A Message From Rabbi Weitzman

Buried in the footnotes of our siddur, Mishkan Tefila, is a reflection on the sustained cycles of redemption in our lives. "Every day", said the rabbis, "we are sold into slavery; every day we are delivered; and every day we experience miracles as real as at the Sea." We all have moments when we feel shackled by schedules and obligations, and hopefully, these burdens of responsibility are alleviated by a task accomplished, an expression of gratitude, or a sense of camaraderie with our families, colleagues, and communities. Beyond these rhythms of stress and solace, our rabbis remind us to notice a flower blooming, a child laughing, or a ray of sunshine on a cloudy day. In short, the small wonders are so easily camouflaged, and unfortunately overlooked, in our wild world.

If we peer at our lives, not through the lens of quotidian experience, but with an eye toward the Torah's chapters and phases, the rabbis' wisdom endures. In the summer months, we find ourselves trekking through the desert in Bamidbar (Numbers) and Devarim (Deuteronomy). The Israelites, marching toward the Promised Land, must coalesce as a people around the shared values and traditions of their emergent faith.

As a community, we have been moving towards this moment. I am the fourteenth Senior Rabbi in Congregation Beth Emeth's history, and the first to hold The Rabbi Scott L. Shpeen Senior Rabbinic Chair. When I was first chosen by the Search Committee, I told the Chair, and now President, Robyn Marinstein, that I am humbled to have been selected as your next Rabbi.

It is a role that I understand comes with a deep sense of commitment to the city and people of Albany, a responsibility to honor our community's history and legacy, and as a visionary for what our future will hold.

First, as your Rabbi, I will maintain and honor the great history of Beth Emeth not only in the Capital Region but also within the Reform movement. Prior to my time at HUC-JIR, I pursued studies in Archeology and History. Though my path has diverted to a different, but somewhat related calling, I still feel as though I am digging for the truth in my own way. Yet, if there is one thing that my love of History and the Classics has taught me, it is that where we have come from is just as important as where we are heading.

From Wise to Weitzman, there is a great legacy of leadership and community engagement in-between, that will remain at the core of my rabbinate. We are all here today because we all stand on the shoulders of giants, and understand the importance and significance of our shared history and shared obligation to honor our past, which will serve as our guide for this next chapter.

Second, writing the next chapter and investing in the next generation of Beth Emeth members, is essential to guarantee our future success. The book of Proverbs teaches: "Teach a child the way they ought to go, and they will not deviate from it in their old age". I believe that the Jewish community has a lot to offer to our children, but perhaps, it has even more to offer to the families and parents who are tasked with raising this next generation.

Throughout this past year, one of the things that I am most proud of is the creation of CBE and Me: a program for young children and the grown-ups who love them. It has helped us net 25 new member families and it has provided a space for parents and grandparents to come together and realize that we at Beth Emeth will be there to partner with them to raise their children.

I look forward to expanding our excellent family programming, helping to innovate within our Religious School, and invigorate our post-B'nai Mitzvah experience. Next year we will begin a new model of Confirmation that I believe will offer more flexibility for our teens and opportunities to study. Working alongside our faculty and Director of Lifelong Learning, Rabbi Shara Siegfeld, we will reinvigorate the culture of continued connection for kids and families after B'nai Mitzvah and stress the importance of summers spent at the URJ camps. Our children will lead the way, but it is up to us to provide them with the tools to succeed.

I am excited to welcome Cantor Emily Short to Beth Emeth next year. She represents the newest vision of creativity, innovation and change that is a long standing part of the CBE tradition. I look forward to sharing the bima together as she lifts our spirits and touches our hearts with her warm and mellifluous voice.

And finally, I look forward to being a builder of communities within the Capital Region and beyond. In September of 1847, Rabbi Isaac M. Wise sent a letter to his colleagues in Germany titled The New American Jew. While the subject of the note was a defense of the robust Jewish communities in America, at the end Rabbi Wise signed his note as "The Rabbi of Albany". My career has brought me to be the Rabbi of Congregation Beth Emeth. Yet within that path, I believe that I am more than a congregational Rabbi. I strive to be a leader not only for the congregation, not only for the city of Albany, but also for our movement.

Congregation Beth Emeth is special, and our history has shown us what can happen when individuals are bold. Though I am hoping to avoid fist fights on the bimah, I am not going to shy away from pushing our congregation to think bigger and brighter.

