

torah @work

NAVIGATING THE WORKPLACE AS A TORAH JEW

Live podcast interviews with community professionals who will share anecdotes and insights into their work with a focus on personal and ethical challenges they face.

Led by Rabbi Dov Foxbrunner

JANUARY 8 @ 8:00PM

BJ CONFERENCE ROOM

ANESTHETISTS

Ben Krohn
Emory University Hospital

Rivka Neuberger
Grady Hospital

PRACTICAL CHALLENGES

- *Davening before dawn? During my 15 minute lunch break?
- *Scrubs as a wardrobe

SOCIAL CHALLENGES

- *Maintaining a close work relationship that isn't a close friendship
- *Base language and communication

ETHICAL / HALACHIC CHALLENGES

- *Working on organ procurements and abortions
- *Not giving up on a patient when everyone else has

Sponsored by a group of Beth Jacob member medical professionals.

NEXT SESSION: BUSINESS

January 22 @ 8:00pm

Shlomo Storch, CEO Networx.com

Shulamith Klein, Chief Risk Officer, Emory University and Emory Healthcare

Special Shovavim session with a focus on male/female relationships in the workplace.

