

Congregation Beth Jacob of Atlanta organized "Pastries for Police" on Sunday, Oct. 29, when Jewish community members prepared hundreds of pastries and presented them to the police to say thank you for providing added security. In this photo, boys present a police officer with a homemade card.

Candle Lighting

→ P. 19

Harav Eliyahu Shmuel Shmerler, Zt"l
Marking his yahrtzeit on 25 Cheshvan

→ P. 8

Hagaon Harav Menachem Mendel Kasher, Zt"l

→ P. 12

Torah Umesorah Holds Its 67th Annual Convention

→ P. 46

IN THESE CHALLENGING TIMES,

MAY OUR אהדות
BE A ZECHUS FOR ALL OF KLAL YISROEL

שנשמע ונתבשר בשורות טובות

Adopt-a-Kollel
AN INTERNATIONAL RELIEF RESPONSE

INFO@ADOPTAKOLLEL.ORG
Giving every individual the opportunity to collectively make a difference.

ATLANTA

On Sunday, October 29, Congregation Beth Jacob of Atlanta organized "Pastries for Police," in which hundreds of community members prepared pastries and presented them to the police, to say "Thank you" for providing added security for the Jewish community. In this photo, boys present a police officer with a homemade card.

SWAN LAKE

Hanachas even hapinah for the new shul in Pupa Camp in Swan Lake.

WATERBURY

At Yeshiva K'tana of Waterbury, Rabbi Daniel Kalish spoke to the third graders at their has'chalas Mishnayos. It was extra special, as his son is in the class.

WATERBURY

The third grade of Yeshiva K'tana of Waterbury at their has'chalas Mishnayos with (L-R) their Rebbeim, Rabbi Moishe Bloom and Rabbi Shmuel Dov Oratz, and their Menahel, Rabbi Yehuda Brecher.

Rabbi Nissim Abrin of Cleveland Visits Adopt-a-Kollel Partner Kehillah in Eretz Yisrael

Rabbi Nissim Abrin, Rav of Congregation Bais Avrohom of Cleveland, recently visited his Adopt-a-Kollel partner kollel, Kollel Yesod Ha'Avodah, led by Harav Matis Weinberg in Yerushalayim. In a letter, Rabbi Abrin wrote, "I spent some time Thursday morning in our partner Kollel, led by Harav Matisyahu Weinberg, shlita. I was thoroughly impressed with the hasmadah I observed, and the kol Torah that I heard from down the street.

"The Rosh Kollel honored me with sharing divrei Torah, and although I felt bad interrupting, I utilized the opportunity to thank them for their partnership. Thank you and thanks to Adopt-a-Kollel for your role, in what is a great zechus for us."

CHICAGO

At Yeshiva Ohr Boruch, the Veitzener Cheder, Rabbi Bienstock's 6th graders celebrated a siyum on 1,000 amudim of Gemara from Maseches Bava Kamma, Perek HaKones. The talmidim were mekabel to review an amud or more one or more times at home; their results are recorded each week and posted on a chart in their classroom.