Whether it is through my work with the Albany Police Department, volunteering at local organizations, or advocating for the land of Israel, I look forward to representing this great congregation as your Rabbi.

As we all head off into the relaxed rhythms of the summer months, trust that your Beth Emeth will be there for whatever you might need. Ashley, Eden, Jonathan and I wish you long days of sunshine and warmth and we look forward to seeing you soon on Academy Road.

A Message from Our President

The Future is Bright at Beth Emeth

As the seasons continue to change from cooler nights to warmer weather, we as a community and congregation are also at an exciting moment of transition. This past year we were blessed to have two Co-Senior Rabbis who worked together seamlessly. Under the leadership of Rabbi Scott Shpeen, we have had four decades of consistent leadership. We are grateful for all that he has done for us and our community.

When one door closes, another opens. As of July 1, 2023 we welcome Rabbi Greg Weitzman as the fourteenth Senior Rabbi of Congregation Beth Emeth. I have personally had the pleasure of working alongside him this past year, and know that he is the right Rabbi at the right time for our community. Rabbi

Weitzman embraced Beth Emeth and his impact on our congregation is notable and I have no doubt it will continue to grow

I will never forget the night I called to offer the Rabbinic position at Beth Emeth to Rabbi Weitzman. There was radio silence at first and when he finally answered with YES, I was relieved and delighted. Since last July, Rabbi, along with Ashley, Eden and Jon have made Albany and Beth Emeth their home. On a personal note, I am honored to call the Weitzman family my friends. And you never know, but in 30 years or so, I might just have the privilege to say with pride - I was on the search committee that brought Rabbi Weitzman and his amazing family to Beth Emeth!

Whatever your plans are this Summer, I hope that you will join us on Academy Road either in-person or via the livestream for an event or service.

Under the leadership of our new Senior Rabbi and joined by our new Cantor Emily Short, I have faith and believe that the future of Congregation Beth Emeth is bright.

Ed and I wish you all a joyful and warm summer.

Kathy's Corner

Make new friends, but keep the old. One is silver the other is gold

My catch phrase this past year has been, "Have you met Rabbi Weitzman yet? He really is a wonderful guy." One year ago, our new Senior Rabbi, Greg Weitzman, joined our congregation. It's been a perfect year of collaborating and I am excited that CBE's future is extremely bright under his leadership.

Some of you might be missing Rabbi Shpeen. But please let him enjoy his retirement. Our congregation is in strong, compassionate hands with a new leader who is doing a phenomenal job. If you have not already met Rabbi Weitzman, please make an appointment; you will be happy you did!

Before we hired Rabbi Weitzman, we developed an application with all of your input from surveys and focus groups, to let rabbinic applicants learn about Beth Emeth and to share what characteristics we were looking for in our new Senior Rabbi. Allow me to take a page from our application and tell you what a fabulous job Rabbi Weitzman has done. The title of the page, was the third in our familiar phrase, Connect Belong, Engage.

ENGAGE

The Qualities Our Beth Emeth Family is Excited About in a New Rabbi

Compassion: An outgoing leader who embraces the importance of building and sustaining interpersonal relationships with our members and in the greater community. A strong sense of being present and demonstrating acts of compassion in all their interactions, on the pulpit, as a teacher, in life-cycle events, and working in partnership with the officers, board and staff.

Rabbi Weitzman has empathy. His leadership style is thoughtful whether he is teaching students or working on a committee with our lay leaders. Rabbi Weitzman finds a connection with each person he speaks with.

Integrity: A trustworthy, ethical and respectful individual who understands the challenges of today's societal issues. A rabbi who openly embraces and supports the diverse needs of the community. The Rabbi must be able to discern the best interests of our Beth Emeth community and act accordingly.

Being thoughtful is not a skill you can teach someone. Fortunately, Rabbi Weitzman possesses integrity. I have been with Rabbi Weitzman when he has had to deal with extremely difficult situations. He has done so calmly, patiently and like a mensch.

Vision/Confidence: A rabbi who has self-confidence to partner with lay leaders and our staff in implementing a vision that is reflective of the changes in modern day Reform Judaism. The Rabbi must respect our history and understand the emotional aspects of change as she/he leads us forward.

Although new to Beth Emeth and bursting with innovative ideas, Rabbi Weitzman has been wise to make small changes, and slowly introduce different ways that we can improve, and make Beth Emeth a better place. I look forward to seeing his visions become reality.

