Sisterhood Shabbat

Saturday, February 3 at 5:30pm

Everyone (spouses, too) is invited to celebrate the end of Shabbat with the Sisterhood.

With spirit, the Sisterhood will lead mincha, ma'ariv, and havdala. There is a role for everyone who desires one, regardless of your level of Hebrew or Jewish education. Then, everyone is invited to stay for cocktails and dinner.

We'll welcome the new week together as friends and as a synagogue family.

If you are interested in participating in religious services, please contact Marni Foster at bahmsisterhood@gmail.com

Community Hanukkah Celebration
Sunday, December 10 at 3:00pm at Shaarey Zedek

Share the miracle and wonder of Hanukkah with a special circus-themed extravaganza for all ages. Enjoy crafts, games, entertainment, sufganiyot and latkes, plus lots more! As we continue to stand with Israel during this devastating and tragic time, Share the Light is a chance for all Jews of every denomination to come together for an inclusive, pluralistic, nonpolitical, family-friendly celebration.

Visit jlive.app/events/5771 to register.

Co-sponsored by Congregation Beth Ahm.

Visit the Beth Ahm YouTube channel to view Rabbi's Divrei Torah, lectures by Howie Lupovitch, and other great content from past Beth Ahm events.

exploringjudaism

What is Exploring Judaism?

ExploringJudaism is the digital home for Conservative Judaism. ExploringJudaism is a home for Torah that embraces the beauty and complexity of Judaism, and our personal search for meaning and learning. There is always something to learn and explore.

ExploringJudaism seeks to help people find explanations on subjects they wish to learn more about, practical guides on how to observe Judaism, and reflections on how to make life more meaningful.

Our approach is rooted in Conservative Judaism and in the ideas that Judaism grows with us, that we're guided by process, and that there is beauty in the balance.

Celebration of Beth Ahmer Lynne Golodner's new novel, Woman of Valor

Saturday, December 9 at noon

What's involved in writing a book? Beth Ahmer, Lynne Golodner, will answer this question as we celebrate the publication of her new book, Woman of Valor.

The community is invited to join for Shabbat morning services at 9:30am and lunch at approximately noon.

After lunch, Lynne will share her inspiration for the book and talk about the process of writing and publishing a book.

Woman of Valor is a fictional story about the courage to love the ordinary and seek satisfaction where you are, while shedding the need to please others.

Book Club: Kantika

Thursday, January 18 at 7:30pm

Kantika by Elizabeth Graver is a kaleidoscopic portrait of one family's displacement across four countries.

Kantika, "song" in Ladino, follows the joys and losses of Rebecca Cohen, feisty daughter of the Sephardic elite of early 20th-century Istanbul. When the Cohens lose their wealth and are forced to move to Barcelona and start anew, Rebecca fashions a life and self from what comes her way - a failed marriage, the need to earn a living, but also passion, pleasure and motherhood. Moving from Spain to Cuba to New York for an arranged second marriage, she faces her greatest challenge - her disabled stepdaughter, Luna, whose feistiness equals her own and whose challenges pit new family against old.

Organized by the Sisterhood, Book Club is open to all in the community to share insights, consider different perspectives, and engage in thought provoking conversations about books that explore Jewish life, history, ideas, struggles, and values. Contact Marsha Fershtman at fershtman@yahoo.com with questions. Book club will meet at the synagogue and the discussion will be led by Rabbi Rubenstein. Please register at www.cbahm.org/event/bookclub011824

TU BISHEVAT SEDER

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25 AT 5:30PM

Tu BiShevat is the celebration of the New Year for Trees and a great opportunity to celebrate the natural world and our connections to it, the State of Israel, and the wonder of creation overall.

Hosted by Beth Ahm and B'nai Israel, the community is invited to Congregation Beth Ahm for a seder that will give us a chance to celebrate the natural world and the process of creation. Through the different foods of Tu BiShevat we will experience and explore the world around us and the world within.

Our Tu BiShevat seder will include a light dinner, but no nuts.

