Sharon and David Butler

Sharon and David Butler are longtime residents of the Washington area.

Sharon was raised in Kew Gardens Hills, New York, where her parents spent much of their careers immersed in the field of education and Jewish summer camping.

David is a proud native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (Go Steelers!), where he was raised in a home that modeled hachnasat orchim and communal responsibility.

Sharon's involvement in the Jewish community has taken many forms, serving on the boards of several organizations, including Kemp Mill Synagogue and Bikur Cholim of Greater Washington; as the Admissions Director at Berman Hebrew Academy for a decade; the inaugural Kollel Administrator for the Torah Mitzion Kollel at Berman; and an active supporter of Jewish Orthodox Feminist Alliance (JOFA), Jewish Coalition Against Domestic Abuse (JCADA), and the Women's Division of the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington, where she has been a proud "Lion of Judah" for decades. Sharon enjoys her book club, travel, exercise, and spending time with the couple's four children — Etan (and Stephanie Pastor), Ami, Kira (and Jon Rich), and Ranan, their six grandchildren, Zahava, Gal, and Lev Butler, and Aiden, Jordan, and Gabriel Rich, and their grand dog, Mia.

In addition to his career as a trial attorney, David has taken on leadership roles throughout the Jewish community, driven by his passion for Jewish education, Israel advocacy, and communal engagement. He served as President of the Hebrew Academy of Greater Washington, President of Kemp Mill Synagogue, President of the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington, and President of the United Jewish Endowment Fund of Greater Washington. He currently serves in national leadership roles at Jewish Federations of North America. David has served as counsel for a number of national and international Jewish organizations, and is an active member of AIPAC, JCRC of Greater Washington, and Gather DC. He is also active in local, regional and national political affairs, and is part of the ownership group of Mid-Atlantic Media, publisher of Washington Jewish Week and Baltimore Jewish Times. David is proud to have completed the recent seven-and-a-half-year cycle of Daf Yomi, and has re-upped for another round.

Thirty years ago, Sharon and David joined with a group of friends to establish the Kemp Mill Synagogue. From the modest beginnings of the KMS adventure to the shul's impressive growth to its current level of communal prominence and influence, they have shared the pride in those achievements with their fellow founders. And they can't wait to see what the next thirty years will bring.

Lisa Brookman

“Everything I do, I do for them” may be Lisa Brookman’s mantra for her own children, but we have benefited from her enthusiasm as an executive board member and vice president of youth programming at KMS for the past few years. Lisa’s highly innovative and creative events ranged from paint nights to Purim carnivals to popsicles in the park. Hailing from San Diego, CA, Lisa’s sunny disposition adds to her always positive attitude in everything she does. And her claim that she puts her heart and soul into her children is completely true, but they—Eliana, (14), Nadav (13) and Nava (8)—accompany her to all her programs and assist, partake, and are so supportive of her as well. Lisa and her husband, Jason, moved to Kemp Mill in 2011, and they, as well as their children, are an effervescent and always reliable team of volunteers.

Lisa, a graduate of Stern College for Women with a BA in English Literature, studied at Nishmat in Jerusalem and is a graduate of the Pardes Educators Program. Lisa has also taught Judaics at Maimonides School in Boston and Hillel Academy in Pittsburgh. She has been an executive board member at KMS since 2017, and is presently a board member at Berman Hebrew Academy, the school her children attend. Her children participate in her events, and each one is involved in the shul’s programs. Eliana serves as a group leader, she and her brother, Nadav, are involved in the Teen Minyan, and Nava belongs to the Junior Minyan. Lisa’s focus in her position at KMS was to make sure there was programming for all ages: from the youngest participants to teens, which included art, baking, and shiurim.

When Jason Brookman was offered a position as a doctor at the Shock and Trauma Center in Baltimore, Lisa’s dream of moving to Kemp Mill, finally came true. Having spent some time in our wonderful “shtetl” during college, Lisa realized, “This is a special place and I had always hoped to return to this community.” We are the fortunate ones to have Lisa and her family reside in our town, and to gain from their high energy.

