YIZKOR

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The deaths of those we now remember have left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us and by precious memories that comfort and sustain us as we recall them on this day.

A Personal Meditation

*Even while we mourn the death of a loved one, there is room in our hearts for thankfulness for that life.
We have lost what we have had. For those years of love and comradeship there is no adequate compensation.*

*Impoverished as we are by the passing of our beloved, we should be poorer by far if we had never tasted the joy and richness of that union. Sadder than losing a loved one is never having had a loved one to lose. We can be grateful, too, that while death robs us of our loved ones, it cannot take from us the years that passed and their abiding impression.
These have entered into our lives and become part of ourselves.*

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live,
for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.

*When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.*

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.

*As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.*

A PRAYER WHEN A PARENT DIES

by Naomi Levy

I miss you. You gave me my life. You were my protector, my teacher, my moral compass, my comfort. I feel so alone without you. No one worries about me the way you did. No one loves me the way you did.

Please forgive me for the times I caused you pain, and for the times I took you for granted. I can't begin to fathom all the sacrifices you made for my sake.

I want to thank you for all the ways you blessed my life. Nothing can replace the gaping hole your death has left in my life. But mixed together with all my sadness, there is a great joy for having known you.

I will remember your smile, your touch. I will remember your laughter, your kindness, your generosity, your determination, your love.

Thank you for the time we shared, for the love you gave, for the wisdom you spread. I will always treasure the lessons you taught me. I will carry them with me all the days of my life. I am so proud to be your child.

May God watch over you and bless you, with gentleness and with love. As you blessed me. Rest in peace.

Amen.

Psalm 13 - “How long will this pain go on, Lord, this grief I can hardly bear?
How long will anguish grip me and agony wring my mind?
Light up my eyes with your presence;
Let me feel your love in my bones.
Keep me from losing myself in ignorance and despair.
Teach me to be patient, Lord;
teach me to be endlessly patient.
Let me trust that your love enfolds me when my heart feels desolate and dry.
I will sing to the Lord at all times, even from the depths of pain.”

Psalm 23 - “The Lord is my shepherd:
I have everything that I need.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters;
He refreshes my soul.
He guides me on the paths of righteousness,
so that I may serve Him with love.
Though I walk through the darkest valley or stand in the shadow of death,
I am not afraid, for I know You are always with me.
You spread a full table before me,
even in times of great pain;
You feast me with Your abundance and honor me like a king, anointing my head with sweet oil, filling my cup to the brim.
Surely goodness and mercy will follow me
all the days of my life,
And I will live in God’s radiance forever and ever.”
(From Stephen Mitchell’s “A Book of Psalms”)

“A MEMORIAL PRAYER”
from Talking to God, by Naomi Levy

I haven't forgotten you, even though it's been some time now since I've seen your face, touched your hand, heard your voice. You are with me all the time.

I used to think you left me. I know better now. You come to me. Sometimes in fleeting moments I feel your presence close by. But I still miss you. And nothing, no person, no joy, no accomplishment, no distraction, not even God, can fill the gaping hole your absence has left in my life.

But mixed together with all my sadness, there is a great joy for having known you. I want to thank you for the time we shared, for the love you gave, for the wisdom you spread.

Thank you for the magnificent moments and for the ordinary ones too. There was beauty in our simplicity. Holiness in our unspectacular days. And I will carry the lessons you taught me always.

Your life has ended, but your light can never be extinguished. It continues to shine upon me even on the darkest nights and illuminates my way.

May God bless you as you have blessed me with love, with grace, and with peace. Amen.

On a rocky hill in the suburbs of Jerusalem the Jewish People have erected a memorial to the six million who perished in the Holocaust. The name given to this place of pilgrimage, contemplation and memory is "Yad Vashem," words taken from the prophecies of Isaiah.

Idiomatically, the words mean "memorial" but it is the literal translation which should give us pause at this time. "Yad" is hand and "shem" is name.

At this time of Yizkor, of remembering, we may thus learn how a Jew does what little mortals can do to insure immortality. The "yad" indicates the possibility of mitzvah, of righteous action.

As active participants in striving to achieve a moral world, we perpetuate a life gone and fondly recalled in our conscious deeds, in the work of our hands.

A living memorial is thus dependent on the name's enhancement, not in the material, which is, after all, ephemeral, but in time. Yizkor is that moment of orientation in a lifetime of memory meaningfully applied.

THE FAMILY REUNION ...

The family reunion is an event that punctuates and dramatizes the flow of our lives.

*Children are born, they grow up,
Our own parents pass on, friends die
It is growing late, it is years since we began,
And we hardly remember growing older!*

At the family reunion we look from the oldest member;

Who may not be present next time,
To the youngest, who was not here last time.

*We suddenly glimpse our lives
As a trajectory in time
Beginning at one point and ending at another.*

To a higher network of interconnecting arcs.

