

MARK YOUR CALENDARS
Saturday March 30 – Thursday April 4

• Inspiring Community Events •

Celebrating Love - Heroism - Art - Justice - Reconciliation

WEDNESDAY APRIL 3

Del Mar Theater • 1126 Pacific Ave, Santa Cruz

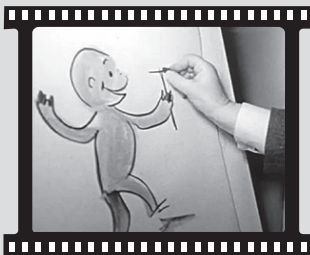

ALL MOVIES FREE

6:00 pm NEAR NORMAL MAN
 Ben Stern survived nine concentration camps. Yet thirty years later he took on the fight of his life, to stop American Nazis from marching in his home-town of Skokie, Illinois.

6:30 pm ON MY WAY OUT:
 The Secret Life of Nani & Popi
 After 60 years of seemingly model marriage, Holocaust survivors Roman and Ruth Blank reveal to their family a huge secret.

Q & A with producer Lilli Gross follows, please join us.

7:45 pm MONKEY BUSINESS:
 The Story of Curious George's Creators
 Hans and Margaret Rey, the authors of the Curious George children's books, led extraordinary lives, retold through animation and archival footage.

Bring the kids to Curious George story time at Bookshop Santa Cruz on Sunday, March 24 at 4 pm!

THURSDAY APRIL 4

Cabrillo College • 6500 Soquel Dr., Aptos
 Samper Recital Hall, VAPA 5000

FREE TO THE PUBLIC

In collaboration with the Cabrillo College Office of Student Equity

2:00 pm PROSECUTING EVIL
 27 year old Ben Ferencz was lead prosecutor in the Einsatzgruppen case, then the biggest mass murder trial in history. It was his first trial. The evidence over the ensuing decades proves that a short man can cast a long shadow on behalf of the victims of atrocities.

Followed by a panel discussion on creating a more just and lawful society.

The 2019 SCJFF closes with casual refreshments in the courtyard.

Arrive early to assure seating.
 Admissions to all showings are on a first come – first seated basis.

• EXTRAORDINARY FILMS •
FREE TO THE PUBLIC

We thank our sponsors and contributors who have made this film festival possible.

Bring your friends
 Share in the conversation, inspiration and collaboration.

Temple Beth El
 Jewish Community Center

We're the people who make life better.