Youth Honorees

Akiva Berkowitz

Akiva has been a member of KMS from a young age and is thankful for the many opportunities he has been given to become actively involved in the community. As a part of the Holocaust Committee, Akiva has helped organize youth involvement in the annual Yom HaShoa v'HaGvura Program.

Akiva has also been actively involved in Bnei

Akiva, starting as a madrich and most recently serving as Rosh Snif. In this capacity, he has helped to organize snifim for children in grades 2-6, youth programming, and Bnei Akiva Shabbatonim. Akiva is also a member of the Leadership Initiative for Teens led by Dr. Erica Brown. Through KMS, Akiva has gained experience in public speaking by giving divrei torah and has learned how to participate meaningfully in the community around him and to lead by example. Akiva is particularly thankful for the many educational opportunities and remarkable mentors that are a part of the KMS community.

Outside of KMS, Akiva is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy. He has served as the treasurer of the Upper School Student Council, as well as a delegate on the Berman Model UN Team and a member of the Debate Team. He is looking forward to continuing his learning at a hesder yeshiva in Israel next year and then plans to study at the University of Pennsylvania.

Liora Guberman

Since moving to Silver Spring ten years ago, Liora has taken on many volunteer roles within the KMS community. Starting in 9th grade, Liora became a Shabbat group leader for Junior Congregation and continued working in groups for all four years of high school. Liora led the chesed cooking club, cooking food for Bikur Cholim to provide to families in need. Liora has also been passionate about Bnei Akiva, most recently serving as Rosh Za"ch and playing a large role in planning a regional Bnei Akiva Shabbaton at KMS earlier this year. Liora consistently helps with shul events throughout the year, including setting out name cards before Rosh Hashanah and helping to run the annual Purim carnival and sukkah hop.

In addition to her KMS involvement, Liora is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy, where she is involved in her grade student council. Last year, Liora was part of the NCSY JUMP team that helped create a halacha texting service, which won a $5,000 prize and recognition from the Orthodox Union. She also teaches at a Hebrew school and volunteers with Chai Lifeline. Liora has a love for learning and is excited to attend Midreshet Moriah in Israel next year to continue her Jewish growth. Liora would like to thank her school and shul community for helping shape her into the leader she is today and her parents for their love and support.

Judah Guggenheim

Judah has been a member of KMS his entire life and is grateful for the opportunities for growth and leadership that the community has provided him. Judah has been very involved in ritual life at KMS over the years, serving as a gabbai for the Friday night Ruach Minyan and coordinating layning for Shabbat mincha. He frequently reads

Torah on Shabbat and during the week, including at KMS shiva minyanim, and visits Holy Cross Hospital every year on Rosh Hashanah and Purim to blow shofar and layn Megilat Esther for patients. Judah has been active for several years in Bnei Akiva and currently serves as a Rosh Snif, coordinating events for 2nd through 6th graders. Judah is grateful for the warmth and guidance he has received from his role models at KMS, including Rabbi Weinberg, Rabbi Bieler, Rabbi Levitt, and Rabbi Moses.

Outside of KMS, Judah is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy, where he has leadership roles in the Debate Team, Mock Trial, Model UN, and the Israel Action Committee. He teaches middle school students to prepare them for the national Chidon HaTanach competition and coaches the Berman middle school Math Counts team. Judah is looking forward to carrying his KMS experiences with him as he learns in Israel next year and then continues his studies at Princeton University.

Zanvy Lesnoy

As a life-long member of KMS, Zanvy considers the shul his second home. He has enjoyed years of davening alongside family members and participating in countless youth activities. Zanvy has been an active participant and leader in the Youth Minyan, where he has served as gabbai for both Sunday morning and Shabbat morning minyanim. Zanvy has also served on the KMS Teen Board since its inception. Zanvy is very grateful for the leadership opportunities and educational programming KMS has offered him over the years and wishes to thank Rabbi and Mrs. Weinberg, Rabbi and Mrs. Levitt, and Lisa Brookman for their mentorship and for leading by example.

