaism sometimes wound up transforming and becoming an integral part of Jewish belief and identity. In this series, we'll examine four rabbis who were condemned as renegades but whose ideas reshaped what it means to be Jewish in the 21st century.

This series will be conducted online via Zoom. Advanced registration is required. Donations in support of this series and future adult education opportunities are appreciated. Visit www.cbahm.org/event/renegaderabbis to register and donate.

Message from the President

This summer will be like no other that we have experienced at Beth Ahm. There is so much change going on in our personal lives, and the world around us, that from the time this article is written, printed and mailed, to the time you are reading it, many significant world events are likely to have occurred.

This is a challenging and difficult time for all of us at Beth Ahm, but what has made Beth Ahm special is our love and caring for one another. We are a family, a village, a shetl in the suburbs, and, no matter what happens in the next year, that will not change.

Right now, we are all evaluating what is most important to us. We are quickly learning what is really "essential" to our lives. For me, my synagogue family is something that is essential, and I believe most of you who are reading this, believe this as well. We know that having a successful shul is not only critical to bringing us through this pandemic crisis, but it is also "essential" to making us better Jews and human beings.

We know that seeing our Beth Ahm friends online warms our souls. When we can see and hear Rabbi Rubenstein teach us Humash, lead Yizkor, or just "hang-out online," we are uplifted. These opportunities to pray, learn, and commune with each other keep us grounded. These activities bring us faith and hope during a time of despair.

So, I am urging all Beth Ahmers to continue to participate and to try something new. There are daily opportunities to join the congregation online for prayer, you can study with Rabbi on Sunday mornings, or join us for a social event like Grillin' & Chillin' on July 1 or bingo on July 12. Whatever you choose, we'll be excited to see you.

As we progress at Beth Ahm, I look forward to hearing your input. Please feel free to reach out to me. I can be contacted at msoble@cbahm.org. Please also know, if you are struggling through this pandemic, the synagogue is here to help. We have a referral network of services that we can provide to our members and non-members. Please do not hesitate to reach out to Rabbi Rubenstein, David Goodman and myself.

Israel Book Club with Julie Zuckerman, author of The Book of Jeremiah

Sunday, August 16 at 11:00 a.m.
The community is invited to join Rabbi Rubenstein for an online conversation with Julie Zuckerman, author of The Book of Jeremiah.

Julie Zuckerman's moving and engrossing debut novel-in-stories, The Book of Jeremiah, tells the story of awkward but endearing Jeremiah Gerstler--the son of Jewish immigrants, brilliant political science professor, husband, father. Spanning eight decades and interwoven with the Jewish experience of the 20th century, Julie Zuckerman charts Jeremiah's life from boyhood, through service in WWII, to marriage and children, a professorship and finally retirement, with compassion, honesty, and a respect that even Gerstler himself would find touching.

To register for the discussion and get information about purchasing the book through the congregation, visit www.cbahm.org/event/israelbookclub816

Message from the Rabbi

Beth Ahm BaBayit – Beth Ahm At Home

It is June 7th, a beautiful Michigan Sunday. My last article was written just a short time after Beth Ahm and the other synagogues in our area suspended in-person activity. Three months later, and it feels that we are not close to the end of this crisis. While many businesses and other institutions are opening back up, the sense of caution remains. Beth Ahm has not made plans for in-person activities in the coming months. Instead we are continuing to offer and extend our online programming and our efforts to reach out to our congregants in a variety of ways.

We are anxious for the time when we can all be together back in our synagogue home. The synagogue has been a key center of Jewish life for thousands of years---for community, for prayer, for learning. And it will continue to be that in the future.

The Jewish home has also been a key focus of Jewish activity for generations. The home is referred to as a Mikdash Me'at, a small sanctuary, comparing the home to the Temple. The comparison brings to mind the many opportunities that we have to encounter God at home.

I have taught this idea in the past as a way of encouraging people to think about the many ways we can engage Jewishly at home. It is strange (and beautiful) to be thinking about this gem of an idea sitting patiently within our tradition for a moment like this when we are separated from the synagogue. While recognizing the importance of community that goes beyond the walls of our home, the ways in which synagogue can enrich our lives, I am thankful that our tradition recognizes the power of the Jewish home.

With this in mind, we are introducing a special graphic for our online and at-home programming. The Beth Ahm BaBayit (Beth Ahm At Home) graphic will appear with events that we are offering online to enrich your life. I hope that when you see it, you will envision Beth Ahm reaching out from our spot on Maple Road and putting a wonderful opportunity in your hands at home. Whether it is an opportunity to catch up with Beth Ahmers, to daven together, or learn something new, these programs aim to bring holiness and beauty into your life at a challenging time for so many of us.

Beth Ahm has always been 'open for business' 365 days a year. Even now, our congregation is open and available to you, reaching out to you. Our building may be closed for the moment, but Beth Ahm is always here for you.

May their memories endure for a blessing

Honor the memory of your loved ones by purchasing a memorial plaque in the Kahan Memorial Room. The purchase of a plaque will ensure that your loved one's name will be read during the week of their yahrzeit. It is a lasting tribute of your love that links the generations of your family. Plaques are currently $500 each. We hope that you will take advantage of this opportunity to assure your loved ones will be forever remembered at Congregation Beth Ahm. Contact David Goodman at 248-851-6880.

Yahrzeits—In Loving Memory

Sponsored by the Beth Abraham Cemetery Association, serving our congregation since 1912.
