Each TRACK reflects a different kind of learning modality and occurs during the academic year.

Campus Track: Learning takes place at CRJ.

Pop-Up Track: Learning takes place somewhere off campus.

Family Track: Parents and students learn together at CRJ.

Topic Track: Learning takes place away from CRJ at a location related to the topic being studied.

Interest Track: Learning takes place at CRJ based on interests including art, music, drama, technology, nature, and other areas of interest.

Children will also experience TARBOOT (culture) where students can explore Judaism through art, drama, cooking and Movie Making.