Zanvy is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy, an active member of Chai Lifeline, and a member of Rabbi Mittelman's Shabbos afternoon shiur, which has been learning together for 7 years! Zanvy looks forward to bringing the skills he has developed at KMS as he continues his Torah study next year in Israel and then at Yeshiva University. Zanvy is grateful for this recognition and congratulates all of tonight's honorees for their outstanding contributions.

Elie Lowenstein

Elie has been a member of KMS for 17 years and has been actively involved in shul life for as long as he can remember. Since his Bar Mitzvah, Elie has contributed regularly to the youth minyan as a layner and davener for the amud. He is currently the gabbai for the Youth Minyan on Shabbat morning, coordinating youth to lead tefila each week. Elie has been involved in the KMS Teen Board as well as in Bnei Akiva, where his roles have included serving as a madrich for Za"ch (7th and 8th graders). Elie thanks KMS for the communal leadership opportunities he has been given and loves the ruach at KMS, especially on Simchat Torah!

A senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy, Elie loves to play sports on the school's teams, especially the varsity basketball team. For the past year, Elie has also volunteered for Chai Lifeline. Elie is looking forward to attending yeshiva next year in Israel.

Naomi Rosenbaum

Naomi joined the KMS when she was four years old and has become an active member of the community and the shul. She has taken on leadership roles within the KMS youth minyán and Bnei Akiva. Over the past four years, she has organized divrei Torah for the Friday night Ruach Minyan and lead the Kiddush Committee for Shabbat day. Naomi has been an active member of Bnei Akiva, serving as a madricha for three years and, this year, as Rosh Snif. Working along with her two co-Roshei Snif, she has organized bi-weekly snif, as well as other events. Naomi was also a participant of the KMS Teen Board for two years. Naomi is thankful for the learning and youth programming KMS has offered her and the values of leadership, chesed, and chochma that have been instilled in her by the shul.

Outside of KMS, Naomi is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy, where she currently serves as president of the student body and has been part of the upper school student council for four years. Naomi is also part of the JCRC Student-to-Student program, which educates high school students about anti-semitism. Naomi would like to thank her school and shul community for showing her how to be a value-oriented leader and her parents and sisters who support her every day.

Adielle Tuchman

Adielle's family has been involved in KMS since they moved to the community 23 years ago. Adielle grew up attending Bnei Akiva snif and was excited to take on the leadership role of a madricha, most recently serving as one of the Za"ch Roshim. At KMS, she has also served on the KMS Teen Board, where she learned the importance of contributing to a community while gaining leadership skills and experience with public speaking.

Outside of KMS, Adielle is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy, where she has held many leadership positions. These have included serving on her grade's student council as president and managing executive, head of the Israel Action Committee, captain of the varsity soccer and basketball teams, and editor-in-chief for the school's yearbook. Adielle loves fashion and has revamped her fashion blog, @idl.byadielle, to focus on encouraging women to adopt greater tzniut. Adielle is looking forward to carrying the lessons KMS has taught her as she moves on to Midreshet Harova in Jerusalem next year and, B'Ezrat Hashem, the Israel Defense Forces thereafter. Adielle is very thankful for this opportunity and greatly appreciates her amazing teachers and role models, especially Rabbi and Mrs. Weinberg, Rabbi and Mrs. Levitt, the Bnei Akiva Vaad Horim, and her parents. She wishes a big mazal tov to all of the other honorees tonight!

