Keynote Speaker:

Will Eberle: Field Director, Agency of Human Services

Will Eberle has spent the past decade helping disenfranchised Vermonters overcome adversity and realize their potential. This has included direct-service, administrative, training, and consultancy roles with an emphasis on mental health, addiction, trauma, homelessness, and supported employment. He has provided national trainings and keynote speeches on these topics and currently serves as a Field Director for the Vermont Agency of Human Services. When he isn't working, Will enjoys canoe camping with his kids, trail running with his dog, and knitting elaborate sweaters. He lives in Northfield, Vermont.

"We'll Build A Land"

Dessert

Olam Chesed Yibaneh

I will build this world from love
And you must build this world from love
And if we build this world from love
Then G-d can build this world from love

We'll Build A Land

Words: Barbara Zanotti; music: Carolyn McDade

We'll build a land where we bind up the broken.
We'll build a land where all people are free,
Where the oil of gladness dissolves all mourning.
Oh, we'll build a promised land that can be.

CHORUS:

Come build a land where sisters and brothers
Anointed by God, may then create peace:
Where justice shall roll down like waters,
And peace like an ever flowing stream.

We'll build a land where we bring the good tidings
To all the afflicted and all those who mourn.
And we'll give them alms instead of ashes.
Oh, we'll build a land where justice is born.

We'll be a land building up ancient cities,
Raising up devastations from old,
Restoring ruins of generations
Oh we'll build a land of people so bold

Come, build a land where the mantles of praises
Resounding from spirits once faint and once weak;
Where like oaks of righteousness stand her people
Oh come build the land, my people we seek.
