WHERE: Sister Maureen Joyce Center at 369 Livingston Avenue (corner of Livingston & Thornton) in Albany

WHEN: SUNDAY FROM 11:00AM TO 2:30PM

ALL VOLUNTEERS MUST BE HEALTHY AND EXHIBIT NO COVID-RELATED SYMPTOMS. ANYONE WITH UNDERLYING HEALTH CONDITIONS WILL BE UNABLE TO VOLUNTEER DURING THIS TIME.

UPDATES DURING COVID-19

- Only volunteers and cooks are allowed into the building at all times. The doors are always locked, and no visitors are to enter the building.
- All the meals are prepared, placed in to-go containers and then in a paper bag for dissemination to each visitor.
- Coffee and soup will not be served.
- If anyone asks you to throw something away in the building, you are not allowed. Please advise them that you are not allowed to take anything back into the building.
- All to-go meals are handed out in bags at the front door, across from a table to keep patrons outside and safe distance from the volunteers who are inside.
- Social distancing is practiced within the building among volunteers and masks and gloves must be worn at all times.