Zachary Winters

Zach has been an active member of the KMS community since his family moved to Kemp Mill from Georgetown when he was in third grade. Since middle school, Zach has made the KMS Youth Minyan his second home, serving as gabbai for the Friday night Ruach Minyan and leading davening on Shabbat and chaggim. Zach has also held leadership roles in Bnei Akiva, most recently as Rosh Za"ch. He also serves as a 12th grade representative on the KMS Teen Board. By serving the KMS community, Zach is following in the footsteps of his parents, who are very involved in the shul and love to see Zach and his brothers engaged in the community as well. Zach is grateful for Rabbi Weinberg, Rabbi Levitt, and other community members who have served as mentors and role models, helping to make KMS such a welcoming place.

Outside of KMS, Zach is a senior at the Berman Hebrew Academy. He participates in varsity basketball, soccer, volleyball, Model UN, NCSY, and Chai Lifeline. Zach plans to spend next year learning in yeshiva in Israel.

Rabbi's Message

This past Shabbat we read Parashat Hachodesh in anticipation of Rosh Chodesh Nisan, which we will celebrate this coming week. This special Torah reading speaks of the first mitzvah given to the Jewish people, which was to sanctify the new moon and begin to count time. This was a particularly impactful mitzvah for individual slaves transitioning to a life of freedom, suddenly able to control their own time and destiny. This was also a mitzvah laden with symbolism for the nation as a whole: Just as they count time according to the moon which waxes and wanes, so too they might experience those highs and lows but ultimately appreciate the hope of eternity that lies within those cycles.

Beyond the symbolism of this mitzvah, there is a calendrical importance to it which is also connected to the Parshiot of Vayakhel-Pekudei. The mitzvah of Kiddush Hachodesh began on Rosh Chodesh Nisan (the first month) of the year of the Exodus, signifying the beginning of our physical freedom. The completion of the Mishkan, our spiritual home as described in the parasha, took place on Rosh Chodesh Nisan one year later. Rosh Chodesh Nisan is the day that marks both our physical and our spiritual redemption. It is the day which fuses the two facets of our lives which must go hand-in-hand: Our physical existence helps provide a healthy and stable context for our spiritual growth, and our spiritual existence gives meaning and purpose to our physical reality.

The union of physical and spiritual embodied by Rosh Chodesh Nisan is not just a core part of our individual identities, but also a core part of the identity of our shul. KMS is, of course, our spiritual home which provides us with a plethora of wonderful opportunities for Torah learning, davening, chessed, and the performance of mitzvot. However, our shul is also a home that provides us a safe space with opportunities to nourish our human needs like relationships, social encounters, stimulating programming, a sense of community, and even physical fitness. That is something we can be very proud of.

Sharon and David, and Lisa: You have each recognized what is special about KMS. You have each helped to build and to foster the successes of our shul in both the spiritual and physical realms. Your time and willingness to serve is invaluable and we truly appreciate it.

Akiva, Liora, Judah, Zanvy, Elie, Naomi, Adielle, and Zachary: You have each contributed in different ways to the incredible youth program we have at KMS. You are role models to the younger kids in our shul of what it means to strive for the best in both our physical mundane lives and our spiritual ones. You have developed a sense of yearning from growth and leadership in both arenas and I know that will carry you so well into the next phases of your lives.

Mazal Tov on these well-deserved honors!

Rabbi Weinberg

President's Message

Thank you for joining us tonight as we celebrate our 30th annual banquet and thirty years of our synagogue playing a major role in our lives.

Our theme, MiDor LiDor, from generation to generation, perfectly describes our honorees. Sharon and David Butler, part of our founding generation, helped build the shul and our greater community from the ground up figuratively and literally. Whether you recall our early beginnings on Hermleigh Road or only know our beautiful home on Grays Lane, you must know that Sharon and David's fingerprints are everywhere.

Sharon and David live MiDor LiDor, helping to build, sustain and grow our congregation and community, and hand it over to the next generation in better shape than when they received it.

Lisa Brookman epitomizes that next generation, anxious to build on what exists; always striving to make it better. Lisa took the hand-off from the Butlers, without a fumble, and ran with it. Lisa led a team of enthusiastic volunteers and talented professionals in creating superb youth programming and an environment where our youth and teens could grow and thrive.

