General Outline of the Halachos of the Three Weeks

During the "Three Weeks" (from Shiva Asar B'Tammuz until Tisha B'Av), we begin to observe some practices of communal mourning. Below is a general outline of these observances, if you have specific questions please contact Rabbi Halpert directly at rabbiyehudahalpert@gmail.com.

1. Shiva Asar BeTamuz - Individuals who are sick, pregnant, nursing or elderly are not required to fast. However, eating should be limited to food that merely sustains as opposed to snacks and other delicacies.
2. Listening to live music, dancing and the playing of musical instruments are generally prohibited during the Three Weeks.
3. Shehecheyanu should not be said during the Three Weeks. Therefore, we try to avoid entering into situations where the bracha of shehecheyanu is required. New fruits should not be eaten and new clothing should not be worn. This refers only to significant clothing that would require this bracha. For example, a simple shirt may be worn.
4. Haircuts and shaving: Haircuts are prohibited during the three weeks. Many poskim extend this to shaving as well. People who normally shave daily and have a need to shave may shave during the three weeks. All should refrain during the Nine Days, or at least during the week of Tisha Be'Av.

The Nine Days - In addition to the above, there are additional restrictions that apply during the "Nine Days" (From Rosh Chodesh Av until Tisha Be'Av).

1. Lawsuits and Business Ventures – It is best to minimize business ventures and lawsuits during this time.
2. Purchases – Any object of simcha (joy) should not be bought during the Nine Days.
3. Construction and Home Decorating – All construction of simcha (joy) should be suspended during this time. If the construction is needed for living, then it is permissible.
4. Eating Meat and Drinking Wine is prohibited (except for Shabbos).
5. Laundry may not be done at home, or at the cleaners. In addition, one should not enter a laundromat, even if the clothing was washed before the Nine Days. Children's clothing that easily becomes soiled may be washed. Freshly laundered clothing should not be worn. This restriction applies to linens and tablecloths as well.
6. Swimming is generally prohibited during the Nine Days.
7. Showering and Bathing for pleasure are prohibited even with cold water. It is permitted, however, before Shabbos, or if you are dirty or perspired.