*Life is not only a series of experiences;
It is a whole-real, objective, and unique.*

Life is a process of tracing on sand.
With some patterns deeper; larger and more beautiful.

Yet the wind and water ultimately wash over all.

By the same process, time constantly erases its own surface

While forming a deeper structure we never see.

For beneath the sand there is rock

Constantly being shaped by our lives-by our tracings in sand.

At the family reunion the great chain of generations

Threads its way to the present moment,

Linking the old to the young, the dead to the unborn.

It contains – and is contained – by our own life.

As human beings, we are born into a family.

We live without and within it; we color it and shape it,

We bring to the family our gifts, our acts, our children,

Shaping it with all the days of our lives-

And even with our inevitable passage into eternal life.

— Rabbi Arnold M. Goodman

ZACHOR The Adopt-A-Kaddish Program

More than one million Jewish children were murdered during the Holocaust and there are few, if any, people left to say kaddish for them.

The Adopt-A-Kaddish program seeks to keep their memories alive by adopting a child murdered in the Holocaust with a pledge to remember them on their yahrzeits and during yizkor.
We honor and remember those children adopted by Beth Ahm members.

Our Deceased Loved Ones Come Alive

At the beginning of Noah Gordon's marvelous novel, The Rabbi, the protagonist, Rabbi Michael Kind thinks of his beloved grandfather, who died when he was a teenager, and recalls a Jewish legend that teaches, "When the living think of the dead, in paradise the dead know that they are loved and they rejoice."

Each time we do something worthy because of their teaching or example, our deceased loved ones come alive. If we listen, we can hear them call to us as God called to Abraham in establishing the sacred covenant of our faith.

Be a blessing ! (Genesis 12:2)

Study and follow God's instruction!

(Genesis 17:1)

Practice and teach those you love to practice righteousness and justice! (Genesis 18:19)

And then, when we turn their teachings into our actions, we know—we absolutely know—that our loved ones are immortal, and they live on in a very real and special way.

A Time To Mourn

A Time To Mourn is a guide to Jewish tradition surrounding death, burial, and mourning.

Whether you are experiencing this aspect of our lifecycle currently, or are simply interested in learning more, A Time to Mourn is a helpful place to begin.

If you have any questions about these traditions, please contact Rabbi Rubenstein at ravsteven@cbahm.org or 248-851-6880.

You will find A Time To Mourn on the Beth Ahm website here:
<http://cbahm.org/in-times-of-loss/>.

If you would like a paper copy, please contact Alison Blau in the synagogue office.

Yizkor Prayers will also be recited on:

Shemini Atzeret	October 21, 2019
Passover	April 16, 2020
Shavuot	May 30, 2020

For a Yahrzeit

The family is gathered at dusk, on the eve of the anniversary of the death.

At this moment, which bears the memory of our beloved
_____, let us join hands in love and remembrance.
A link has been broken in the chain which has bound us together, yet strong bonds of home and love hold us each to the other.

We give thanks for the blessing of life, of companionship, and of memory. We are grateful for the strength and faith that sustained us in the hour of our bereavement. Though sorrow lingers, we have learned that love is stronger than death. Though our loved one is beyond our sight, we do not despair, for we sense our beloved in our hearts as a living presence.

The 23rd Psalm, or another favorite passage from the Bible or Prayerbook, might now be recited.

Sustained by words of faith, comforted by precious memories, we kindle the Yahrzeit light in remembrance.
“The human spirit is the light of the Lord.” As this light burns pure and clear, so may the blessed memory of the goodness and nobility of character of our dear _____ illumine our souls.

The light is kindled.

זיכרונו/זכרונָה לברכה

Zikhrono/Zikhrona Li'verakha.

His/Her memory is a blessing.

MINYAN MATTERS

Beth Ahm's daily minyan is a spiritual comfort zone for Jews throughout the community as well as for our own congregants.

People are drawn to minyan for many reasons – to say kaddish for a loved one, to find comfort at a time of stress or sorrow, to help ensure a quorum for kaddish and Torah reading, or simply to perform the uplifting mitzvah of daily prayer, to praise and thank God for continually renewing the work of Creation and making our lives possible.

*You are invited to join our daily minyan
this New Year
on whatever basis feels comfortable for you.*

Daily Minyan

Monday – Thursday: 7:00am and 7:00pm

Friday: 7:00am and 6:00pm

Sunday and major secular legal holidays:

9:00am and 5:00pm

Shabbat morning: 9:30am

Shabbat Minha: 5:00pm

(1:00pm in December)

For more information, contact minyan coordinator

Rick Emmer

at 248-660-4071 or minyan@cbahm.org

May their memories endure for a blessing

Honor the memory of your loved ones by dedicating a memorial plaque in the Kahan Memorial Room.

The dedication of a plaque will ensure that your loved one's name will be read during the week of their yahrzeit.

It is a lasting tribute of your love that links the generations of your family.

Contact David Goodman
at 248-851-6880
to dedicate a plaque.

*L'shana Tovah Tikateivu!