Evidence of the success of Lisa's efforts are our latest generation; our eight dedicated and talented youth honorees. Akiva Berkowitz, Liora Guberman, Judah Guggenheim, Zanny Lesnoy, Elie Lowenstein, Naomi Rosenbaum, Adielle Tuchman and Zachary Winters. It takes a community to raise our children. MiDor LiDor, Sharon, David and Lisa all contributed to the success of KMS and the growth and development of our next generation.

Mazal tov to all our honorees. Thank you to everyone for your own personal contributions to our KMS community.

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to extend my warmest greetings to the Kemp Mill Synagogue community as you gather for the 30th Annual Gala Banquet.

You have chosen wisely in selecting Sharon and David Butler and Lisa Brookman as this year's honorees. Each has given wisely, compassionately and generously to the community of their time and talents. I am also pleased to congratulate this year's Youth Honorees: Akiva Berkowitz, Liora Guberman, Judah Guggenheim, Zavy Lesnoy, Elie Lowenstein, Naomi Rosenbaum, Adielle Tuchman, and Zachary Winters.

Each of these leaders has had an impact on those around them, providing inspiration and role models of committed Jewish leaders. We are all grateful for all they do to make a difference in the lives of others. I am proud to join the members of Kemp Mill Synagogue in honoring them and wishing them a hearty "Mazal Tov"!

You have my best wishes for an inspiring and enjoyable celebration. May the KMS community continue to go from strength to strength!

Dear Sharon and David,

We remember when you were Mr. and Mrs. Butler.
We met through the Academy and Michelle's professional involvement with your family.

Sure enough the families grew and so did the kids.
Aliza and Kira were in the same class and became good friends. Aliza's first extended sleepover was at Sharon and Mr. Butler's house.

We moved to Kemp Mill a few months before KMS opened its doors. The relationship between the families continued to evolve. Over these 30 plus years, through
KMS, MJBHA, KMS Hashkamah Minyan Shiurim, Kiddush Klub, Super Bowl festivities, Starbucks and countless Shabbat and yom tov meals, we got to know you as Sharon and David. We celebrate smachot together and support each other when necessary.

During this time, we have watched, with admiration, your devotion to the Jewish community. Sharon's work at the Academy, David's stewardship of a young KMS, and your broader commitment to the greater Jewish community locally and nationally are impressive.

Throughout you have been both friends and role models (and so how could we say no?!). Let's raise a glass and drink l'chaim to many more years of friendship.

With love,
Michelle and Jonathan

Mazel Tov and thank you to Lisa Brookman and all the youth honorees on your well-deserved recognition.
May you go from strength to strength!

David and Sharon

This is not your first rodeo.
There are many in the community who have been helped by your private acts of kindness, and many organizations improved by your guidance.
There is so much more to do and we are sure you'll be there.

Congratulations!
Sandi and Isi

Lisa

Thank you for working so tirelessly

KMS is a thriving center of modern Orthodoxy, Torah learning, and inspiring tefillah, thanks to you, your vision, talents, and dedication. We are so grateful for all you've done to create our wonderful shul and community.

Lisa,

Under your leadership, the KMS youth program continued to thrive and inspire our children. Thank you for stepping up and doing a fantastic job!

To all the youth honorees,

We have seen all of you grow into impressive young men and women. You have contributed much to our shul and we wish you hatzlacha in all your future endeavors. May you go from strength to strength (and you're always welcome back in our basement!)

Ema and Abba

We could not be more proud of you.

You have modeled to us the path of righteousness, balance, justice, truth, kindness, discipline, integrity, beauty, patience, communal responsibility, love of our people and mankind.

Sabba - your shoes are just too big to fill but we will always strive to be in step with you. Your grandkids feel that you are a leader, extraordinarily generous, wise, a loyal Steelers fan, cigar aficionado and just plain powerful. And, we know that the honor of the husband is a reflection of the shine of his wife, so congratulations on the blinding glow!