Free to all but advanced registration at www.cbahm.org/event/tubishevatseder2024 is required by Friday, January 19.

Generously sponsored by the Thumin Institute for Judaic Studies. Contact Renee Fein at rfein@cbahm.org with questions.

Beyond Topography Curated by Clinton Snider January 14 - February 21, 2024

Beyond Topography is an exhibition of works that deals with the American landscape beyond the physical representation of our surroundings. These paintings, sculptures, and installations delve into several topics, including but not limited to nature, culture, and the individual. To understand our current climate, it is essential to look at how humans relate to our world, imagine the future, and interpret the past.

There are several ways to volunteer and share your expertise at Beth Ahm. Volunteers provide an invaluable service to the congregation and receive personal rewards and satisfaction from the mitzvah of sharing their time.

Shabbat and Holiday Greeters: Beth Ahm's culture is highlighted by the reception people receive when entering the building. Greeters welcome both members and guests. Located by the sanctuary doors, they welcome, answer basic questions, and help people find their way in the building. The time commitment is two hours and greeters can volunteer on a regular basis or be a substitute. This mitzvah is one that will put a smile on your face and those entering Beth Ahm.

For more information,

contact Marty Rose at cmartinrose@gmail.com.

Tikkun Olam/Social Action: Helping others is the Jewish value and we perform this mitzvah for benefit of our synagogue and the local Jewish and non-Jewish community.

Whether taking action to help a single individual, or contributing to a larger initiative our work makes the world a better place. For more information, contact Debra Darvick at debradarvick@gmail.com or Carol Kent at carolkent@aol.com.

Men's Club: Our focus is strengthening the connection between Jewish men and Jewish life. Through educational, social programs and our softball team, we build brotherhood within our congregational community and strengthen our relationships with Jewish men around the world.

For more information,

contact Ron Jedwab at ron@lincorpborchert.com

Sisterhood: We are committed to perpetuating Judaism in the home, synagogue, and community. Through social, educational, and service events, members of all ages bond with each other and our congregation. For more information,

Together With Israel

What is being asked of us as American Jews at this moment? It seems to me that we have been asking ourselves this question since Hamas' attack on Israel on October 7th. We have asked and answered this question repeatedly over the past six weeks.

As individuals and as a community we responded. We raised funds. We reached out to our family and friends in Israel. We gathered as a community to comfort and be comforted. We called elected officials. We demanded the release of Israeli hostages. We spoke with our kids, our teens, and our college students. And just this week, the American Jewish community gathered in Washington, DC, nearly 300,000 of us, to rally for Israel and for the world to demand the release of 240 hostages - babies, children, young adults, adults, seniors...

Weeks ago already, we knew that this would not end soon. And as days turn to weeks to a month and beyond, we wonder what is being asked of us now.

I have spoken to many in our community. Here's what I'm hearing from you. Many continue to feel under siege. We are spending a great deal of time every day following the news from Israel. And many are spending a good deal of time on social media pushing against an avalanche of criticism of Israel. Where do we find additional reserves of strength when we are feeling this pressure, tension, and worry?

For me, I remind myself of my friends in Israel and what they are doing right now. And if you don't have family or friends in Israel, you can think about all you have read and heard about our family, The Jewish People in Israel, now and what they are enduring. The strength of Israelis right now is mesmerizing. With hundreds of thousands of reserves called up for military service, with so many Israelis internally displaced due to rocket fire in the North, Israelis just aren't living a normal life in any way. Work is disrupted; school is disrupted; parents are away from their kids; and kids are missing their parents. And through it all, they are doing what needs to be done. They are caring for their soldiers by bringing them extra supplies. They are caring for kids who need extra attention and care because mom or dad are serving in the IDF. They are going to farms that are missing workers because the workers are serving, and they are picking crops rather than letting them rot in the fields.