Rabbi Weitzman sure checks all the boxes!

CBEYG

Congregation Beth Emeth Youth Group

As CBEYG came to end, we were reminded of what a wonderful and successful year 2022 to 2023 was. Between Apple Overnight and Retreat at Eisner Camp, CBEYGers accomplished a lot this year! The Board helped plan different events and programs every week including the Purim Carnival and creative services. We are all looking forward to continuing to be involved over the summer by volunteering at the Garage Sale. A special congratulations to our seniors who have recently graduated, and we can't wait to see you all on Alumni Night! As always, CBEYG will continue regularly in the Fall on Wednesday nights with dinner and fun activities. With the new Board recently installed, we are so excited to continue CBEYG and to see old and new faces this upcoming year!

The Capital Pride Center, the oldest continuously operating LGBTQ+ center in the country! Since the late 1990's, June has been known globally as Pride Month, where members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex, queer and questioning, and asexual community are recognized and celebrated.

Sisterhood

Thank you!

What does saying thank you mean? It is an expression used to tell someone that you are grateful because they have given you something or done something for you. Sisterhood hosted their annual Installation Ceremony on May 31. It was a beautiful ceremony led by Rabbi Shpeen, Rabbi Weitzman and Cantor Kohn. It was the perfect ending to a very successful year for Sisterhood. We thanked our outgoing board members; Gayle Abrams, Emily Handelman, Heather Higgins and Nancy Lozman, who all dedicated their time and energy to make Sisterhood thrive this past year. We also welcomed four new board members; Linda Barnas, Kasy Hoffman, Karen Kaufman White and Shari Rosenblum. Each of them will bring a new and exciting perspective to Sisterhood.

Sisterhood has exciting things planned for this summer including a couple of joint events with Brotherhood; Saratoga Day at the Races and Cruising on the Hudson. I hope to see you soon at a Sisterhood function. I also hope everyone has a wonderful and relaxing summer. My summer advice to quote Rabbi Shpeen, "this summer do two things; make a new friend and read a good book." I will definitely try to do both of those as well.

In Sisterhood, Sara Bonder Sisterhood President

Three Days of Celebration

With a heart full of gratitude...

The three-day celebration of my retirement is now just behind me, and I am still basking in the “afterglow” of all of the momentous festivities that took place. From the Community Cocktail Reception Thursday evening, Shabbat Services/Gala Oneg on Friday to the spectacular Dinner and Program Saturday evening, I am still “flying high”.

Since most everything was kept a “tight lipped secret” from me, I did not know what to anticipate. Certainly, everything that took place far exceeded any of my wildest expectations. None of the MANY details at each of the events went unnoticed or unappreciated by me or my family. The invitation, the pictures and decorations, the food, the tributes, the video, the commemorative book, the many gifts and expressions of appreciation were all truly overwhelming and most heartwarming.

I will long treasure and deeply appreciate all that was done by so many as I know, only too well, the hard work, energy and effort that went into planning each and every moment, all coordinated under the direction of co-chairs, Jill Goodman and Artie Malkin, and the MANY others who were part of the committee and those “behind the scenes” as well (certainly my colleagues and staff members).

In addition, I am touched beyond words for the hundreds of people who so generously contributed to the Endowment Fund to support The Rabbi Scott L. Shpeen Senior Rabbinic Chair in my honor as a lasting tribute to my rabbinate at Beth Emeth. I will never be able to fully express my gratitude to each and every one who made that initiative from the Board become a reality and especially to those who were on the front lines to make it such a huge success.

Please know as I begin my retirement this month, that I will forever treasure the role that you, my dear congregants, each have played (and those who came before) in making my rabbinate at Beth Emeth what it has been these past thirty-eight years

I will spend the next few months for sure, reflecting upon those blessings, relishing in all that we accomplished TOGETHER and the impact you have all made on my rabbinate and in life as well.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU,
THANK YOU, THANK YOU! #FORCA

Rabbi Scott L Shpeen

BERLIN

May 18-24, 2024

Join Rabbi Greg Weitzman on a Tour of BERLIN, the birthplace of Reform Judaism

Jewish history in Europe neither begins nor ends with the Holocaust. Together we will explore 1,000 years of Jewish history, and find our way through the streets where the Reform movement was born. We'll confront the horrors of the past, experience the nascent Jewish renewal of the present, and discuss the challenges that face a Jewish future in Europe.