Savta - we feel that you are the most generous and sweet and thoughtful and organized person in the world, but not just now, like of all people ever. We also have never met another human that is as giving and giving and giving as you, like the Energizer Bunny of Giving, like always thinking about all of our needs and wants and reminding us of them. And, we're not kidding, or just trying to make you feel good, and, sorry for making you blush, we know you don't like or need the attention, but, just sayin...

Mazel tov KMS. 30 years have gone by in a flash.

Sharon and David,

We go back a long, long time and have shared many events together.

You were one of the first couples we met when we moved here.

You helped with Bezalel's bris, almost 40 years ago, when the caterer backed out at the last moment.

We remember the 'celebratory kiddush' when David became a 'Partner' — Perhaps this led David to take his 'kiddushes' very seriously.

Since then we have been through so much together.

Thank you for all you both have done for our shul, schools, and the community.

Wishing you many, many years of continued health, long life and happiness together.

May you go from strength to strength.

Sarah and Buddy

Dear Sharon and Dov,

Your dedication to your shul,
community, and Klal Yisroel

Dear Sharon and David,

Mazal tov an a highly-deserved and much-delayed honor. We are especially happy to be joining, long distance, your friends and family in saluting you and your contributions to the Jewish Community of Greater Washington.

We are so happy that you agreed to be this year's banquet honorees. Now the rest of KMS will learn about your enumerable and selfless contributions to our community.

Your involvement in communal matters is founded on a long Butler/Block tradition of volunteerism with the good of our community, broadly defined, as your only mission. A wide range of Jewish communal organizations—the Melvin J. Berman Hebrew Academy, the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington, Bikur Cholim, to name just a few—benefited from your leadership.

Our friendship spans many, many years. We started out as next-door neighbors, with our children growing up side-by-side. They remain close friends to this day. Notwithstanding that we are now oceans apart, our friendship endures.

May you go חיל אל חיל in good health.

To Sharon and David,

We had to look in Funk and Wagnalls to understand the meaning of a word:

he-ro

/ 'hirō/ noun: hero; plural noun: heroes;

1. A person who is admired or idealized for courage, outstanding achievements, or noble qualities.
2. A sandwich

It's tough to decide which definition applies here. You both are admired not only by those who know you but by many who you have touched and helped and don't know it because you don't advertise your accomplishments.

You both have the courage of your convictions and never pass up an opportunity to better the community. Whether it's with the Federation, the larger Jewish Community, or in making sure that Jewish interests are protected in politics, you never hesitate.

And like the Hero Sandwich, it takes two pieces to make the sandwich complete. You are a true hero sandwich.

We are proud of you and proud to be your friends. May you go from project to project and from strength to strength for many years to come. Mazel tov.

Lisa,

Thank you for all you do for our community and our youth. It is members like you who make this kehillah so special.

LONE SOLDIER

A Novel

Leo Rozmaryn

LONE SOLDIER brings alive the shifting motivations and allegiances of larger-than-life characters during the early 1970s, some of the most significant years in the history of Israel and the United States. In the spirit of Herman Wouk's novel, The Winds of War, LONE SOLDIER is part military thriller, mistaken identity and complicated star-crossed love story. Fast-paced action is paired with meticulously researched historical events. LONE SOLDIER features a mixture of real and fictional characters to create a sprawling epic of the tensions between Israel and the U.S. and between a range of social classes in a time of love and war. What emerges is the portrait of one man in particular, Arik Meir, a hero for his time – and for all time.

David and Sharon,

Like starting a new family, a community is built on the backs of those who selflessly devote countless hours to its success. As community leaders, volunteers, and parents, KMS would not be what it is without you. From growing up in your home to the guidance you have given us over the years, we have experienced firsthand the benefits of your commitment to our community and cannot thank you enough.

Lisa,

Raising a family truly does take a village. Tirelessly working to better KMS and enrich the lives of our children, you embody that message and our families are the better for it. Thank you for all that you do for our families and community.

To all of this year's honorees,