So, what's our job right now? Our job, far from the front lines of war, is to remain steadfast with Israel; to make sure that the fate of the hostages isn't forgotten; to remind our elected officials to push for the release of the hostages. Our job is to continue to ask our brothers and sisters in Israel how we can help. Our job is to not move on with the news cycle but to maintain the link that we feel so strongly right now (for some, more strongly than ever).

In Israel today, the slogan is Yachad NeNatze'ah – Together We Will Win. Our job is to remember that we, here in the American Jewish community are Yachad, together with Israel.

Parashat HaShavua

with Rabbi Steven Rubenstein

Thursday mornings from 10:30am to 11:30am

Join Rabbi Rubenstein every Thursday morning for a look at the weekly Torah portion. We'll use the Torah reading, midrash, commentaries, and contemporary approaches to explore the meaning and ideas of the Torah and how it applies to our lives today.

Come every week or just drop-in.

Everyone welcome.

Message from the President

In 2016 Rabbi Jonathan Sacks, explained, “Antisemitism means denying the right of Jews to exist collectively as Jews with the same rights as everyone else. It takes different forms in different ages. In the Middle Ages, Jews were hated because of their religion. In the nineteenth and early twentieth century they were hated because of their race. Today they are hated because of their nation state, the State of Israel. It takes different forms, but it remains the same thing: the view that Jews have no right to exist as free and equal human beings.”

This was once again demonstrated as the limited empathy toward Israel and Jews quickly turned to criticism of Israel’s actions to defend herself and seek justice. It brings into question how can we possibly understand this hatred or approach antisemites logically via enlightened dialogue, education, or documented evidence. As Rabbi Sacks also said, “Hate needs no logic. It is a sickness of the soul.”

So, what actions can we take to address our anger, fear, disgust and anxiety now and in the future? The answer will vary by person; however, I hope you will consciously make your own list and hopefully it will include at least some of the following. I will:

1. Visibly, vocally and financially support Israel in her mission to defend herself.
2. Be a source of support for my daughter and others who are experiencing their own anger, fear, disgust and anxiety.
3. Resist my urge to turn inward.
4. Fight Jew haters by proudly and actively celebrating my Judaism at home, in synagogue and in the community.
5. Advocate for Jewish organizations including but not limited to Beth Ahm, Hillel Day School, FJA, Tamarack, Camp Ramah, Hillel on campus that all help our kids develop their Jewish identity in the face of antisemitism.
6. Plan to visit Israel.
7. Vote for politicians who fight antisemitism and support Israel.
8. Not celebrate innocent lives lost during this war forced upon Israel.
9. Not focus my energies on trying to address antisemites whether they try to disguise their hatred via their wokeness, academic credentials or myopic empathies.
10. Not support companies, restaurants, media, educational institutions, public figures and actors who have voiced their opposition to Israel.
11. Not be silent.

I forever, pray Israel achieves her objectives of ongoing peace and security. Am Yisrael Chai !

May their memories endure for a blessing

Honor the memory of your loved ones by purchasing a memorial plaque in the Kahan Memorial Room. Purchasing a plaque will ensure that your loved one's name will be read during the week of their yahrzeit. It is a lasting tribute of your love that links the generations of your family. Plaques are currently $500 each. We hope that you will take advantage of this opportunity to assure your loved ones will be forever remembered at Congregation Beth Ahm. Contact David Goodman at 248-851-6880.

Yahrzeits—In Loving Memory

Sponsored by the Beth Abraham Cemetery Association, serving our congregation since 1912.

Core Purpose

Congregation Beth Ahm provides opportunities to explore and practice Judaism in a warm and approachable community.

Core Values

Conservative: We believe in the value of weaving Jewish traditions and ritual with flexibility and modernism.

Egalitarian: We believe in the value of equal opportunity and participation in congregational life.

Learning: We believe in the value of nurturing religious and spiritual growth through the exploration of Torah and Jewish thought.

Family: We believe in the value of community within our multi-generational and child friendly congregation.

Warmth: We believe in the value of promoting an inviting, caring and welcoming environment where we demonstrate compassion toward others through Derech Eretz, Tzedaka and Tikkun Olam.
